Have you been looking for messages
from your loved ones in Spirit?

This is your opportunity to obtain a 15 minute reading from Amy Eddy, from West Seneca. Amy is a student of the Morris Pratt Institute, working on her credentials with NSAC.

Readings will be available on a first come, first serve basis following our regular church service at the Hampton Inn, Hamburg

If needed, to serve those wanting a reading, additional message ministers will be added.

All presentations are made for comparative, informational and educational purposes and may not reflect the teachings of the National Spiritualist Association of Churches and this church
