No.4 Marxian Strategy and Tactics

“Property is surely a right of mankind as really as liberty. ... The moment the idea is admitted into society, that property is not as sacred as the laws of God, and that there is not a force of law and public justice to protect it, anarchy and tyranny commence”

John Adams

The quote “Whom the gods would destroy they first make mad” ascribed to Euripides may very well have been the result of the plagues that ended the Golden Age of Athens; the plagues shredded every aspect of Athenian society with the end result being strict authoritarianism in a desperate attempt to preserve what could be preserved. There is a plague on our house but rather than a pathogen it is a neo-Marxist ideology that took advantage of a hyper inflated pandemic to install an authoritarian regime closely fitting the classic definition of arch Marxist Mussolini’s fascism. There is but one remedy for what ails the United States.

Montesquieu wrote in Spirit of the Laws, VIII,c.12: 'When once a republic is corrupted, there is no possibility of remedying any of the growing evils but by removing the corruption and restoring its lost principles; every other correction is either useless or a new evil.'

Thomas Jefferson: copied into his Commonplace Book

The Yeshua’s Sword Pamphlet Series is designed to provide an understanding of the final confrontation in a way the average American can understand; the nature of the beast, its strategy, its tactics...and a comprehensive plan to inflict massive retaliation on the false religion of human intellectual arrogance Marxianity. This pamphlet will provide a fuller understanding of the nature of Marxianity, its strategy and tactics...so as to set the stage for the massive retaliation that will be detailed in the subsequent twenty-six pamphlets.

The final confrontation between good and evil is as tectonic plates colliding for the first time in geologic history with subduction of which plate yet to be determined in the minds of far too many; thousands of years of human history shaped by a guiding hand on one side and on the other 200 years of arrogant human intellect pushing futilely against the immovable for dominance. Which plate will go under is a foregone conclusion with only the amount of destruction to be determined by those refusing to admit they have chosen wrongly; God exists.

Such is the nature of evil tasked with testing human reason; first divesting the unwary of history by convincing them they are nothing more than leaves at the mercy of the winds blowing across time...rather than the product of a plan with stem, branch, trunk and roots supported and nurtured by fertile soil; the weave of existence that has the farthest atom on one side of the universe intimately connected to the farthest atom on the opposite side of the universe by the key to understanding that is Torah; instruction for mankind.

If the impression is that of an emissary waxing poetic, then strip away the feeble effort to reveal the truth; even those leaves freed by the seasons cannot escape Schumpeter's Gale on a biblical scale. The truth is no longer subjective, and tampering with the truth to manipulate others is fraught with the certainty of judgment. Words have meaning, and the most important at this critical moment in time, the end of history as it is understood, is certitude which provides context for three specific measures HaShem provided with the matrices; the measure of all things, the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God, and the contract versus status society of Sir Henry Sumner Maine from his 1861 classic 'Ancient Law' detailed in Pamphlet No.2.

"If you know others and know yourself, you will not be imperiled in a hundred battles; if you do not know others but know yourself, you win one and lose one; if you do not know others and do not know yourself, you will be imperiled in every single battle"

Sun Tzu

At the most fundamental level one must come to accept Marxians have strategy that can be encapsulated into one of the favorite slogans of their lumpen proletariat; "become ungovernable". Americans need only recognize that neo-Marxists went on the offensive in the 1960's when the Civil Rights Movement was redefined as the seminal event in American history and the sexual revolution was initiated; a holy war declared by Marxianity.

Y'all not tired yet? Is far more than spray painted graffiti defacing the WWII Memorial; it is a strategy Ludwig von Mises deemed Planned Chaos... disrupt, disturb, dislocate, distract, destroy, disorder, dislodge, demean, displace, damage, devalue, diminish and degrade every aspect of the Judeo-Christian American culture while disparaging its history...discord until dissatisfied Americans come to believe the Constitution is dead and in need of replacement with a social justice blank check.

