Kevin began singing at the age of two and started playing the trumpet at age twelve. Falling in love with the stage and performing, Kevin attended a performing arts high school near Atlanta, GA. While working on his vocal and trumpet skills, Kevin worked at Six Flags Over Georgia as a trumpet player, singer/dancer, and stage technician.

In college Kevin was a featured trumpet soloist with several of the school bands. Kevin changed his area of concentration to voice and was a featured soloist in many productions, as well as being invited to sing in voice faculty performances.

Kevin has shared the stage as an opening act with many top performers including Michael English and country music legend Lee Greenwood.

After touring for several years with the award-winning Omega Quartet, Kevin was asked to sing with Southern Gospel Hall of Fame member Ed O'Neal and The Dixie Melody Boys.

Today Kevin tours the country sharing his powerful vocals and smooth trumpet sounds as a solo artist. Kevin offers a wide array of musical styles from classical to jazz to gospel, in the style of his musical heroes like David Phelps, Michael English, Josh Groban, Phil Driscoll and Chris Botti.

Music is a vital part of our worship! God is worthy and deserves our praise, no matter which form. Kevin often says, "a good song is a good song", the style is merely a preference.

Kevin desires to bring others into the very presence of God, where they can be encouraged and strengthened through the gift of music. A concert with Kevin is a fun and exciting time, but also a time of worship to our Lord. Through his voice and trumpet, Kevin will encourage and reassure you that there is hope when we trust in God and His promises.
