Sarah is a Graphic Designer who enjoys running and gardening, and Joe is an Attorney.

Rachel and Gary Jameson and their daughter, Ellie (11) have lived in Glastonbury for years and have just joined GNN after being referred by a friend. Applause! Applause!

To our Easter Bunny...Hop, Hop, Hop, went the Easter Bunny on March 27th. She visited 40 families around town, spreading Easter Joy! Some of the highlights of her journey were seeing kid all dressed in their Sunday best for Easter, receiving a handmade card from one of her bunny friends, and getting her favorite treat, a carrot, from our youngest visitor. It was an EGG-ceptional Day!

To our Easter Basket Auction...Some more EGG-citing news, we raised over $430 dollars on our Easter Basket Auction for "Glastonbury Gives." Thanks to a last-minute donation, our final check will be made out for $500 dollars. We are so grateful to all the participants and new friends we meet along the way.

A very special thank you to our entire Community Enrichment team – Luciana Wikstein, Jen Phillips, Desi Meister and Katherine Cocuzza, our annual sponsors who helped make our very first Easter Bunny Drive By and auction a huge success.

To our Kid Volunteers...Thank you to all the GNN children who came and helped stuff 120 Easter bags for our Easter Bunny Drive By. Your hard work and dedication to helping others in our community is inspiring.

GNN Club ADULT Events & Activities

GNN Book Club – Eleanor Oliphant is Completely Fine by Gail Honeyman

Meet Eleanor Oliphant: She struggles with appropriate social skills and tends to say exactly what she’s thinking. Nothing is missing in her carefully timetabled life of avoiding social interactions, where weekends are punctuated by frozen pizza, vodka, and phone chats with Mummy.

But everything changes when Eleanor meets Raymond, the bumbling and deeply unhygienic IT guy from her office. When she and Raymond together save Sammy, an elderly gentleman who has fallen on the sidewalk, the three become the kinds of friends who rescue one another from the lives of isolation they have each been living. And it is Raymond’s big heart that will ultimately help Eleanor find the way to repair her own profoundly damaged one.