"The organizer...must first rub raw the resentments of the people of the community; fan the latent hostilities of many of the people to the point of overt expression. He must search out controversy and issues, rather than avoid them...an organizer must stir up dissatisfaction and discontent; provide a channel into which people can angrily pour their frustrations...your function...agitate to the point of conflict" Saul Alinsky, Rules for Radicals

Planned Chaos went hand in hand with a strategy penned in the "Prison Notebooks" of Italian communist Antonio Gramsci; infiltration of institutions until Marxism achieves Cultural Hegemony. Praxis, process, is now complete and the final phase, the "War of Maneuver" or violent revolution, is inevitable. As with every aspect of this pamphlet Marxian academics will parse the thousands of political science and sociology papers expanding upon Marxism and proclaim how wrong the estimation...which should advise the thesis is iron clad. Is there any doubt Marxianity is a state religion in violation of the establishment clause with the media, academia, judiciary, Imaginarium and the agencies of governance in lockstep with Marxian theology creating chaos at every turn?

Marxianity is evil and as such it is important to understand both its strategy and the tactics in that both Marx and Gramsci warned the faithful they would eventually hit a wall of resistance in the United States; the Judeo-Christian civil religion, at which time the lumpen would be called upon to engage in violent revolution.

That Marxian organizations can fill the streets with hundreds of thousands of the faithful virtually overnight is convincing evidence that preparations for violent confrontation in the near term are complete...and on full display even now with Antifa teaming with BLM to set American cities ablaze, prompting the weak and ideologically compromised to heed calls to join the "anti-racism" movement including 'woke' libertarian corporate boardrooms.

Those familiar with fascism will recognize the perverse and extremely dangerous political alliance between libertarian capitalism and an ideology that is a close cousin to Nazism. If astute they will realize that the riots in the name of anti-racism as a new civil religion are as Kristallnacht designed to assault the remaining constructs of Judeo-Christian America and Jews of the lesser house of Judah; Christians. Like the malevolent stereotyping of Jews as being part of an unseen power controlling Germany so too American "white privilege".

Look to the toppling of the statue of Junípero Serra, the destruction of 250 year old Mission San Gabriel and Howard Dean tweeting "...Christians don't have much a reputation for anything but hate these days" and remember there were Jews who thought they could negotiate with Hitler. "The beast in man had lifted its mask and the time of euphemistic niceties and rationalizations was over" wrote Annette Dumbach of Kristallnacht in Sophie Scholl and the White Rose.

In that vein, David Walsh, professor of politics at Catholic University, locates in The Red Wheel a central struggle "between those who seek to remake Russia in accordance with their own idea of it and those who seek to submit to the idea of Russia as itself the guiding principle of their action. It is the difference between ideology and truth. The protagonists of ideology are driven by the conviction of the superiority of their conception to all that has existed. The servants of truth subordinate themselves to what is required to bring what is already there more fully into existence."

Restoring the Republic of Jefferson and Adams is bringing what is already there more fully into existence writ large...but standing in the way is an ideology having more in common with ideological mass murders of the 20th century than 1776.

Americans have been convinced "It can't happen here" but they have no idea of the convincing; the lethargy and comfortable complacency are as cool water to the frog by design...Marxianity is adept at slowly increasing the heat on those it intends to eventually consume. The heat can only be decreased by first acknowledging Marxian Democrats are not the "loyal opposition" but rather true believers of a false religion posing as a political ideology having every intention of completing the conquest of the United States, replacing the Constitution...and the destruction of Israel. It really is that simple as so many things are.

Those hoping to avoid unnecessary suffering must learn again to speak to each other in the same language; agreeing on the meaning of words lest a verbis ad verbera, from words to blows, becomes the final word. God does not want any to suffer needlessly as the final test of reason is being administered.

