Eat the Snow

We need to learn to eat the snow on the mountain top. We need to climb to the place where God is and seek Him in the place where He dwells. When we open our heart to Him we will realize that He has been pursuing us all along with an amazing love that could only come from God himself. Jesus is the snow. He is the only man that came down from heaven living in absolute purity all of his life. His blood was sprinkled to us to provide cleansing for our sin. He covers us like a blanket of snow, so when God looks down from Heaven, he does not see our sinfulness, but the provision made through the death of His Son, Jesus Christ.

This book is about a river called the river of life. It flows from a glacier made of snow. The drops that come from that snow gather one at a time to form a river. The river flows around dams and rocks to empty into the sea. The next book, Tomasena is about a boat that floats in that sea. It is followed by one about the sea serpent Leviathan, Kati'sha. The river of life is New Life given to us by God through Jesus Christ. Jesus paid the price for our sins to enable us to have a relationship with God. Jesus is the snow that covers us. First, we must learn how to become covered by that snow. We must go to the place where God lives and become His child. We learn how to play in his fields of flowers and weave crowns of daisies. We must learn how to listen to His voice and talk to Him. This is where the snow drips off of the glacier and we eat it. We open ourselves to receive what God has freely given us from Heaven. The first section is called Snow.

The third collection is where the drops of water come together to form a river. God has given us a river of information to tell us about Himself through the Holy Spirit. We become joined with God and He with us to form a relationship of understanding and commitment. There is a bond that is formed when we begin to flow in the river. In this section there are dams, rocks and hazards. God wants to help us to avert these problems in our lives where we have problems listening to his voice and go the wrong direction. He wants us to learn how to move from one place to the next by following what He tells us to do. He will protect us from Satan and things that would tear us apart. He will even protect us from ourselves, because often, we are our own worst enemy to dam ourselves.

The fourth collection is about when the river lets out into the sea. The sea is when we finally see what He wants us to do and begin to move in a direction to help others get to know Him better. We see Him as he is and what He wants to be in our lives. Once we reach this point, He will become evident to others as well, because he will overflow within our spirit.

The joy of Jesus will overflow to others.

The fifth section is in the next book. It is a teaching on the gifts of the Holy Spirit and how He wants to use them to build us from doubt into faith. He wants to use our hand with His power to work miracles within the Church.

Reflections of Praise is a book that reflects God in a fun way. The poetry flows like a river from the mountain to the sea. It moves us from prayer through forgiveness (like the snow), into hearing God speak to us, bringing us to see (sea) who He wants us to be. These sonnets were given to me as dreams that played like ticker tape messages into my mind during the night while I was on a 40 day fast asking God to help me compile another book, Miracules'. The other book talks about when we reflect God, we become like Him. This book is some of those reflections.

Reflection of Praise

He wants a duet.
His words, our voice
Our words. So you can't tell who is who.
Intertwined.
Reflect him
He's the water. He reflects with the sea.
Look.
When we mirror him, we bring praise to Him.
when we see what He wants us to be.

Half a bridge

Complication arises when we start

Out

with God's plan
and finish with ours.

It is like building a bridge
half way from either side
with a different plan.

They don't meet up
very smoothly
in the center

to allow the vision to cross over.

Engineering Marvel

Engineering marvels
are anything can stand on it's own,
Walk toward a purpose,
And fulfill the mission it was sent for.
Be a Spirit filled engineering marvel.
Rise, walk, go.

Wake up to His call in the direction He tells you to.
Continue to press forward until all that you have been sent to
for is accomplished.
That is a marvel God has engineered dependent on your ability.
Be engineered to allow God to be dependent on you.
That's a marvel.

We are a Picture Puzzle

We are made complete through Him
That means if we don't come to Jesus
and seek His way,
then we remain unfinished.

Like a puzzle with part of the pieces missing,
the picture will never be completed to show
others that picture of who God is.

The Child Within

Tremendous insight can be gained by ceasing to pretend like adults,
and acting like the children we are deep within.

For when we
come to God as a child,
then it is much easier to accept His responses as a Father.
Our need fosters our dependence.
It doesn't change our relationship with Him, only our perspective to it.

Bubble Gum

It comes wrapped
A package with a riddle in it.
Then you chew on it
The most amazing thing happens.
Bubbles.

