

Prints of Peace

Over the past few months, we have had a “Generosity Jar” in the narthex. This jar is there for people to write brief stories (just one or a few sentences) about an act of generosity that you recently witnessed or received. We’ve received a number of great stories, and the Stewardship Committee has announced them in various ways. Thank you for all the great ideas! And thank you for sharing your generosity in so many ways.

However, we’ve also received two items in the Generosity Jar that were not what we were looking for. At least twice, it has been used by someone (maybe the same person, maybe not) to anonymously write something negative about someone else in the congregation.

I want to be abundantly clear about this: The leadership of Prince of Peace does not deal with anonymous complaints. Now, that doesn’t mean that criticism is unwelcome. If you have a criticism or a complaint about something that is happening at Prince of Peace, or an unresolved problem with me or another leader, we welcome your comments.

I will speak for myself: if I am doing something that upsets or bothers you, there is no way that I can change unless it is brought to my attention. And while it certainly isn’t fun to receive criticism, I have learned over the years that criticism can be the source of incredible growth and new life. There have been many times when I have been grateful for the opportunity to learn how some action, inaction, or word of mine has been received. I have improved in many ways thanks to honest criticism, and I know that I have a lot more room to improve. This is true of the congregation as well – we have room to improve as a congregation, and the only way that can happen is through honest criticism and discussion.

Criticism can be shared productively in lots of different ways – through a face-to-face conversation, or on the telephone, or through a signed note or email. Depending on the circumstance, and depending on your personality, one of these might be better than another in a certain situation. It can also be productive to have a conversation with someone in some level of authority – depending on the situation, that might mean a council member, or a member of the Mutual Ministry Committee, or the pastor. This kind of criticism can be hard to give and to receive, but in the end, a great deal of growth and improvement often occurs.

Conflict and criticism are not fun things, but they are not intrinsically bad. They can very positive and growth-spurring, if done appropriately. However, they can also be terribly destructive if done inappropriately. Some examples of inappropriate and damaging conflict and criticism include: gossiping with others; saying one thing and doing another; pretending everything is fine for the sake of “peace and quiet;” and leaving anonymous notes. These things all nurture an environment of distrust and anger. The key to constructive conflict, which is lacking in destructive conflict, is the ability to communicate honestly.

Constructive conflict builds relationships. Destructive conflict destroys relationships. As the body of Christ in the world, we are called to build and nurture live-giving relationships, and therefore we are called to engage in constructive conflict when it’s necessary, and to always avoid destructive conflict. One of our Guiding Principles at Prince of Peace reads: “We actively seek to nurture respectful relationships, by speaking, listening, and responding honestly and without judgment.” This is not always easy, but it is crucial to being who we are made to be.

Now, I'm not sharing all this in order to call out the person or people who left those notes. I'm sharing this because all of us, myself included, can grow in this. We can all become better at sharing and receiving constructive conflict, and we all face daily the temptation to destructive conflict. We're never going to do it perfectly. But let's keep trying. Let's keep striving to be the people God wants us to be, the people God made us to be.

In Christ,

Pastor Scholtes

Please keep these people in prayer on the anniversary of their birth!

SPECIAL CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

Congregation Council is calling a special congregational meeting, to be held on Sunday, September 11 immediately following 9:45 am worship. The purpose of this meeting is to consider several amendments to our congregation's constitution. No other business will be conducted at this meeting. The full text of the proposed amendments is available on the counter in the church narthex, or by request by emailing Pastor Scholtes at pastorMJS@gmail.com. In plain English, the purpose of the amendments are to accomplish the following things:

- Change the definition of a quorum for congregational meetings. Instead of requiring a particular number of members to be present (currently 50 people), we will now require that there is a number of voting members equal to or greater than 10% of current baptized membership. That way, the quorum number will change over time with the size of the congregation. (The current baptized number is 353, meaning a quorum would be 36.)
- Triple the amount of money council is authorized to spend without requiring a congregational meeting. Council will now be authorized to enter into contracts of up to $15,000 above the budget, with no more than $22,500 per year.
- Change the timing of council terms. Instead of council members serving from January 1 to December 31, they will now begin and end their terms on the date of the regular January council meeting. This allows for a smoother transition in early January.
- Change the way the youth representative works. Instead of having this position be one of the regular 12 council positions, it will become an additional position. This will result in a potential council of 14: 12 3-year council members, the youth representative, and the pastor. This will allow for us to function without issue in years when a candidate for youth representative is not available. (We would just be a 13-member council those years.)

Here is how amending the constitution works: we must call a special congregational meeting, at which the amendments must be approved by a simple majority vote. If they are approved, then they must come before the next Annual Congregational Meeting (scheduled for November 20, 2022). At that meeting, the amendments must be ratified by a 2/3 majority vote.

