

SYNERGY EQUESTRIAN

Service Price List for Lessons and Equestrian Team

Effective September 1, 2025

LESSON POLICIES

- An evaluation lesson is required for all new riders. Payment is due at the time of the eval.
- A [monthly] lesson package is required to retain a spot on our schedule, with payment due on the 1st of the month.
  - Based on the lesson type reserved, an invoice for the appropriate lesson package(s) will be sent mid-month, with payment due on the first.
    - For example, invoices for September lesson will be sent mid-August with a due date of September 1st.
  - Lessons will be invoiced based on the number of weekly lessons a rider is scheduled; A rider scheduled for a semi-private and IEA practice weekly will be billed for a semi-private package and an IEA practice package.
- Lesson packages include (4) lessons, 1 lesson for each week in the month.
  - Riders will be allowed (1) make-up lesson a month: If a rider is unable to attend their lesson as schedule, they will need to makeup that lesson within the month, or risk losing that lesson. *Lesson cancellation policy applies.
    - Extended absences, due to vacations, etc., should be worked out with trainers.
  - Any lessons not pre-paid will be invoiced at completion of the month with payment due mid-month. This includes extra lessons scheduled or occurring due to the way the calendar falls.
- Failure to provide timely payment will result in suspension of lessons.
- Lesson packages are non refundable and expire the month following the original purchase date unless specific arrangements are made with Synergy Equestrian management.

Cancellation Policy:

Please notify your trainer of cancellations ASAP. There are often riders available to fill gaps when advanced notice is given. Every attempt should be made to cancel no-later than 24-hours before your lesson.

- No-show lessons will not be eligible for make-ups.
- Consistent cancellations may result in the loss your lesson time.