There's new air mixed with sweetness and fun.
Dreams come to us wrapped in a package with a riddle.
When we chew on them, God Gives us new insight into our life
Mixed with the freshness of the Holy Spirit, amidst His sweet surprise,
He blows up the vision He has placed in our heart.
Bubble over with delight,
Open the riddle,
expand the message,
seek understanding of His dreams

Fly into The Arms of Jesus

*My soul flies into your arms, Dear Lord.
Try as I could, I simply cannot hang onto my ankles.
Others are watching.
I wouldn't notice
except for the stunned look on their faces as my feet gently
settled down when I land.*

Soul Checker

Take my soul, Dear Lord.
I don't need it any more.
For, when you are the keeper of my soul,
it's like checking a coat into
a coat closet before
an elegant dinner.
Pain and despair
drove me to hunger.
Then you invited me to dinner.
When I arrived, I realized I was overdressed.
So, I started removing the layers of clothes I had put on.
Layer by layer I hung them on the coat rack next to the door I came through.
I hoped no one would notice how many layers I wore. So overdressed.
Then, I got to my shawl: My shawl.
"It's mine," I said to myself.
My grandmother gave this elegant shawl to me to have and to keep.
So I did. For years. But, then, I passed by the door.
It's a second door, a door of greater understanding into the depths Of God Himself. And He called out.
Just like a servant,
He stopped me with His voice
and beckoned me to leave that shawl with Him.
At first, I held onto it.
It was all I had left between me and mine.
What I thought I owned. Others were doing it. I looked into the closet
and saw rows of souls
that were being held
in safe keeping by Jesus.
So, I checked it with Him. He has it now. He is holding it for me.
And, I went into the place to dine with the Father. I dine at His table feasting on His delicate love. He gives me bites, one at a time. Finger foods.
Small demonstrations of His love and mercy.
I don't miss my soul.
I know where it is. In His closet. And I have the receipt.
So, whether He returns it or I pick it up as I leave,
I know, until then, it is safe.

Imprint

Is about seeing my name in print or Seeing His imprint?

God's Eager Power

We are conscripted
to accomplish a job we never planned on.
Usually, we train for a field, then scan the newspapers for a job.
Not so with God's job force.
We are given the title since eternity past.
We are tagged in the planning room of wisdom
as Her and Jesus poured over the plans for the universe,
one by one they placed each person, each event,
each job with just the right person.
Set them in place, ready to be moved.
Like horses on the starting line, they sit.
Their nostrils flare and mist spews out of each side as they paw the ground.
Why don't we feel the same enthusiasm?
The power of God paws at the gate ready to be released within our lives by obedience
to the job He has given to us.
To think all that planning just might never be fulfilled
by one word
we say.
No.

Walking Along the Fence

Sometimes when we are put into the field, we are scared of it.

We run along the fence peering over at our old life.

There is a trail that leads to the next gate, only a field.

So, we follow our friends and our momma.

They only lead us back to the barn.

They take us out of the field God has for us.

They bring us to their desires, not God's.

If their desires are for their Father in Heaven, they are good,
but they lead us to a different side of the pasture than the one we need to go to.
So, we inch along the fence trying to look nonchalant, like we know where we are going.

But the fence only leads us in circles.

We end up around the promise land, but never enter in.

We watch the good things from a distance. Others get, we don't.

We have joined forces with the 'have nots.'

What to do?

Take a step into the field; the field that God has called us to.

It is the one He has put us into.

We need to step toward His promises and follow His word.

It always leads to Him.

He is just over the rise.

The Shepard calls to His flock and they know His voice.

Why would He call and not expect for us to come?

Sweet Grace

Amazing Grace
doesn't sound sweet.

It is.

Dessert to my soul.

7 flavors I hold in my hand.

And His companionship to help me
hold the desire of my heart, the sweetness of my Lord.

Sacrifice and Atonement

What is the difference between sacrifice and atonement?

Sacrifice is to give on behalf of another when it is not required by the one who gives.

It was a payment due by the other person.

Their debt was paid.

Atonement
is the price
that was paid.

How much did it cost?

It was the sacrifice of Jesus,

His death on the cross provided the c omplete atonement for our sins.

He paid the whole debt off.

Not partial, but total.

And we are debt free, now.

His red ink provided us to be in the black.

Prayer Train

There
is a train
that follows the river
and goes along the mountain ridge.
That is the prayer train.
Train for higher places; mountain top experiences.
Drink from the source.

Reserve Grass at the Cross

Become empty, let go.

