March 2026

March is shaping up to be an exciting month, with two CTCPA-sanctioned shows and a full slate of clinics happening across Canada. Whether you're looking to tune up your skills, try new strategies, or get your horses legged up for competition, there's no shortage of chances to ride. Be sure to follow your local and provincial associations for the most up-to-date clinic announcements, entry information, and practice opportunities in your area.
