  114. NO entries will be accepted without full and complete payment unless a previously arranged payment arrangement has been made and confirmed to AHC prior to initial closing date of entries.
  115. AHC always welcomes new Sponsors. With many events requiring sponsorship / product support, please don't hesitate to contact AHC to show your support for the event. All sponsors will be given advertising opportunities on the AHC Websites and Social media. ALL SPONSORS as details are received will have their details published on both official AHC Websites. Online Entries & Facebook
  116. Online Entries will be conducted with the Global Entries Online Website. Credit Card payments will be available through the above website. Entries will not be processed on the website for invalid or declined cards.
  117. Competitors will receive their Entrant Numbers for horses/riders/handler from the show office at the event. Please try to ensure all entries are correct and all horse/owner/rider/handler details are completed. Whilst no entries will be returned if incorrect, we would like competitors to be careful and precise when choosing their classes especially in height and ages groups.
  118. AHC Young Stars of the Future is a "Clean Event". All horses being entered have the chance of being swabbed at our event. In the unlikely event of a Positive Swab result returned to the AHC committee, the usual legal processes will follow and under advisement of the AHC Legal team, once confirmed and accepted by the competitor - the Name of the Horse & responsible officer will be published on the Arabian Horse Connection Website for 12 months and banned from AHC events for 2 years.