Those things that you were hanging on to,
need to be placed at the nail pierced feet of Jesus.
When we refuse to bring Him our weights and sins,
we are the ones who are the losers.

It is like there is a field of grass at the foot of the cross where Jesus hangs.

And, like a concert, God has a spot reserved for us in that grass. It's like a section where you would sit to watch a show.

Only, it is at the foot of the cross.

And, when Jesus calls us
with reserve seats,

we go

to our spot.

All front row

tickets.

We find our

place there on the grass. It is there

we face the cross,

we face

Him,

drop our cares and pick up His.

And, we have been given season tickets.

These are ours for this season

until He comes to take us home with Him.

Glory Pass

Allow yourself to be over run with His love.
He is like a runner you hear coming up from behind.
Slow down and let Him encroach upon your territory.

Then, let Him
overtake
you.

For, when He gets in front, He has stuff for you Gifts.

He is like a messenger with a delivery from heaven for you.
Beautiful
gifts are
in His hand.

But, you will never receive them when we are running from Him.
You need to stop running from Him long enough to Look him in the face.

He must come around you,
encircle you, and be allowed to pass.
The glory pass.

True Purpose

We dwell in a world full of menial tasks
longing to recognize eternal purpose.
Bombarded with an overload
of information that is useless,
We strive to make sense
out of our lives.
Since He died,
was buried,
and rose,
He has opened
the door
that provides the light needed
to see greater purposes
in our lives. He has not opened our eyes, but he eyes of our heart which brings about an understanding of the true meanings of life and purpose.

Conception Conversation

At which point do we go from,
not existing, to becoming eternal?
When your soul became a living soul.
But when was that? When I made you.
When we were first conceived?
Was it before we were finished?
Child of Mine,
you won't be finished until you enter My presence in heaven.

Coordinated Victory

It is a coordinated effort between the Father,
the Son and the Holy Spirit
that enables us to live in the world, not be of the world,
and have victory every step of the way. Jesus gave us new birth, it is the Father's Kingdom, and the Holy Spirit is our counselor.

Great Faithfulness

Great is
Your faithfulness.
For when Yours is great,
ours does not really need to be.

Illuminating Son shine

You are my Son shine. How I love You.

Eternal, immortal, invincible

God of glorious light.

Shine in my heart.

Illumine your Word to my soul, I pray.

Lost and Found

If you lost something, you go back and look for it.
If you found something, you turn it in. It provides a place for both individuals to get what they need.
The purpose is for the individual to be reunited

with something that was lost.

Come
to Jesus' Lost and Found Office where people are united with that which has previously been lost. Find eternal life, forgiveness,
and freedom
through
the Holy Spirit.
Everything
that you never even knew
you lost, can be found.
In Jesus' lost and found closet.

Prepare for Holy Service

To be prepared for the service
in excellence within the presence of the Holy King,
You must be properly dressed and taught
some manners.
What manner
of love
the Father
has bestowed on us
that we should be called
sons of the Most High God

Luke warm water

Tepid water is for bathing babies
They are not mature enough to handle extremes well.

Rebuilding His Words

Why would it seem strange that He breaks words apart
and rebuilds them the way He wants? He did it with us.

Eternal Word

The Word of God is written clean across the pages of time.
He wrote the prelude and He is there for the addendum.
What happens in between is where we come in.
There is a chapter with our name on it.
What is on those pages?

Love of the Father

Actually, it was the Father that has protected us
from the wrath of judgment from the Son.
It is He who judges the world.
The Father sent the Son.

Putting God Off

He told me to do something. He told me it was important. But, I put it off. I found a lot of things, none important to me. One day turned into two. Then, a week had gone by. That turned into two, until I was out of time. The deadline had come and I had not done what He asked. So, I got on my knees and prayed. I told Him I was sorry, repented, and felt sad that I did not do what I should have done three weeks ago. He knows that we are children, and in need of a Savior. But, today, I feel like a child who needs to stand in the corner for a while and study the dust. Then, He flew down. The wings of that Dove and met me in His gentle mercy. He scooped me up and fixed the problem. He led me to just the right person who could give me exactly what I need now. Today, for tomorrow. It is a rescue. Once more His grace pulls me through. Slip knot. I slip through the fingers of the trap of the enemy. I am bound be a tie to My Jesus. Not from my side, but His. His love knot.

Picking Your Fruit

To awaken the sleeping bear is to rouse him from hibernation.

