DISMANTLING THE WALLS BETWEEN US

Please join us at NCBI as we explore pathways to DISMANTLING THE WALLS BETWEEN US.

Many of us have a secret wish to improve our skills to have challenging conversations. We seek the courage to transcend and transform unpleasantness.

Where do we turn when we are tired of the same old lines? DISMANTLING THE WALLS BETWEEN US is an interactive session designed to boost confidence in communication by listening in ways that connect us. The exercises give participants the chance to reflect on a different way of approaching conversations and relationships from which the skills flow. You may find a surprise inside yourself!

NCBI is offering this free virtual workshop as our gift to the community. The workshop will be offered on ZOOM. Registrants will receive the ZOOM link several days before the workshop. Let us know if you would like a tutorial for new ZOOM users!
