Bomba Live 2! Virtual Puerto Rican Celebration to Support Domestic Violence Survivors

Virtual Conference Features Historic Convening Of Puerto Rican Star Power & Advocates

Bomba Live! & community partner Concilio today announced Bomba Live 2! Virtual Puerto Rican Celebration will take place on Saturday, June 12th, from 2 p.m. to 12 Midnight, EST.

The virtual conference and awards show will be a true showcase of the talent, character and perseverance of the Puerto Rican people. Bomba Live 2! will raise funds for Love Shouldn't Hurt in Philadelphia and a community organization in Puerto Rico TBA. Both organizations that support survivors of domestic violence.

“As the femicide crisis has escalated in Puerto Rican communities on the island and throughout the diaspora, Bomba Live! felt compelled to focus this year’s event on sending a clear message: the culture of violence perpetrated against Puerto Rican women and our loved ones must be eradicated. Ni Una Mas,” says Bomba Live! founder Rafael “Ray” Collazo.

Like the inaugural Bomba Live!, this year’s event will feature Puerto Rican superstars and honor legendary community figures. Freestyle legend Betty “Dee” Lebron of Sweet Sensation will host the Prime-Time Awards Show along with acclaimed Actor J.W. Cortes. Initial list of honorees includes In The Heights Screenwriter Quiara Alegria Hudes, Hip-Hop Architect Bobbito Garcia, Chemist and Inventor Dr. Roselin Rosario-Melendez and Luis Gonzalez of the acclaimed “Suave Podcast.” Confirmed celebrity appearances include Brenda K. Starr, K7, Daphne Rubin Zuniga & Reggaeton Star Rigo V. This mega event will also feature the debut of “Death of Cocotazo,” a Puerto Rican novela written by Ivelisse Rodriguez, directed by Rhina Valentin, produced by Elbert Garcia and starring Ivelis “Funky Bacalao” Matos and the Boricua Social Media All-Stars.