He arises to eat berries along the sea.

Our beariness; when we are aroused from our sleep

Will send us to pick God's fruits hanging
by the clumps over the water.

We must arise and pick
from His goodness.

Reach our hand out
and bring in what
he has provided
for us, His children.

Oh, may we see
a bigger clump of black berries down the way.

But, when
we get there,
we realize we have already passed over the best. Now, we can decide;
take second best, or return to what we have passed by.

God gives us a gift, a vision, a mission.

Sometimes, like children,
we see someone else's
just beyond our reach

So we walk on.

We pass by
to what we think
is better. Then,
when we are there,
we realize that is not for us.

We have already passed ours.

We went off the property owned by our forefathers and on to someone else's. We are trespassers, looking to claim fruit that we have no right to. Turn around, I did, and go back to the best.

Then pick from those berries, that fruit which hangs
by the clumps over the bank by the sea.

Just Believing

Just believing is too hard for many.
We need to be careful not to judge others.
They need to believe in Christ
alone and
Him crucified,
but it is not easy.
They would do things
differently if they believed.

Our Pond

Green frogs jump in the pond that was given to them.
God has provided us a place where he wants us to live.
As they have a pond, we have one as well.
They hop from rock to rock.
We are not frogs, though.
God wants us to go
from rock to rock;
revelation to revelation
by walking on water.
If we sit on a certain promise that
He gave us
long ago
instead of attempting to walk into it, then we will be like a frog.
We were not make to sit, but walk. Not to hop, but flow.

Free Access

I have given you free access to all the money in Heaven and earth.

I have an access number. Call Me.

The Title

When God sets a vision within our heart,
He does not give us the title
of the Book right off.
It's like a puzzle.
He gives us
one piece
at a time so that we will be able to put
it together properly.
When we get it finished and stand back,
we will be able to see the whole picture.
The name will be obvious by the picture
that He has put together through your hand.
Let Him name you.

Compelled to Gripe

Be careful.

Don't stand around

gripping about others who are trying to do God's work.

Remember that they don't work for us,
but God.

If you feel

compelled to gripe,

drive around the corner and wait.

God will reveal His ultimate purpose within their life.

Your wait is on God,
not on others.

Hungry

Hungry?

Come to the table of the King.

He will provide for you.

He has food from a King to a daughter.

It is all that he wants to provide for His Church.

Climb the Mountain of the Vision

When you are obedient to the vision that God has put in your heart.

Then, you can say that you gave it your all,

So, they can say

‘thanks’.

The mountain

climb will be worth the effort

when you reach the peak and look out on all that

God has given you. Become a mountain climber for Him.

Climb to that place within His presence that reaches to the height of His vision.

No worry

We can walk into the plan that God has for us
without worry because His plan is bound by His eternal, unending, love
for His Children.

His plan is as alive as He is. He is the fire within that sparks the flame that sets the Word aglow
for all to see. He will provide air, fuel and
spark for His fire to burn.

His Son

Seated at His right-hand in Glory forevermore
captured by His love,
Held within,
His hope Between
the hands of time
Is His glory, His power
His might, His magnificence, His Son.

Gold Dust

Salvation wasn't our idea. Why do we build on our own ideas now? We defile
what is pure with our own
dust because we are made of dust.

God has provided us
with access to His Wisdom, Knowledge ,
Understanding and Revelation.
He has given us the keys
to the Kingdom.

He
gives us
gold dust that can be made into whatever He chooses. His ideas are eternal and priceless. When, we follow
His plan for His ideas, we build into His desire.

Sandwiched between

When God turns the light on,
we will begin to see things His way.

We will go from sleep, to awake.

There is a certain level that the noise reaches

when we wake up.

We hear. We don't see first, we hear, then we see.

We are sandwiched between now and later and listen ,
learn

to listen. Get yourself a ride to between now and later, here and eternity, the place where His voice
meets His power. The lighted place where we see things, as He does.

Over, under, around, and thru.

Where's thou? Down t he middle. In the cleft.

Copy the Answer

We need to take note of what He tells us.

Copy the answer. He is the Word
and has been given to us.

He is the answer,
so when we realize which aspect
of His character we need to emulate,
then copy.

Perspective to the Goal

When we look toward the goal,
we need to ask God to give us perspective to it.
If our vision is not clear, then we will have no clear reference to it. If we do not know where the net is,
we can not be expected to get the ball over it during a serve.

