Foreign Policy

"American foreign policy should emphasize peace with all nations, entangling alliances with none. We will end the current US government policies of foreign intervention including military and economic aid; tariffs, economic sanctions, and regime change. We recognize the right of all people to resist tyranny and defend themselves and their rights." [Libertarian Party Platform, § 3.3 International Affairs, LP.org]

COMMON GROUND BEYOND TIRED PARTISAN BARRIERS:

Libertarians are in opposition to all foreign aid. We not only "Reject AIPAC" specifically Israeli aid, but we call for ending all foreign military and economic aid to every country without exception. [1]

Libertarians are unfairly excluded from 'anti-war' coalitions because our principles—rejecting all foreign aid and state interference—don't fit their partisan agendas.

Today that partisan blockage ends! I will stand with any coalition dedicated to PEACE and non-interventionism across the board—not just aggression and genocide in Gaza, Lebanon, Syria, and Iran, but likewise in Ukraine, Russia, Venezuela, et al. All aggression. [1] , [2]

I seek Common Ground [2] with all who value human life over political expansion.
Now is "a time to build up and a time to heal," [3] not a time to kill nor tear down.

By focusing on our shared goal of non-aggression, we will build a voluntary coalition that transcends party lines to save and build America through PEACE and TRUTH, rather than lies, war and destruction.

[3] [Ecclesiastes 3] †

1 Peter 3:11
They must turn from evil and do good; they must seek peace and pursue it.

Live in peace and prosperity, defend our homeland, keep our border secure, respect the sovereignty of every nation without meddling in their culture, religion, or political systems; unleash free markets and voluntary trade without government interference. I will never vote to authorize or fund military action without a formal Declaration of War from Congress—rejecting all vague "authorizations" (AUMFs) used to bypass the Constitution. Crucially, I will only support such a declaration in cases of direct, unprovoked attack on American soil and when it represents the proven will of the people. If the people of this district do not support a conflict, their representative has no moral or legal authority to vote for it.
