

First Presbyterian

case study

Solar for Religious Organizations

25 year savings estimated at $384,671

The First Presbyterian Church in Champaign, Illinois was experiencing an average monthly bill of over $1,300 before adding solar to their property. By going green, this religious organization will experience significant monthly savings and a 25 year savings estimated at $384,671 allowing to redirect funds toward their core mission, its members and various faith based community projects. Route 66 Solar's talented team of local professionals was able to complete this customized solar project designed to maximize production and capitalize on several great financial incentives available as a nonprofit.

Project Summary

Annual Energy Usage 144,640 kWh
Estimated Energy Production 94,487 kWh
Estimated Solar Energy Offset 65%
Solar System Size 72.15 kW
Number of Panels 185

Return On Investment

25 year savings estimated at $384,671
63% of system covered through federal and state incentives
Breakeven ~4 years

217-652-6533

INFO@ROUTE66SOLAR.COM

WWW.ROUTE66SOLAR.COM

SOLAR