God wants us to serve Him in every aspect of our lives all along the way. We need to ask Him to provide clear perspective
for us as we move along the path that He lays out
for us.

Computation

Add it up.
One life committed to Him
Becomes multiplied
3 into 1
Body, soul,
spirit into Him.
There will always
be a trailing number of 3
God will continue to be magnified forever.

Old Instruments

There are some old instruments
that need to be taken out of the place
where they have been left neglected.
They are ancient,
old and dusty. No one even knows how to play them any more.
How does that happen? Does the teacher die,
or do the students loose interest? Then, someone learns to play one that has not been played in a long time.
People will stare,
stop and listen.
Sing bird, sing for your love.
Live the love, for the love is alive
to live through you.
Open your mouth
Allow My Spirit to flow through you.
You have no idea what you sound like,
What you look like, what you smell like.
The old name for gladiolas is flags.
Be My flag.
Wave my fragrance.
You are grown from My bulb planted along the path to the road to holiness. Who am I?

Where is my wallet? I have lost my identity.
I bet it's in His pocket hanging in the closet.
When I go there, I will find it.
Go to Him in prayer.
Find out who I am,
in Him.

His Focus

You are already His focus,
become His eye.

little plant, grow.

I will be the Son, the water, the air.

I will be the ground and the sky.

Just reach, reach for Me.

Reach for the vision.

Seed Thoughts

There is an influx of ideas. They are all pouring
into our brain like the seed into a silo.
There they sit. At the right time,
they trickle out one seed at a
time to grow the ideas
we put
in
there.
Ideas to vision.
Growth to maturity.

Commemorative Medals

Commemorative
medals signify great events
They are stamped impressions
imbedded
in precious elements of gold and silver.
The Holy Spirit stamps His impressions
on our heart,
more precious than gold or silver.
He imbeds His ideas on us.
Oh, that we may become one of God's commemorative medals for Him to proudly display.

A New Era

What is the difference between twilight and sunrise?

Look closely. The light is the same.

The air is cool. At sundown.

There is a reflection of the close of the day,

Whereas sunrise

reflects the beginning of an era.

Both

are held in the hand

of the supreme God.

The Carpet Layer

When we die, will we rise to eternal life?
He says so, and He hasn't been wrong yet.

100% accuracy in predicting the outcome of the future.

I guess,
if the hand that
rolls out the future
like a rug,

is the same one that rolled it up,
I guess, He knows how it will lay out.

Child of the King

It is hard to imagine being a child of the King.
For, I don't know anyone who lives in an actual palace,
has multitudes of servants at their beckon and call,
dines on delicacies prepared by a kitchen staff,
and attends balls and dances with their father, the King
Do you?
So, be easy
on us, God.
For our mind
is stretched when You tell us we rule with You in Your Kingdom,
You have given us angels to watch over us,
Provided us with a governor, the Spirit of Counsel
to give us tender mercies from afar, and want us to stay up late to dance with You.
We get tired sometimes.
Remember, we are just kids.

Lemon Cake

Combine love and mercy with grace and peace. Mix with fragrance and suffering.
Bake 40 years and out comes the healed, obedient, children of God, ready for anything. Sifted grace, like power comes to us. Love is the sugar. The oil is the Holy Spirit which needs to be melted in the presence of God.

Add the seed of the Word and put it into the mill of your mind.

Take off your shell, separate the white from the dark,
and break all of the yokes of the enemy.

And be stirred.

Be moved in His presence by Him.

Then, bask in His light; bake in His presence.

Out

comes

cake.

Lemons

To lemon

Cake. Don't

forget to frost

it. Oil, sugar

and flavoring.

Add the

oil of

the Holy Spirit

with the love of God

and put a dash of our own

flavor or color to provide a wonderful delicate taste treat. Bring a fork, enjoy. It's a celebration of grace on display. God's centerpiece.

God's Kitchen

When we dwell in the safe boundaries of God's love and protection it is like cooking in mom's kitchen. All the ingredients we need are there.

The electric bill is paid by someone else.

The house is owned by another.

The oven is preheated.

The dishes stand

empty

waiting to be filled with what god would put into our hand.

He puts in our hand ingredients that need to be mixed. Then, He stirs us up.

Shake and bake.

Get into the fire and come out

well done good

and faithful servant.

Mother Wisdom's Kitchen

When we cook in the kitchen of Mother Wisdom,
we don't set our own timer.