Please try to attend this important meeting, on Sunday, September 11, 2022 at about 11:00 am (right after worship).

Thank you for your willingness to serve!!! If you are unable to fulfill an assignment, please find someone to take your place and let Pastor Scholtes know of the change as soon as possible.

For last minute changes be sure to leave the message on Pastor Scholtes' voice mail (610-588-2355) or email him at PastorMJS@gmail.com.

From Social Ministry:

I was informed by Stella Nelson that PUMP is desperately in need of the following items: pancake mix; elbow pasta and rice (NO 5lb bags please). Please when shopping please pick up one or all three of these items. If you cannot shop and want to purchase these items for PUMP I or one of the committee members will be happy to do it for you. See: Holly Blakeslee, Sherry Hock, Sara Godshalk, or me (Mary O'Meally). Thank you for your continued and generous support of PUMP.

In June I wrote an article about the Plaster House in Tanzania and the work they do with children with disabilities. We recently received an invitation from Rick Doty to attend a worship service on October 16th at The Lutheran Church of the Holy Spirit in Emmaus. The director of The Plaster House, Sara Rejman will be speaking. I was wondering if anyone would like to go to meet Sara and learn more about The Plaster House. Please let me know by the end of August, so that we can get a group together and I can let Rick Doty know. (Georgia & John Suranofsky plan on going) Questions: see Mary O'Meally_

Backpack BUDDIES

Because hunger doesn't end on Friday.

From Social Ministry: We will once again be collecting snacks for the Slater Family Backpack Buddy Program thru August. This is a program that is always in need so that no child has food insecurities when not in school. This project has been successful in the past, so I now ask: can we fill them once again? When shopping please consider picking up one of the following items: granola bars, pudding cups, mac & cheese cups, juice boxes and healthy individually wrapped snack items. There will be a cart in the Narthex to place your donations on. Matthew 25:35 For I was hungry, and you gave me something to eat. Thank you for your caring generosity and willingness to help others. Questions: see Mary O'Meally, Sherry Hock and Holly Blakeslee

From the 50th Anniversary Committee:

In November this committee plans to place the following items in a time capsule: pictorial directory, 50th Anniversary brochure, current newsletter, copies of visiting pastor's sermons, future wish list, commemorative book, annual report, synod report, and a Lutheran magazine. We welcome your ideas for other items you would like placed in the capsule, there will be a basket on the Narthex for them. Questions: see Jackie & Denny Horn, Brenda Stauffer, John Martocci and Mary O'Meally

Talking about Depression and Faith
with Rev. Michael J. Scholtes

7:00 – 8:00 pm

PRINCE OF PEACE EV. LUTHERAN CHURCH

2445 LAKE MINSI DR., BANGOR, PA 18013

How can someone with mental illness believe in God?

How can someone who believes in God be mentally ill?

How can I understand my mentally ill friend or family member better?

What can the church do to help?

Rev. Michael J. Scholtes is an ordained minister in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. He currently serves as pastor of Prince of Peace Evangelical Lutheran Church in Bangor, PA. He is the author of Darkwater: A Pastor's Memoir of Depression and Faith. Scholtes has lived with major depressive disorder for most of his life. He has written and spoken about the connection between mental illness and faith for several years.

GOD'S WORK OUR HANDS PROJECT:

Every year in September there's a day set aside for congregations to do "God's Work. Our Hands." This year Georgia and I wanted to do a project we can get the congregation involved in; you will hear more about that later. Right now, I want to tell you what the project is. I'm sure everyone knows about BLOOM, we've collected items for them in the past, in fact earlier this year we collected cleaning supplies for their 3 houses. This time we want to do something special for the ladies they help. These ladies come from various backgrounds of some form of abuse. Georgia and I put our heads together and came up with the idea of putting together a gift bag for each lady. At present there are 13 ladies residing at BLOOM, but it can go up to 19 at any one time. Our goal is to fill 50 gift bags with personal items, ie: toothbrushes, toothpaste, deodorant, nail polish, etc. Along with a gift card from Thrivent, we are asking you, members of POP to make a monetary donation so that we can purchase the items needed. You will find envelopes on the counter in the Narthex already labeled: Monetary donation for BLOOM. We are asking that donations be made thru August 7th. This way we can purchase the items we need and plan a day to put the gift bags together. (More information to follow about getting together to assemble the gift bags.) Hebrews: 10:24 "And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works." Questions: see Mary O'Meally and Georgia Suranofsky

It May Become a SHALOM Moment...

Our Generosity Jar is receiving notes weekly to be shared. These notes have different stories that remind us of how our generosity and the generosity of others is alive fulfilling Jesus's command to love one another. Take a look at the bulletin board in the narthex to read some. Please share your experiences.

