SUNDAY 17th March 2024

Fifth Sunday of Lent Year B

Dear Parish Family,

Some of you will have had the opportunity to visit the sacred sites of Jesus life and our faith in the Holy Land. It saddens me somewhat that it could be many years before those sites are safe to visit again. To note too that even should I get to visit again they won't quite be the same. That part of our world has changed forever. It was incredibly difficult before it will be harder now. And to know of the current conflict and its impact has altered those sites in ways yet to be felt.

Walking in the footsteps of Jesus has a profound impact on the Lenten Journey as it unfolds. The places that are referred to, I have had the privilege to see and touch; the garden of Gethsemane, Golgotha, the Sepulchre, the crown of thorns tree. The visuals enhance the scripture as it is read. It is no small thing if you can even to look these places up on Google. Whilst you don't smell and hear you still can see.

I have been in the habit for years of watching movies with the passion or scriptural themes. I might have mentioned a couple of weeks back the great movie with Charlton Heston 'The Ten Commandments'. It was the first movie my family went to together. I remember it as the day I got my 'P' plates, so a number of things make it indelible in my brain. However, I can't hear or read the Exodus without some of the imagery of that movie. I know it is someone else's interpretation, but it really does aid my prayer and the invitation that I receive from the scriptures.

There are many other movies: 'Risen' is a particular favourite, so to 'The Passion' directed and produced by Mel Gibson. Not for the faint hearted but it does bring home the suffering Christ on the Cross and the price of the ransom paid. You might remember 'Ben Hur' somewhat dated but still good, 'The Gospel of John', and 'The Greatest Story Ever Told'. Whilst they might not appeal to a wide audience, they could appeal to family members as they gather with you over Easter. The older ones are a bit dated but good. 'The Passion' is incredibly graphic and I would adhere to the rating on the label. I have already mentioned 'The Ten Commandments' which is still powerful although probably lacking the modern cinematography of the modern movie maker. Kids will still love it, I think.

This weekend's Gospel has a significant amount of sacrifice contained in it. A dying to self and the values of the world. What are we prepared to let go so that we might have life and have it to the full. Sacrifice is almost anathema to a modern understanding of the world. I know as school systems, doesn't matter the system, we spend a lot of time helping young people get a sense of their own resilience, strength and wellbeing. Everything today is about wellbeing and a lot of that is personal wellbeing. The Gospels and scriptures give us all of that in how we live our lives together and in Christ. Failing as we hear isn't the end of the world. Rejection a hurdle to make us stronger. vilification and calumny a tool for growth, for digging deep, putting your head up not down. Loss and suffering a tool for getting through and going on. Everything we need to survive is found in the life we live in Christ and all of it leading us to the graces of new life, fresh starts and better days. It's a light for days of darkness, and a joy for days of celebration.

Looking forward to seeing you on Wednesday at the next step in our Lenten Journey with our brothers and sisters of the Watagan Deanery.

Best wishes,

Greg

Parish Priest

My Dear Friends,

As I started to visit our sick people in their home and in nursing homes, I could experience different people with faith is rooted strongly in God. It was a different experience for me to encounter the love of Jesus Christ. Whom I met on this journey are over 85 years old and some are above 100 years old, but they are all on their own. It really surprised me to people with strong convenience, courage and faith. Their thirst for the body of Christ, inspired me to work hard them in my future ministry. They were more eager to share many things with me. I just listened to them. When I was reflecting on this journey, that really taught me a lesson.

A sick visit is not always about getting things done. It is about being with someone and listening to them. Sick visit about being still and silent and just being open and available to another. Sick visit is about being attentive to the deeper needs of another human being.

With love,

Deacon Naveen

Please donate to Project Compassion.

