

TURING SCHEME

PORTLAND, OREGON, USA

This is a 14-16 day Mobility offering work placements, and study programmes, in the wonderful City of Portland, Oregon.

Students will gain experience in USA sports coaching and sports studies, hosted by our partners the University of Oregon, and Portland State. It combines talks and masterclasses in Sports psychology, coaching techniques and the importance of sport in the community in the USA.

Additionally, students will undertake coaching at various Portland soccer clubs, including Rose City Futsal, which celebrates the spirit of soccer in Portland, Oregon and cultivates a community spirit in Portland. Rose City Futsal

There will be visits to the two professional soccer teams the Timbers and Thorns. There will be opportunities for students to take coaching sessions, and also some games against local teams.

Accommodation is at a modern Hostel (voted the third best in the world), Northwest Portland Hostel & Guesthouse \(nwportlandhostel.com\). This bustling Hostel offers lodging in dorms and private rooms for teachers. Centrally located, in the historic and vibrant Northwest part of town, students can walk to most attractions.

The programme also offers daily events, and cultural activities, such as free walking tours, cycling tours, tapas tastings, live music, and community dinners.

COSTS

The price is £1500-£1600 for 14-16 days, including all meals.

Flights would be arranged by the sending College in the UK.