"What a curious power words have."
Ladies and Gentlemen

Tadeusz Borowski, This Way for the Gas,

Debating with Marxian Ideologues; I Don't Take Bait (IDBT)

Marxianity is a 'shades of gray' religion that from the very beginning has sought to change the meaning of words so as to deny those who would oppose the theology a common language...hence this writing in the words of the ploughman. For those coming to realize the unedited words of this writing are meant to be a framework, they know the numerous recommended readings will provide the rest of the intended structure and in this instance an article titled Removing the Bedrock of Liberalism by Andrew Sullivan the roof.

"A word devoid of thought is a dead thing, and a thought unembodied in words remains a shadow."

Lev S. Vygotsky, Thought and Language

Kafkatrapping: The Kavanaugh confirmation hearing was both inflection point, given the audacity of the attack, and a classic example of neo-Marxist verbal tactics being employed in real time; the most glaring example being what author Eric Raymond termed "Kafkatrapping" having its origins in the book 'The Trial' by Franz Kafka i.e. accusation without evidence was presented and when Kavanaugh mounted an aggressive defense of his honor and family he was dunned mercilessly with the defense judged to be Kafkaesque proof of guilt.

Those who spend time reading articles are very familiar with the numerous tactics used by neo-Marxist but few recognize them to be part of the larger Planned Chaos strategy designed to frustrate; frustration compounded by the well-organized army of paid neo-Marxist trolls that habituate comments sections. To be forewarned is to be forearmed; all now have the shield of certitude and the measures to be used, but sharpening the edge of the sword requires at least a familiarity with the thrust and parry of Marxians. Best defense; IDTB...I don't take bait.

Sea-lioning: harassment with no end wherein the troll pursues the prey with repeated questions and demands for evidence while rarely or never answering questions. IDPT

Gaslighting: (as defined by wiki) is a form of psychological manipulation in which a person or a group covertly sows seeds of doubt in a targeted individual or group, making them question their own memory, perception, or judgment, often evoking in them cognitive dissonance and other changes including low self-esteem. IDPT

Poisoning the well: a tactic that manifests first as an ad hominem attack inferring guilt by association followed by unsubstantiated assertions and sea-lioning...with the best defense IDTB

Whataboutism; is a tactic virtually perfected by the Soviets that seeks to discredit an opposing position by asserting hypocrisy without bothering to refute or disprove the opponent's position. IDPT

The Motte and Bailey; One tactic of particular importance reveals the Marxian reliance on sophistry; after all who can argue with "women's health"? "...do what you can with what you have and clothe it with moral garments....per Saul Alinsky. Every Patriot would be well advised to read The 'Motte & Bailey': Political Jousting's Deceptive New Medieval Weapon, by John Murawski for Real Clear Investigations June 2020.

In doing so one will come to realize every article and book produced by the Marxian academy and media is meant to deceive as is the current political scale. There is a vast difference between black lives matter, a motte of indisputable truth, and the indefensible Black Lives Matter bailey; a neo-Marxist organization that will have to be subdued after Marxian fascists allowed them to inflict chaos with impunity...and they are fascists.

Fascism came into existence when arch Marxist Mussolini realized that rather than taking control of the means of production and transportation it was far more advantageous to leave private industry in the hands of producers to be controlled by the state...just as the neo-Marxists in the United States are doing today.

The true political scale rightly correlates BLM/Antifa with Nazi brown shirts and the black shirts of Benito Mussolini's paramilitary squadristi i.e. they are what they presume to hate. BLM/Antifa will not stop and their attacks will become bolder; until there are dead Americans who will have paid the price for libertarian small 'r' republican cowards who refuse to relinquish their alliance with neo-Marxist Democrats; Marxians.

"In any society, order is the first need of all. Liberty and justice may be established only after order is tolerably secure. But the libertarians give primacy to an abstract liberty. Conservatives, knowing that "liberty inheres in some sensible object," are aware that true freedom can be found only within the framework of a social order, such as the constitutional order of these United States. In exalting an absolute and indefinable "liberty" at the expense of order, the libertarians imperil the very freedoms they praise."