Together, we can help vulnerable communities face their challenges today and build a better tomorrow for all future generations. You can donate through Project Compassion donation boxes and envelopes available from your parish, by visiting caritas.org.au/project-compassion or by calling 1800 024 413413.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

(Jeremiah 31:31-34)

A reading from the prophet Jeremiah

See, the days are coming – it is the Lord who speaks – when I will make a new covenant with the House of Israel and the House of Judah, but not a covenant like the one I made with their ancestors on the day I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt. They broke that covenant of mine, so I had to show them who was master. It is the Lord who speaks. No, this is the covenant I will make with the House of Israel when those days arrive – it is the Lord who speaks. Deep within them I will plant my Law, writing it on their hearts. Then I will be their God and they shall be my people. There will be no further need for neighbour to try to teach neighbour, or brother to say to brother, ‘Learn to know the Lord!’ No, they will all know me, the least no less than the greatest – it is the Lord who speaks – since I will forgive their iniquity and never call their sin to mind.

Responsorial Psalm

(Ps 50:3-4. 12-15. R. v.12)

(R.) Create a clean heart in me, O God.

1. Have mercy on me, God, in your kindness. In your compassion blot out my offence. O wash me more and more from my guilt. and cleanse me from my sin. (R.)

2. A pure heart create for me, O God, put a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me away from your presence, nor deprive me of your holy spirit. (R.)

3. Give me again the joy of your help; with a spirit of fervour sustain me, that I may teach transgressors your ways and sinners may return to you. (R.)

Second Reading

(Hebrews 5:7-9)

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

During his life on earth, Christ offered up prayer and entreaty, aloud and in silent tears, to the one who had the power to save him out of death, and he submitted so humbly that his prayer was heard. Although he was Son, he learnt to obey through suffering; but having been made perfect, he became for all who obey him the source of eternal salvation.

Gospel Acclamation

(John 12:26)

Glory to you, Word of God, Lord Jesus Christ!
If you serve me, follow me, says the Lord;
and where I am, my servant will also be.
Glory to you, Word of God, Lord Jesus Christ!

Gospel

(John 12:20-33)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks. These approached Philip, who came from Bethsaida in Galilee, and put this request to him, ‘Sir, we should like to see Jesus.’ Philip went to tell Andrew, and Andrew and Philip together went to tell Jesus. Jesus replied to them:

‘Now the hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. I tell you most solemnly, unless a wheat grain falls on the ground and dies, it remains only a single grain; but if it dies, it yields a rich harvest. Anyone who loves his life loses it; anyone who hates his life in this world will keep it for the eternal life. If a man serves me, he must follow me, wherever I am, my servant will be there too. If anyone serves me, my Father will honour him. Now my soul is troubled. What shall I say: Father, save me from this hour? But it was for this very reason that I have come to this hour. Father, glorify your name!’

A voice came from heaven, ‘I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again.’

People standing by, who heard this, said it was a clap of thunder; others said, ‘It was an angel speaking to him.’ Jesus answered, ‘It was not for my sake that this voice came, but for yours.

‘Now sentence is being passed on this world; now the prince of this world is to be overthrown. And when I am lifted up from the earth, I shall draw all men to myself.’

By these words he indicated the kind of death he would die.

LATEST NEWS FROM OUR SAFEGUARDING PROMOTERS

The Promoters of Safeguarding continue to endorse a culture of safeguarding within the Parish.

This week our focus is on Promoters of Safeguarding Network (PSN) meeting for the Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle in February 2024 regarding the 2023 Australian Catholic Safeguarding Ltd (ACSL) audit.

The first 2024 Promoters of Safeguarding Network (PSN) meeting for the Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle was held on Wednesday 28 February. This was a briefing on the 2023 Australian Catholic Safeguarding Ltd (ACSL) audit of our Diocese. This audit was a rigorous analysis of our compliance with the 10 National Catholic Safeguarding Standards Edition 2 regarding both children and vulnerable adults. A letter from Bishop Michael Kennedy regarding the audit has already been published in our Parish Bulletin.

