OBITUARY

Death is an ending of a life-long test of sacrifice. Its reward is rest.

Mrs. Daisie O. Woods was born April 25, 1897 in Marengo County, Alabama. She was one of eleven children of Carlean and Samuel Jackson.

During her younger years, she attended Selma University and taught school in Clark County.

Having very devout parents who reared her to attend church regularly, she accepted Jesus Christ early in her life. At her passing, she was a member of Pleasant View Missionary Baptist Church, Airport Hills, Birmingham, Alabama of which the Reverend Rufus Lawrence is the pastor.

She married the late Calvin Woods with whom she shared fifty years of constant and loving companionship. To this union three daughters were born of which one preceded her in death.

Surviving to cherish her loving memory are two daughters, Carlean McClure of Fairfield, Alabama and Hattie Burton of Chicago, Illinois; five sisters, Carlean Watkins of Compton California, Irene McNeal of Cleveland, Ohio, Venie G. Hughes of Sacramento, California, Izora V. King of Cincinnati, Ohio and Neicyee Robinson of Los Angeles, California; one brother, Samuel E. Jackson of Cincinnati, Ohio; two sons-in-law; eight grandchildren; three great grandchildren; and many other relatives and friends.
