

Consent to Disclosure of Tax Return Information

FNC Tax Service (“we,” “us,” and “our”)

Cindy Couch

Federal law requires this consent form be provided to you (“you” refers to each taxpayer, if more than one). Unless authorized by law, we cannot disclose, without your consent, your tax return information to third parties for purposes other than the preparation and filing of your tax return. If you consent to the disclosure of your tax return information, Federal law may not protect your tax return information from further use or distribution.

You are not required to complete this form. If we obtain your signature on this form by conditioning our services on your consent, your consent will not be valid. If you agree to the disclosure of your tax return information, your consent is valid for the amount of time that you specify. If you do not specify the duration of your consent, your consent is valid for one year.

If you would like us to disclose your 2017 tax return information for this purpose, please sign and date your consent to the disclosure of your tax return information.

By signing below, you (including each of you if there is more than one taxpayer) authorize us to disclose all of your 2016 tax return information necessary so that they can evaluate and process your application. You understand that if you are not willing to authorize us to share your tax information, you will not be able to obtain any written information from FNC Tax Service.