Sean Tynan, Diocesan Director of the Office of Safeguarding, chaired the PSN meeting. He opened by saying:

- Parish safeguarding compliance is not about the destination, but a journey of continuous incremental improvement by setting realistic goals subject to available resources.
- Of the 98 indicators listed in the 10 National Catholic Safeguarding Standards Edition 2, only 50 require parish evidence as the remainder are the responsibility of the other agencies.
- All parishes require a formal evaluation of compliance with these 50 indicators – with 38 parishes in the Diocese, this process will be on an on-going rotation over a 5-year period with each parish being on a different step of an A to E cycle.
- 96 out of a possible 98 audit indicators have been either progressed or substantially progressed when reviewed against the compliance assessment scale – one of the highest scores for any Diocese in Australia.
- The 2 indicators still requiring progress come from the critical Standard 2: Children and adults are safe, informed and participate. Embedding these indicators have become points of focus in refining and improving safeguarding practices.
- The number of contacts with the Diocesan Office of Safeguarding has risen – most concern PERSONAL rather than STRUCTURAL issues - 2023 saw 2,000 contacts with most being general welfare concerns and only a small percentage leading to an enquiry.
- It is important for our Diocesan community to know that there is a process in handling an issue – but not the ‘nitty gritty’ of that process – about 20 cases are active at present.
- As yet, there have been no critical secular responses to the findings of the 2023 Australian Catholic Safeguarding Ltd (ACSL) audit of the Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle.

Universal Prayer Fifth Sunday Of Lent Year B Sunday 17 March 2024

Presider: Brothers and sisters, let us make our prayers before the Lord, who saves us from all sin.

Reader: That the Church will follow Christ's path of service and self-sacrifice.

(pause) In your mercy:

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: That nations will seek peace and reconciliation.

(pause) In your mercy:

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: That those who are preparing for baptism will be renewed with a steadfast spirit.

(pause) In your mercy:

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: That the sick will be washed in Christ's healing mercy, especially those in our parish bulletin.

(pause) In your mercy:

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: That we will serve Christ by our Lenten prayer, fasting and good works.

(pause) In your mercy:

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: That those who have died will see God face to face, especially Maureen Towndron who passed away recently.

(pause) In your mercy:

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Presider: God our Father, through belief in your son we are born into everlasting life. Hear our prayers and help us to remain free from sin and committed to Jesus through your eternal covenant. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

WATAGAN DEANERY LENTEN JOURNEY

So how do we find time to reflect on what is important in our lives?

Each year in the Christian calendar, we take forty (40) days beginning from Ash Wednesday and leading to Easter to pause, reflect and live through the Season of Lent. The key to understanding Lent is simple: Baptism. Lent is a time of preparation for new members (to the Catholic Church) to be received into the Church, and a time to reflect on our commitment in our life as Christians, through the renewing of our baptismal promises to be made at Easter.

Ash Wednesday's readings set the path through prayer, fasting and almsgiving, so that we can grow in greater love of God and each other. As Pope Francis reminds us in his Lenten Message... it is time to act, and in Lent, to act also means to pause. To pause in prayer, in order to receive the word of God, to pause like the Good Samaritan in the presence of a wounded brother or sister. Love of God and love of neighbour are one love. (Lenten Message 2024).

In our journey to Easter, the Watagan Deanery are inviting all parishioners, visitors and friends to a penitential journey of prayer during the weeks of Lent.

Each of our parish communities will host a penitential service during the weeks of lent using the texts from the Gospel of St John depicting scenes from the final days and hours of Jesus.

Services start at 6.30pm Each week.

Tue 20th Feb—Week 1. The Garden of Gethsemane – the inability of the disciples to stay awake. - St Mary's Warners Bay

Tue 27th Feb—Week 2. Denial of Jesus by Peter – Holy Cross Glendale

Tue 5th Mar—Week 3. The Scourging of Jesus and sentencing – St Joseph's Toronto

Tue 12th Mar—Week 4. Carry of the Cross to Golgotha – St John Vianney Morisset

Wed 20th Mar Week 5. The Crucifixion – St Mary's Warners Bay

All are welcome to attend the one in your parish community or come join the deanery community in any of the other parish communities.

