

OBITUARY

Alonzo Stallworth was born on August 29, 1938 to the late Clarence Stallworth Sr., and the late Corine Loftin Stallworth, of Thomasville, AL. He was preceded in death by his parents and his siblings; Richard, Eugene, Clarence, Delsie, and Gloria.

He confessed Christ at an early age and was baptized at the New Hope No. 1 Baptist Church of Thomasville, AL., he also attended school in Thomasville, AL. After graduating High School he attended Alabama State University in Montgomery, AL., on a football scholarship. He then moved to New York and was employed with Con Edison Electrical Company for many years. After retiring, he relocated back to Thomasville, AL., and joined the Sunflower AOH Church under the leadership of Rev. Samuel Calhoun. He became an ordained Deacon under Reverend Calhoun, this was his most proudest accomplishment. He also was a member of the Masonic Lodge 128 his favorite scripture was the Psalm 23.

He was a very gifted individual blessed with many talents and skills in electrical work, plumbing, auto mechanic, carpentry, and welding, just to name a few.

Deacon Stallworth leaves to cherish his memories his loving wife; Ellen Woods-Stallworth, three sons; Victor (Rose) Morrisette, Telvis Stallworth, and Rodney (Kenya) Woods, one sister, Vera Kelly, six grandchildren; Rodrick Morrisette, Victor (Charlene) Morrisette, Erica (Anthony) McClain, Deondra Morrisette, Rodney Woods, Jr., and Destiny Woods. Two sisters-in-law; Mary A. Jenkins and Clara Woods, two brothers-in-law; Gerald (Wylene) Woods and Barney (Beverly) Woods. A host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.