Operations:

Despite extremely tough market conditions, we are happy that the company was able to post a reasonable profit. The new operations acquired last year of broking (the trading membership of National Stock Exchange Limited (NSE) and Business of being a Depository Participant of National Securities Depository Limited (NSDL)) has become fully operational without any problems. The company has introduced new trading strategies for its investors to protect capital as well as try and encourage growth.

Future Prospects:

The company is keeping pace with changes brought about by regulatory authorities and is implementing it in the best possible manner, in the best interests of its investors as well its various clients. Growth for the company is inevitably linked to growth in the Indian Capital Markets, which are going through their share of pain.