In our busy lives, let's take time in finding ourselves held in the mercy and kindness of the God who loves us and the friendship and love of others.

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

I am writing to let you know about our forthcoming online program for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion.

Australian Catholic University's online training program for EMHCs is one of the most comprehensive online liturgical ministry training programs for Catholic parishes in Australia. It presents high quality, doctrinally sound content in an innovative way and it enables all communities, especially those with fewer resources or those in remote areas of the country, to access rich and engaging formation easily and to reach a greater number of people through a reliable, contemporary, and consistent learning experience.

Crucially, this program engages the role of an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion on a variety of levels. The development of practical hands-on skills in the local parish comes only after substantive formation in the history and theology of Eucharist and ministry.

As you may know, the ACU Centre for Liturgy is endorsed by Australian Catholic Bishops Conference and as a national centre for liturgical formation in Australia, ACU has the knowledge, technological capacity and educational expertise to provide locally-made, consistent liturgical ministry training on a national scale.

The Cost of the Program is $100 but if five or more members from the same community are interested a substantial discount is offered. Anyone interested please contact the Parish Office on 49473301 or email parish.boolaroo@mn.catholic.org.au

Enrolment is now open for the next program which starts on Tuesday 9 April and runs online over four weeks until Tues 14 May 2024.

We anticipate that this program will also run later in 2024 from 23 July (to 27 August) and then from Wed 16 October (to 20 November)

Way of the Cross

Our Diocese is blessed with rich diversity. This year's Ecumenical Way of the Cross, held on the 5th Sunday of Lent, invites us into a multicultural journey of remembrance. As we relive the story of Jesus' Passion, we recall the stories that have brought us together. This event is a celebrated gathering of our wider community and one not to be missed.

When: Sunday 17 March, 3pm (you are invited to gather from 2pm)

Where: St Joseph's Toronto Church, 140 Wangi Road, Toronto

aMeN caMiNo

The purpose of pilgrimage is journey. Camino has a long and established Christian history, it means 'road' or 'way'. A famous Camino is St James Way or Camino de Santiago in Spain. The first Christian movement in the 1st Century was known as 'The Way'.

The aMeN CaMiNo is a response to a desire to be in communion with each other and our sacred earth. It is an opportunity to pause from routine, immerse yourself in reflection, contemplation and to provide a moment of space for each person to be conscious of God's gift of Grace.

Amen is the word Christian's use to say 'Yes, we are on our way to God.' By joining us on the "aMeN CaMiNo", you are saying yes to something in your heart which is calling you.

The aMeN caMiNo takes place over five consecutive days. The pilgrimage starts at St John's Chapel, Maitland and concludes at the Sacred Heart Cathedral, Hamilton. Pilgrims will walk an average of 20km per day through the beautiful landscape of bush, beach and beyond which we are blessed to have in our backyard. We will also be holding a weekend experience.

Dates: 6-10 July, 3-7 August and 7-8 September.

Chrism Mass

Each year during Holy Week all the faithful of the Church of Maitland-Newcastle are invited to gather with Bishop Michael Kennedy for the Chrism Mass. Here we bless and consecrate the Sacred Oils that will be used for ministry during the year.

Join us on Tuesday 26 March from 7pm at Sacred Heart Cathedral.

Hunter Community Alliance Founding Assembly

The Hunter Community Alliance brings together diverse communities, environmental groups, unions, and religious organisations to advance the common good and achieve a fair, just and sustainable future for the region.

The Founding Assembly is the next milestone of the HCA's four-year journey of listening, training, preparing, and organising. We are encouraging representatives from every Parish to come along so the broader community can witness our commitment to the common good, the dignity of the human person, solidarity, the preferential option for the poor, stewardship of creation and subsidiarity.

