

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: June 25, 2020

June 25, 2020 Nashville TN. AIM-TN continues addressing food insecurity throughout Nashville by again stepping in to provide support to a local food distribution location serving metro Nashville. Along with partnering with MNPS/Community Achieves, AIM-TN collaborates with Deputy Mayor Brenda Haywood's Church Van services who picked and delivered the meals and the Central Labor Council of Nashville and Middle TN (CLC) who provided onsite volunteer support.

Food bags were passed out at Westwood Baptist Church located at address 2510 Albion St., Nashville, TN 37208. AIM-TN plans to continue leveraging its corporate volunteers and partnerships to address food insecurity throughout Nashville with a focus on Metro Nashville Public School kids and families.

The Mission of AIM-TN is to empower communities through strategic youth development programs, health and wellness initiatives and community service events, while partnering with the corporate community to effectively generate change.