We need to carefully read the directions.

For, the things to be adequately done in Her kitchen,
let Her set the timer, the temperature, and the temperament.

A cake is not good well done. It needs to be done well,
carefully monitored in a controlled environment.

Don't gripe if there is a cool down time after

you finish a great project.

The cake needs to cool. Chill out.

Take a break. It is God's cake.

*Who owns the stuff in the kitchen
of the Spirit of Wisdom?*

God.

*Why do we think we can steal His time,
money and energy to expend it for our own glory?*

Time spent

not doing His project,

Resources thrown aside,

Old dreams and visions never interpreted,

or prayers

with wrong motives resulting in

having the wrong stuff at the wrong time.

If people ask of us; we need to ask God for direction.

Not all of the people who ask for our help need
our help.

Perhaps, they need God's help directly, instead.

By us helping, we get in the way of Gods voice to them.

God help us not to get in the way between Your voice and Your children.

Old Fashioned Time Wrapper

*Oh, to have those who live the love,
To do what I have only dreamt of until they are willing to go out on that limb for me.
The place I dwell is surrounded by miracles because of My power.
It is Me.*

*I
created your world,
but I live in Mine. I come to yours
by invitation. I am a sensitive type and usually don't go where I am not invited. It's not that I don't want to be with My children, But they have shunned Me. They are like teens running off to their 'good time.'
Without inviting their father.
They think I am not like them.
I'm old fashioned and
don't understand them.
They forgot that I was once their age. And,
I remember it
as yesterday,
Because I wrap time.*

Outlets

We don't need to look for ways to use our gifts.

God will provide the outlets.

For they are to praise Him, then it's His deal anyway.

His intake, His outflow, His provision,

His way in His time.

His deal, through us.

Feel the Power

You can feel the power as God works through His people to make them to become

His desire.

As our desire is
for Him,

He fulfils our desire.

As His desire is for us, we fulfill it.

Check In Closet

Everlasting righteousness is yours eternally
because Jesus bared his soul
to the whole world.

He shared
Himself.

He opened up his walk in closet.
The place where his garment is kept.
He unlocked the door and gave us the key.

Anyone may go to that closet. It's a closet of prayer.
And ask Him for something to wear. It's like an eternal coat closet when you pick up your coat after a party. We can pick up our coat from the team
at the door.

The only difference is we never checked a coat in.
We don't bring one with us. He just provides.

Righteousness freely given to us
one by one
when we go to
the check in closet.

God's Healing Notes

Just like there are tones that hurt your eyes and there are ones that hurt your ears, there are tones that hurt your heart. Foulness hammers our soul like music with only rhythm and no melody that our heart is able to sing to. We are not totally healed because we are not totally sensitive to the Holy Spirit.

It's more about sensitivity in hearing His voice.

He is the song writer. Healing flows through the aspect of His character called loving kindness.

Linked to the mercy which encircles forever. Anything 'God' endures forever.

Mercy notes the tune God plays.
His hues, His colors, His tones.

Mercy
tones of His heart strings.

His
mercy
notes
things, not noted by us.

Then, He sends
them out: His notes.

Hues, like
colors of the rainbow, display the color
of His character. God is colorful. Like that guy in Egypt, God has a coat of many colors for us to wear.

We Act Like Jesus

Your Holiness exceeds our expectation of who you are, O God! Why should we be surprised when your Holy Spirit lives within us and makes us to become
more than
we have ever thought possible.

O to dream His dream!

Be His vision!

Be His feet, His hands, His mouth!

To walk His walk,

talk His talk,

to act like the

very Savior

Himself!

What an awesome concept made possible through the Holy Spirit living inside us.

Sold out to Jesus

Joy and delight
E're my Savior tonight
To know him and be found in Him,
at His house, His place, not mine.
*I hereby submit to you, My Lord
the deed to my house.
I have been sold
out to you.*

When we have given our soul to Jesus,
why do we still rent out rooms to others?
As we turn our lives over to Jesus in a profession
of our faithfulness to Him, what does this mean?
We have relinquished ownership of the property. Let Him do the maintenance
on your house,
your interior, your lot.

Asleep All My Life

*Help me, Jesus
For I have been asleep all my life.
Wake me to the knowledge of your presence in my soul.
Open the eyes of my heart to see what you see,
when you see it,
from Your perspective.*

Meet at the Altar

Desire and longing meet anticipation and joy at the altar.