The Founding Assembly will take place April 10th, 6:30pm-8:30pm at the University of Newcastle Great Hall, Callaghan. Register here.

To Witness and to Accompany with Christian Hope

The Diocese is holding three workshops with Rev. Fr Kevin McGovern, a Christian ethicist and former director of Melbourne's Caroline Chisholm Centre for Health Ethics. The workshop will focus on accompanying those whom we care for that may be critically ill or at a terminal phase of their life.

SESSIONS AVAILABLE:

Wednesday 20 March, 2pm -4pm and 6:30pm - 8:30pm: Input, discussion and face-to-face workshop

Suitable for staff and volunteers in parishes and staff from Catholic health and aged care providers.

Thursday 21 March, 9:30am - 12:30pm: Input, workshop and table-talks)

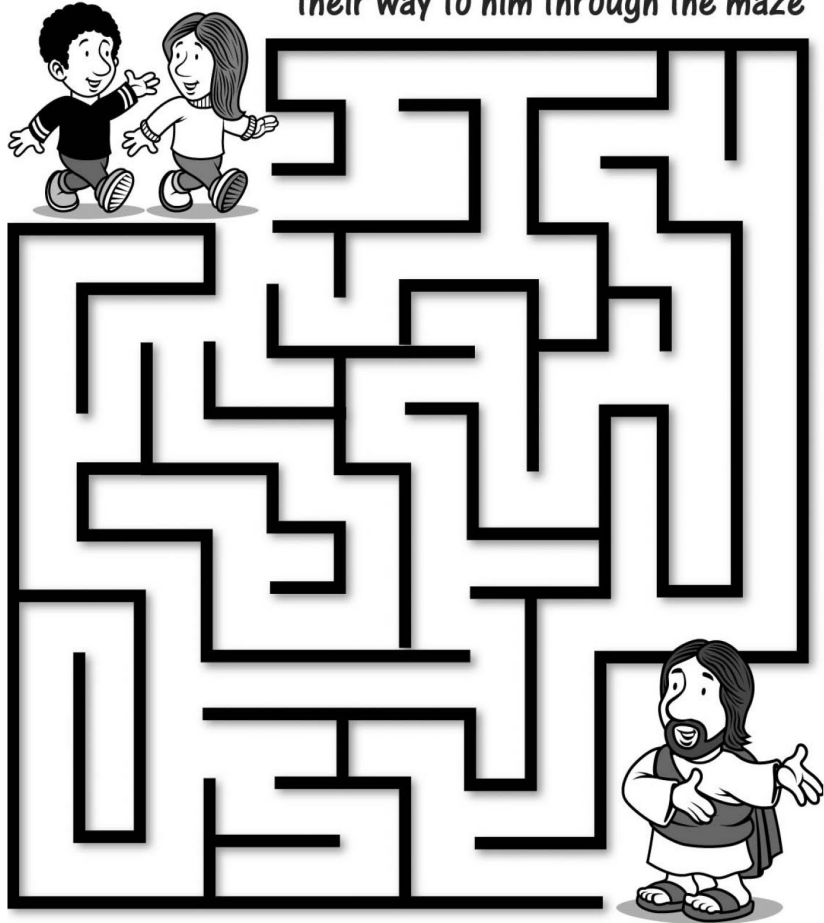

Suitable for Diocesan Leadership, CatholicCare, Principals and staff as well as medical and aged care staff.

The Archangel Gabriel, is one of God's special messengers. He appeared to the prophet Daniel and helped him to understand the visions in his dreams, and was sent to tell Zechariah of the birth of his son, John the Baptist. He left Zechariah without the ability to speak for his disbelief of the message. Gabriel is best known as the angel who sent Mary tidings of the future birth of Jesus - the Annunciation of the Lord. His feast was traditionally associated with the Annunciation, but his feast day is now shared with the other archangels, Michael and Raphael, on the 29th of September. He is the patron saint of many communications industries and workers such as post, telephone, radio and television.