Russell Kirk, The Conservative Mind: From Burke to Eliot

Black Lives Matter has been elevated to what Richard Weaver deemed a "god-term" in his book "Ethics of Rhetoric"; carefully crafted words that spawned the equally specious "racial justice movement" but upon close examination is nothing more than "...a charismatic expression drained dry of any objective significance, but remaining an empty symbol intended to win unthinking applause" per Russell Kirk in 'Academic Freedom: An Essay in Definition'. The same applies to the Armageddon of Marxianity; "climate change".

Climate Change; As soon as Democratic Socialist Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez could mount a stage to use the megaphone that comes with being elected to Congress she proposed the “Green New Deal” asserting “the world is going to end in 12 years if we don’t address climate change”. It was later learned Ocasio-Cortez’s chief of staff Saikat Chakrabarti told Washington Governor Inslee’s climate director “The interesting thing about the Green New Deal is it wasn’t originally a climate thing at all...Do you guys think of it as a climate thing? We really think of it as a how-do-you-change-the-entire-economy thing”.

The Green New Deal is nothing more than the culmination of a Marxian strategy dating back to the 60’s when neo-Marxists began to openly weaponize academia; first the population bomb, then peak oil, then global cooling, then global warming finally settling on “climate change” to have it both ways. But the goal has always been the same; one of many strategies supplementing the Civil Rights movement as the seminal event in history and the “sexual revolution” designed to undermine the social fabric of America, with all calculated to undermine the Judeo-Christian civil religion, economy, traditions and history of God’s country.

AOC, as Democratic Socialist Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez is now famously known, prompted a radical shift to the far left culminating in a presidential candidate promising anything and everything for votes that would put Marxians in the position of mitigating a climate change Armageddon before the end of the world in just 12 years and in the process gain control of means of production and transportation i.e. socialist tyranny with the goal being replacement of a “rather old” Constitution with a “social justice” blank check.

The assault has begun with the revocation of the Keystone XL pipeline permits and a moratorium on oil and gas exploration on federal lands...and energy independence slips away. Checkmate HaShem; history as it is understood will end in 2026 with a final intervention, think singularity, and a new beginning...not because I say so but the ineffable intellect and power who chose the title God did so in a message written across the tablet of time in the “language of God” mathematics; the Convergence Matrix.

The priorities for those preparing for war is denial of territory, room to maneuver, combatants, infrastructure, assets, propaganda platforms and most importantly the support of the citizenry...but to my knowledge this civil war is the first wherein the meaning of words may decide the outcome of a conflict; two opposing forces with a shared language with one side entirely dependent upon Newspeak and the other that will soon come to insist that a spade be called a spade. I know...many will think the term is racist but in truth it is a benign term dating to Plutarch relating to the garden tool. Ignorance kills like a disease.

The tactics are woven together but it is Rousseauian secular humanist intellectualism, the original sin of slavery and Nazi racist nationalism put in the hands of “Critical Race Theory” Obama as weapons to be used as cudgels against the opposition that requires and answer; racism, white nationalism, Islamophobia, xenophobia, homophobia, equity, diversity and multiculturalism look very different when viewed from the higher vantage.

Recalling the Meaning of Words; Politically Correct Speech

Racist: 1861 and racism is the most utilitarian evil. The United States by any objective measure is not a racist society nor was it founded in 1619 and contrary to neo-Marxists the Civil Rights Movement was not the seminal event in history. Obama will need animals when the time comes...and now one might better understand why the United States under the spell of neo-Marxism is the only government in history to allow a readily identifiable 5% of the population, black males age 14-45 committing 55% of crime...escape condemnation after subjecting Americans to a decades long reign of terror even though an amount equal to the national debt has been wasted on the "War on Poverty" without moving 'content of character' needle upward in 55 years.

