

AFRICAN AMERICAN HISTORY

Manasota
ASALH
Inc.
FREEDOM SCHOOL
FREEDOM SCHOOL
FREEDOM SCHOOL

The Manasota ASALH Freedom School is a free, community-based Saturday school program that will improve students reading and literacy skills while teaching the history of African Americans, including the history of Africa, the Middle Passage, Enslavement, Emancipation, the Freedom Movement, contemporary Black life and culture and the contributions of African Americans to the foundation of American wealth, power and global position."

Join us starting November 4th - Every Saturday 11:30 am-3 pm at Betty J. Johnson Public Library, School is Free, lunch will be served, and enrollment limited to 25.

DONATIONS NEEDED

Please donate to the Manasota ASALH Freedom School.
Your donations will be greatly appreciated.