In 2023:

New Dimensions, fueled by fire
Refresh, Restore & Revitalize
“My people will be set ablaze”

He is calling us Deeper into the Gifts and to hunger for His Presence
We are to act on Holy Spirit quicker

We are to recognize the gifts we have and learn to grow deeper in them
We are to grow in the gifts we didn't know we had, and the gifts are to be shared with Victory church and beyond

Taste and See scripture
God is going to do exuberant
Heard the song “Tend” speaking about the Garden of your Heart, and staying connected to God

Heard the Lord say, “I am the Living Water no one can do it without me. I am the Breath of Life through me you can do all things, I have called you to for this coming year. Trust Me with it, Trust Me to see you through. It won't all be a bed of roses or easy but through Me you can scale a wall, through Me you can pass through the fire and not be burned, through Me you can endure to the end. I am making you to be greater than you think. You are no longer grasshoppers, you are warriors of the King, the Most High has made you into a great army. It doesn't matter the size of the army; it is your Faith that will overcome the enemy's camp. Live by Faith, With Faith and from Faith. The currency of Heaven this year especially is by FAITH!! And with GREAT FAITH!!!!”

“The time has come to lift up your voice and to Shout His Name, and to Lift High His Name in all the earth, in all of Brantford, from the North, South, East and West! We call in the troops of Heaven and earth. Let the Manifestation of God's kingdom here on earth BE settled in its rightful place. I want you to see the Salvation of the Lord where His Kingdom reigns forever and ever.”

“Turn the light on, My Light dispels the darkness, for I am the Way the Truth and the Life!”

Psalm 23 TPT/AMP/NKJV As I was reading this Psalm, the authority we have been given was

Saw a Picture of a Full wine glass sitting on a table
Psalm 23:5-6 came to mind. “You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; you anoint my head with oil; My cup runs over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me. All the days of my life; And I will dwell in the house of the LORD Forever.”
A table has been prepared in 2023 in the Presence of your enemies (Barriers- Fear, anxiety, loneliness, insecurities, worry, sickness etc.)

Your Head is being anointed with a new level of authority to overcome your enemies

I heard the Lord say, "I am filling your cup to run over, so that my spirit and your spirit will overflow together to deal with your enemies"

My cup of Salvation will overflow your cup and I will restore things in your life. So, this will be a year where you will step into a new realm of authority over the enemies that have held you back

4 cups Over Passover (John 4:14)

1. Cup of Sanctification-new dimension of sanctification
2. Cup of Deliverance- things that held you back you will be delivered from
3. Cup of Redemption- new life will be discovered
4. Cup of Praise- you will experience new ways of the Joy of Your salvation

You will drink in a new way from My Spirit:

1 Corinthians 12:13 ALL have been made to drink one spirit as you drink of my Spirit:

1. You will discover new dimensions of sanctification
2. You will experience new riches of deliverance
3. You will engage in new realms of My life
4. You will experience new dimensions of Praise with the Joy of my Salvation

I am giving you a fresh drink of My Spirit that will enable you to move in ways you have not moved, this fresh drink will give you strength and vigor to break things, barriers, obstacles that are coming in 2023- remember when the obstacles come this fresh drink will be there for you to drink and give you strength, courage and a tenacity to move beyond the obstacles.

- THE DOORKEEPER

I came upon the threshold of the door to 2023 and stood before the Doorkeeper who smiled and said, "If here you enter, be wise. The days ahead are dark and fierce. Peace will not be found, it must be made."

"Take these gifts and use them true if you want your life to be new and renew."

First, he gave me a golden bow, long and strong that fit my hand and calmed my heart. Its power reverberated in my hand when I took hold of it. It seemed made as if for my hand alone, bone of my bone.

“But where are the arrows?” I asked.

“Do not fear. They will come to you when needed and not before. The arrows are given in prayer, supplied by faith, and revealed in the light of hope.”

I nodded in reply. And the Doorkeeper looked at me, strongly in my eyes, making sure I heard His next words: “When you shoot those arrows, be brave. Shoot strong, shoot true. Do not hesitate or await, for the future you must dictate.”

Next, He handed me a pen and book. I looked at the pen I took. It was silver, with a sharp tip. The book was full of empty pages and empty dates and on every page a voice spoke, “It’s late”.

“This pen is the pen of your spirit, and the book is the book of your life. This year you must live the mission of the scribe. You must write the story of your year, for no one will have a story without a tear. The stories of the world are over. The only story that still can be written is the story of God’s kingdom. So, write, write your way through. When all pens have failed, this one will prove true.”

Then he added, “If you do not write your story, you will not find your way in this year, for it is dark, terribly dark. If you write, there will be light. You must write to make the light brighter and brighter.”

I looked at the Doorkeeper Whose countenance was fierce yet gentle, strong but kind. His eyes danced with fire and burned with zeal.

“Why are you concerned about this year?” I asked.

“The darkness is coming. In the sky, upon the sea and over the land. The cycles of the usual are ending. There are no fixes left. The roots are damaged beyond repair and the fruitful tree of the world will bear no more fruit.”

I noted the sadness in His tone. His eyes looked down for the first time as if to release a sigh.

“One more thing I have for you if you want to enter the year and not succumb to the dark.”

Out from his hands came a cloak. “This you must wear to see your way through 2023. Do not take it off for it will guide you through the dark.”

I held the cloak out before me. It was golden and shimmering with lightning-like movements of light within. But then I noticed something else. The cloak was full of eyes. Inside, outside, full of eyes.

Eyes
Eyes
Eyes

“With this on, you will see clearly inwardly and outwardly and it will carry you through the dark with sureness of step and certainty of direction.”

“But, be warned”, the Doorkeeper said, “the enemy would rob you if this cloak and leave you blind, vulnerable and lost.”

SEE TO IT YOU DO NOT WALK ANYWHERE WITHOUT IT.

As He bid, I put the cloak on and became, in that instant, a thousand times bigger and stronger. I felt more truly myself and yet strangely brand new. The eyes saw everything, everywhere, in every moment at once and the light danced within me and played around my heart until I shook with delight and shivered in waves of joy.

“One last thing”, the Doorkeeper said, “before you step through this door.” And with that He slapped my heels with His hand and wings appeared on my ankles.

His voice thundered strong to me:

“Now go in God’s speed.”

“Eyes to see and wings to get you there.”

“A pen to write your story and a bow to face your enemies.”

And in a flash, I sped through the door of 2023 into that darkness in the sky and over the sea and upon the land. My cloak wrapped tight, my pen in one hand, the bow in the other. The wings carried me swiftly, with illumination all around, speeding in wherever direction the eyes would look.

And I heard the angel speak to the Doorkeeper as I passed, and asked:

“What will come of the year of darkness?”

And the last words I heard of the Doorkeeper were...

“It is yet to be written by the pen of the flying scribe in whose hand the golden bow must yet be drawn.”

And I speed on into the night in fierceness of the Face of the Doorkeeper Whose touch upon my heels sent me as a shooting star into the darkness .. the darkness that now lost its confidence over the year.