Every ethnic group exhibiting a preference to blindly follow "progressive" Marxists and identify first as members of a distinct subculture rather than as Americans are doing so at the risk of their futures...and possibly their very souls. In a little known article titled Karl Marx: Communist leader and blatant racist Allan C. Brownfeld wrote:

---In his book "Karl Marx: Racist," Nathaniel Weyl shows how Marx privately developed an entire racial hierarchy and racial view of history by the 1860s. In the middle of that decade, Marx was casting about for some scientific or pseudoscientific justification for his racial notions, which he found in the work of Pierre Tremaux. He and his friend and benefactor Friedrich Engels went so far as to advocate wars of extermination against Slavic peoples and the destruction of Russia. How ironic that the Soviet Union proclaimed itself a "Marxist" state.

"Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels," Weyl writes, "were neither internationalists nor believers in equal rights for all races and peoples. They opposed the struggles for national independence for those races and peoples that they despised. They believed that the 'barbaric' and 'ahistoric' peoples who comprised the immense majority of mankind had played no significant role in history and were not destined to do so in the foreseeable future. They regarded them as obstacles to the forward sweep of history. They considered them as objects rather than subjects. They were people who ought to be conquered and exploited by the more advanced nations. Some of these inferior stock were people who ought to be eradicated and swept from the surface of the earth."---

It must be said as many times as necessary; the issue is not and never has been one of race but rather greater and lesser peoples and cultures as exemplified by the Jews, the chosen people, evil has tried desperately to eliminate since Sinai; Jews tasked to be guardians of HaShem's instruction, Torah, and to lead, not rule, the lesser with the "prime directive" being never is the greater to be made less by contact with lesser peoples and cultures.

Marxian academics have gone as far as asserting the Torah of Sinai is both the source and justification for racism thus missing the entire point of Sinai; HaShem created a disciplined chosen people to lead by setting a high bar as it concerns knowledge, wisdom, morality, civil society and the conduct of exchange within nature's economy. Jews have excelled with the most stunning achievement being western civilization; the house built by the Jewish carpenter Yeshua, is the primary target of Marxianity and Islam.

The word 'racist' is the most feared imprecation in American history and is fully intended to squelch debate; the "honest conversation" Eric Holder said Americans are to cowardly to have. The truth is not racist but refusal to concede the truth is extremely dangerous; "honest conversations" about even the most basic truths are not allowed by a neo-Marxist "cancel culture"; lightning fast to condemn any who disagree with them "racist".

HaShem has no such qualms and as such the time has come to stop pretending any "BIPOC" immigrating from a backward country is automatically an asset and somehow enriches American or European culture.

The truth be told, blacks in America afforded a cloak of invisibility by neo-Marxists, are the most racist people on the planet; blacks hate whites, Hispanics and Asians in equal measure and now Potemkin Biden has chosen Kristen Clarke, black supremacist and anti-Semite, to be assistant attorney general for civil rights. Neo-Marxists are doing what was done in South Africa; rather than equality under the law "some animals are more equal than other animals" black empowerment laws were enshrined in their social justice blank check constitution; land allotted to whites in the 1994 peace agreement is being confiscated...and in the United States black empowerment is being implemented by executive fiat as "equity".

Six million white South Africans are facing genocide if the "anti-racism movement" goes unchallenged; the goal being the labeling of Israel as an apartheid state to be eliminated by "democracy" that would have the majority Arabs voting for a "one state solution"; Palestine, and like the whites in South Africa at the mercy of black Marxists the Jews would be at the mercy of Arabs who have been seeking the destruction of the Jews since the birth of Islam.

At the moment, blacks in America are on the wrong side of the end of history; in open rebellion against the God of Sinai, Yeshua and the Constitution. All need only ask two simple questions of their Marxian masters; 1) if the 'climate change' Armageddon demands a "sustainable world" of 3-4 billion people, how does Marxianity get to that number from 7-8 billion in the short time left?, and 2) will your utopia allow a black subculture that views crime as a vocation, education as oppression and the government as a legitimate source of income to exist?

"It is the camp law: people going to their death must be deceived to the very end."

