Q.2 Read the following passage and answer the following questions. (10)

A woodman went to the forest to get some wood. Just as he put the axe to the trunk of a huge old oak, out jumped a fairy, who requested him to spare the tree. The man felt sad when he saw that the fairy was so scared and he agreed to her request. The fairy granted him three wishes which she would fulfill. That night the man went home tired and hungry. He wished he had the best dishes to eat. No sooner had he uttered the wish, the best dishes in the world were laid in front of him. The man could not believe what happened and told his wife about the three wishes granted by the fairy.

The wife got as angry as she could be, 'You foolish man! What did you wish for? Just best food! Why couldn't you wish for something better? I wish you carry these dishes on your nose!' said the wife. The woodman could not control his anger and said, 'What did you say foolish woman? You wish I carry all these dishes on my nose?' No sooner had he uttered these words, his nose grew as long as it could and all the dishes stuck to his nose. The woodman and his wife tried to pull with all the force but the dishes would not come off. Now the woodman had but only one way to solve the problem. He used his third wish and said, 'How I wish these dishes to go away!' His nose shrunk to the normal size and all the dishes vanished.
