SUNDAY 11 JULY 2021

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR B

Dear Parish Family,

I had a lovely time in Tea Gardens this week enjoying their hospitality as they commissioned the Myall Coast Parish's leadership team. Five members of the Parish Council/Team have stepped forward to form this important part of this next journey in the Parish's life. Up until recently, June last year, they were lead by a religious sister. When Sr Libbey's term came to an end and she took up another ministry on her order's leadership team we began a process of trying to find a new leader or leaders. Out of this process we found ourselves on Tuesday commissioning a lay lead team. Big step and one that has challenges as well as some amazing opportunities.

It is sort of a cross between what Morisset and Toronto currently have. You might know that Morisset is lead by a team and Toronto by a lay leader. Every parish has canonically a parish priest just that sometimes that role is divided into categories. For example the role of the Parish Priest in the Myall Coast Parish is divided between the Lay Leaders, myself as the Priest Supervisor and Fr Phil Doyle as their Sacramental Priest. Fr Phil is retired and looks after the sacramental needs of the Parish with Mass, anointings and spiritual guidance, the Lay Leaders look after the day to day Pastoral needs running the groups, coordinating the activities and making sure the daily admin happens whilst the Priest Supervisor carries the Canonical responsibility and ensures that the fidelity of the faith community works. It is but one model of Parish life. Every model has something going for it.

If you have received an email from my personal email account you might well have noted that I am the Parish Priest here and the Priest Supervisor for the Myall Coast Parish as well as the Parishes of Krambach and Gloucester.

We have a few compliance challenges and opportunities to do as we go on. You will see an advert for our readers and those who take Communion to the sick on the bulletin this week. If I could meet with you on the 22 July 2021 in the Warners Bay Church; Readers at 10.30am and Communion to the sick at Noon I would appreciate it. If you can't make it then, don't worry as I will hold another time later in the year. As we go along I hope to have conversations with all our parish volunteers. Currently I have met with our musicians and sacristans. All doing some amazing things.

If you are in Boolaroo this Saturday night the parish has bought an electronic key board to boost our opportunities for music when we can't sing.

No parish operates without its volunteers and they/you are so important to our successes as a parish. Part of our conversations will be an opportunity to say thank you for all the work, your work for the Glory of God and keeping our parish going. Nothing is easy at the moment in this space with COVID but we have to find good ways to rethink some of our practices and keep going. The volunteers we have are just so important in our mission and ministry.

Hope everyone has a great week; stay safe and stay well :-)

Kind regards,

Greg

First Reading Am 7:12-15

From the prophet Amos

Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, said to Amos, 'Go away, seer; get back to the land of Judah; earn your bread there, do your prophesying there. We want no more prophesying in Bethel; this is the royal sanctuary, the national temple.' 'I was no prophet, neither did I belong to any of the brotherhoods of prophets.' Amos replied to Amaziah, 'I was a shepherd, and looked after sycamores: but it was the Lord who took me from herding the flock, and the Lord who said, "Go, prophesy to my people Israel."'

Responsorial Psalm Ps 84:9-14.

R. v.8

(R.) Lord, show us your mercy and love, and grant us your salvation.

1. I will hear what the Lord God has to say, a voice that speaks of peace, peace for his people. His help is near for those who fear him and his glory will dwell in our land. (R.)

2. Mercy and faithfulness have met; justice and peace have embraced. Faithfulness shall spring from the earth and justice look down from heaven. (R.)

3. The Lord will make us prosper and our earth shall yield its fruit. Justice shall march before him and peace shall follow his steps. (R.)

Second Reading Eph 1:3-10

From the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians

Blessed be God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with all the spiritual blessings of heaven in Christ.

Before the world was made, he chose us, chose us in Christ, to be holy and spotless, and to live through love in his presence, determined that we should become his adopted sons, through Jesus Christ for his own kind purposes, to make us praise the glory of his grace, his free gift to us in the Beloved in whom, through his blood, we gain our freedom, the forgiveness of our sins.

Such is the richness of the grace which he has showered on us in all wisdom and insight.

He has let us know the mystery of his purpose, the hidden plan he so kindly made in Christ from the beginning to act upon when the times had run their course to the end: that he would bring everything together under Christ, as head, everything in the heavens and everything on earth.

Gospel Acclamation

Gospel Mk 6:7-13

From the holy Gospel according to Mark.

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out in pairs giving them authority over the unclean spirits. And he instructed them to take nothing for the journey except a staff – no bread, no haversack, no coppers for their purses. They were to wear sandals, but, he added, 'Do not take a spare tunic.' And he said to them, 'If you enter a house anywhere, stay there until you leave the district. And if any place does not welcome you and people refuse to listen to you, as you walk away shake off the dust from under your feet as a sign to them.' So they set off to preach repentance; and they cast out many devils, and anointed many sick people with oil and cured them.

The Gospel of the Lord.
