WHERE IS JESUS?

"Where is Jesus? "I asked one day.
"There," I heard a choir member say.
He pointed to the altar; we knew what he meant:
Jesus is found in the sacrament.
He might also have pointed toward the door:
"Out there. Jesus is among the poor."

Christ has promised to meet us in the bread,
both the bread on the altar and bread that is shared.

Christ has promised to satisfy thirst,
with wine on the altar and through open purse.

Christ is seen in Eucharist,
and in deeds of kindness.

Christ is seen in weekly mass,
and in serving rich repast.

At Holy Table Christ appears,
as when he wipes grieving tears.

In Holy Communion we see Christ's face,
as we do when the poor are not abased.

Written for Reign of Christ (aka Christ the King) Sunday, November 22, 2026

© 2026 Joseph J. Scholtes, Jr.