POTENTATE'S MESSAGE

Dear Nobles,

Looks like we are off to a pretty good start for 2022. All the Divan members were able to attend the Divan Mid-Winter in Galveston and the Super Bowl party at the Unit/Club building was enjoyed by all those who attended. Many thanks to the Jeeps unit for hosting that fun event.

March looks to be a busy month. It looks like every weekend there is something to do. The 40th annual Rose City Chili Pod Cookoff is set for Saturday, March 5th and is being held at Sharon Shrine. The proceeds of this year's cookoff will benefit the Galveston Shriners' Hospital for Children. Also, there are activities planned that will serve as a fundraiser for Sharon Shrine. There will be several former international champions as well as the current champion present. There's even a competition for kids. For more information about the event, being a judge, or registering to cook, visit the Rose City Chili Pod Facebook page. Come on out and "taste the chili."

We also have several mid-winters coming up in March. The Shooters and the Director's Staff mid-winters are scheduled for the weekend of March 11th. The Provost mid-winter is set for the weekend of March 25th.

And let's not forget to support our Daughters of the Nile installation on March 19th.

As I write this, I am reminded of our Nobles who are ill and/or in the hospital and ask each of you to continue your support of them in deed or in prayer.

As I close out this letter, I personally want to thank each of you for your continued support of Sharon Shrine and ask that each of you "Shrine on."

Yours in Faith,

Greg Brooks, Potentate

On Saturday February 12 we set up at Tyler Square Mall to promote Burn Awareness Week. I'd like to thank nobles Eric Dorsey, Andy Roundtree, P.P. Joe Barron, P.P. Jim Tidwell, noble Dan Horton, and P.P. LeRoyce Jones for their help and support of this worthy cause.

Just remember when you go shopping, Broadway Square Mall is very supportive of our cause.

Yours in the faith Ray Dark P.P.

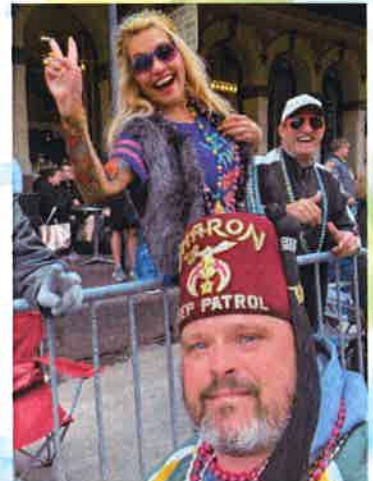

Congratulations to Past Potentate James Ritter on his 50 years of service to the Masonic Lodge, Scottish Rite, and Shriners, what an incredible milestone! Thank you for your dedication!

Hi all,

Well, our Blood Drive went VERY WELL. We more than doubled what we did in Dec. of 2021.....We got 28 units last night....one of those units was a double...so that makes 29.

EVERYONE loved the Gumbo, beans & rice by Carl & Dee Auvil. There were brownies, corn bread muffins, Mardi Gras cookies. There were also door prizes. I don't know who got those, the drawing was going to take place this morning, and I haven't heard yet. Those that donated signed up for the drawing.

Thank you to Stacie and others in the Shrine Office, getting the word out to the Nobility more than once.....DEFINITELY helped.

Our Blood Drives for the rest of the year are at the

For those who may not know, the Jeep Patrol has worked this Blood Drive in Longview for about 46 or so years. Started in a warehouse at Coors in Longview.

We were there until a fire destroyed the Coors facility a few years ago.

We have fed those who donated or at least tried to donate.

We have already decided on Chicken Spaghetti, green salad, garlic bread and brownies for APRIL 21. I also understand there will be at least one big door prize. Not going to say yet what it is going to be.

We are really trying to build up our donation count. Blood donations are so very important. Your one unit has the possibility of saving 3 lives.....regardless of your blood type.

So, talk up these Blood Drives to all your family and friends!

Ladies and Nobles,

The Smoke Shack has several big things going in the months to come. We would like to announce our first ever Sharon Shrine Smoke Shack Raffle! This raffle will be for not one, but THREE SMOKERS!!! An Oklahoma Joe Longhorn and two custom smokers. You do not want to miss your chance to win one of these!!! Tickets are $5 a piece or 5 for $20. Get with any 4S member for tickets. Drawing will be held on June 25th, 2022.

Just a reminder that March 5th will be the Rose City Chili Pod at the Shrine. 4S will be cooking supper Friday night for all competitors. This is going to be a great event held at the Shrine and will be a lot of free publicity. Come out and help spread the word about what we do.

JEEPS

Greetings Nobles and Ladies,

We hope everyone is staying warm in the frigid East Texas winter. As always, God's Country seems to have the craziest weather imaginable. However, your Sharon Shrine Jeep Patrol won't let the cold weather stop us.

On Saturday, February 19th, the little mean yellow and green machines tore through Palestine for their annual Mardi Gras parade. We had seven riders on the road and made quite the showing, even as far as making the Palestine Herald Press. It was a great ride with only Billy Rozell trying to start the festivities early by jumping his jeep over the curb on initial start up. Luckily, he wasn't hurt, but it was sure entertaining to watch.

Saturday, April 16th is Paper Day in Mineola. We will be set up at the intersection of Highway 80 and Highway 69 collecting money for the Jeep Patrol from 8 a.m. until noon or whenever Mineola PD runs us off.

We will begin practicing for TSA, so if anyone is interested in joining the Jeep Patrol and going to TSA, please get with a Jeep member.
