

UR Medicine consists of many parts, all devoted to providing highly advanced medical care. UR Medicine Labs employs over 900 professionals performing more than 8 million patient tests each year, offering an extensive array of clinical Laboratory and Pathology services. Our clinical laboratories serve a widespread population with roughly 30 patient services centers across Monroe County and the Finger Lakes region.

We are looking for individuals to join UR Medicine Labs as Phlebotomists. Phlebotomists collect, register and process patient specimens using a variety of collection techniques such as venipuncture and cultures. Phlebotomists service patients at a variety of locations including UR Medicine Labs Patient Service Centers, Nursing Homes and in-home draws.

UR Medicine has recently increased the starting pay of Phlebotomists to $18.00 per hour.

Phlebotomists are responsible for:

- Performing safe venipuncture, heel or finger sticks, and collecting other specimens such as throat cultures, urine and stool as per provider's orders.
- Logging tests into the electronic record system
- Preparing specimens for transport and packaging specimens to maintain sample integrity.
- Maintaining collection equipment, including daily temperature documentation, disinfection, sharps management, and routine maintenance.

To be hired as a Phlebotomist, you must meet at least one of the following requirements:

- High School degree or equivalent with at least six months of phlebotomy experience
- Graduation from a Phlebotomy training program
- Certified Phlebotomist