Carolyn Leidy shared the story below. God uses us in wonderful ways!

Carolyn wrote: "I was shopping at the Mt. Bethel Dollar Store. I had several things in the cart...many for P.U.M.P.. A lady and I began talking about the rising costs and how people were affected. I stated that some of my things were for P.U.M.P.. She did not know about it. She was interested and impressed. She was 2-3 people ahead of me at the checkout. She turned and reached back to me and gave me her receipt with the $5 coupon on the bottom, telling me to use it "next Saturday for P.U.M.P. Speak up! Generosity exists in many. When the pandemic began...bleach was limited to 2 gallons. A Slate Nursing aide was in line. Others bought 2 gallons and gave it to her outside the store. Stewards are out there. Speak up 😊!"

Have you noticed a new slide during communion? Every week this slide is a prompt for us to pray or meditate on being thankful and filled with gratitude. Thanks be to God for his gracious love for us!

Many thanks to all who made our breakfast for Pastor Zeiser and his family on July 10th a success. Having so many attend to celebrate our anniversary, and to be welcoming to Pastor Zeiser and his family, made the many hours, and all the willing hands utilized in this event a wonderful testament to POP. Today (7/10) marked our last guest “pastor” speaker commemorating our anniversary.

Our hopes are that Pastors Rothrock, Hoenich, and Zeiser will join us at our dinner in November, and then enjoy the music entertainment in the afternoon.

Please remember that we will be having a picnic in August, renewing your marriage vows along with a wedding cake and fellowship afterwards in September; Harvest home festivities, the dinner in November, plans for a Christmas house tour and a living nativity in a December.

While we reminisce about days gone by, and we are blessed by the many activities planned for our celebratory year, we should recognize the many wonderful and exciting days, with many years ahead!

Thanks to everyone! —Jackie Horn

On August 10th, Joe Collins, an award-winning mountain dulcimer player from North Carolina, will be performing a concert from 6:15 pm-7pm. Bear Creek

I pray that you may have the power to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. (Ephesians 3:18-19)

The verse above centers the theme of Bear Creek Camp for its Summer 2022 season: "Wild Abundance." Whenever I get to visit the Camp - which is the geographically largest camp in the ELCA Outdoor Ministry system - I am always struck with how big God's blessings are to us, and for us. The "Wild Abundance" of BCC also points to the whole point of God's abundant grace and gifts: we are blessed to be a blessing. God gives, without conditions, so that we may give the same way, and share joy and life, in an unlimited and everlasting spiral - reaching down to those in need, reaching up towards forgiveness and strength from God, who out of love for us and for Christ's sake promises to raise us all. So we give, to Mission Support - to bless ministries like BCC, so they may bless all who come to them, with God's Wild Abundance.

+ Bishop Christopher deForest

The Summer of 2021 at Bear Creek Camp was one of rediscovery of much of what had put on hold in 2020 and one of reinvention of new ways to live out our calling of building community and individuals while exploring, celebrating, and growing in God's creation. As we look forward to continuing to build on this foundation in for Summer Camp in 2022, we reflect back on one of the most powerful moments of returning to camp in 2021.

The first Sunday night of this past summer's Session One after a tasty dinner of spaghetti and meatballs, all the campers gathered together as a large group for the very first time around the bonfire circle. While learning and singing songs, the woods once again fully echoed with the glee of campers returning to this place so many call their second home. Near the midpoint of that first gathering, there was a quiet moment of pause. Looking around the circle, summer staff were in their brand-new teal tee-shirts keeping their heads on a swivel making sure their campers were all okay. Two campers that hadn't seen each other since camp two years prior held hands in that way only best camp friends do. Nervous first-time campers reacted every time a hemlock log would pop in the fire shooting sparks high up in the sky. This small moment in time was the manifestation of all the work our community had done over the past two years came to fruition; all the supporters that it took to get to that point of sharing in God's love as a community around a simple campfire.

Everything we do at camp throughout the year is building to moments like those opening bonfires. Whether facilities projects, summer staff salaries, food purchases or camperships – every resource we steward is moving us towards living into our shared mission. With your generous individual and congregational gifts and Mission Support throughout this past year and prayerfully continuing into the future, we look forward to further building the BCC community and welcoming all to experience the power of God within this place. + Collin Grooms, Executive Director

Bear Creek Camp seeks to provide a place apart: to live and grow in God's creation. Your mission support allows campers and staff to experience God in a new way. Campers discover young adult role models, and staff put their faith into action. In fact, the majority of seminarians cite outdoor ministry as key to their vocation story. Thank you for your faithful, generous, and consistent giving to Mission Support! It makes a difference as we endeavor to live out that mission.