Tadeusz Borowski, This Way for the Gas, Ladies and Gentlemen

The United States was intended to a nation of all nations; E Pluribus Unum...a shining example to the world that diverse and rich cultures could live side by side becoming greater, but under the thumb of Marxianity all have become less. To realize how far American culture has fallen one need only point to the recent Smithsonian National Museum of African American History and Culture imbroglio; the museum posted "whiteness" graphics ascribing virtuous traits including politeness, hard work, timeliness, self-reliance and delayed gratification to "white culture" thus inferring the black subculture cannot be held to the same standards...a cloak of invisibility.

Invisible no more; blacks more than any others will either come to recognize they are being manipulated by neo-Marxists in a way that will result in their being used in the War of Maneuver as cannon fodder...or embrace a destiny which would be well served by millions of Star of David and Stars and Bars, "Rebellion to tyrants is obedience to God" flags proudly flying alongside the Stars and Stripes.

White Nationalist: 1879 and the French Revolution gave evil the cudgel of egalitarian secularism; 1861 and the Civil War gave evil the cudgel of racism as the original sin; 1933 and Nazism gave evil the cudgel of "white supremacist/nationalist" to equate all those of European descent to Nazis. The last 72 year increment, 2005, gave the evil that is Obama a means to use the cudgels when he introduced "some animals are more equal than others" Critical Race Theory then weaponized the agencies of governance.

Critical Race Theory as a strategy became de rigueur during the Obama administration; substituting debates about legitimate policy issues with the fiction the half of America resisting his policies did so because Obama was black i.e. "white nationalists" who rightly fear the browning of America as happened to South Africa. That the Marxian ideological zeitgeist was well understood was apparent from the first day and continued with Biden. Jen Hatmaker, "progressive" Christian, delivered a portion of the opening prayers at Biden's inauguration beginning with the words "Almighty God, You have given us this good land as our heritage."

Unacceptable...and Hatmaker was immediately attacked and in response issued the following apology on social media: "The very first sentence thanked God for giving us this land as our heritage. He didn't. He didn't give us this land...We took this land by force and trauma. It wasn't an innocent divine transaction in which God bestowed an empty continent to colonizers. This is a shiny version of our actual history. If God gave this land to anyone, it was to the Native community who always lived here".

Marxians make a point of judging the past through neo-Marxist lenses.

"Although the vast country which we have been describing was inhabited by many indigenous tribes, it may justly be said at the time of its discovery by Europeans to have formed one great desert. The Indians occupied without possessing it."

Alexis de Tocqueville, Democracy in America

Marxianity has a major problem with a God who intended white Anglo-Saxon Protestants to be a second chosen people; a greater culture to lead western civilization to historic prominence with the United States. Equating nationalism to Nazism and all who subscribe as white supremacist racists has been used as a cudgel to beat down opposition to the neo-Marxist agenda and to keep the rank and file toeing the party line even to the point of apologizing on bended knee for “white privilege”; a concept few Marxians are capable of defining without citing statistics inferring black and white incarceration should be equal while refusing to acknowledge blacks commit the majority of crimes...which is then blamed on institutional racism in typical circular logic.

Marxians have convinced far too many people the civil rights movement was the seminal event in American history hence all things are to be viewed through the prism of race...but our Creator does not agree. White Anglo-Saxon Protestant America, even long before the founding of the United States, goes to the existence of greater and lesser peoples and cultures as part of an actual plan; there is no coincidence in the fact the Americas were not discovered by seafaring Chinese nor is it a coincidence great civilizations on par with Europe and Asia did not rise and fall in north or south America.

“Like Solon, Plato intended to write a long fable about legendary Atlantis; like Solon, he never did write it. Yet there existed beyond the Atlantic an unvisited land, after all, and it is more strange than any of Plato's myths that Plato's apprehension of order and justice should be a living influence among the people of that land, twenty-four centuries after the mystical philosopher's soul departed from Athens.”

Russell Kirk, The Roots of American Order

The plan from the beginning was for Jews from the lesser House of Judah, Christian western civilization built by the Jewish carpenter Yeshua to shelter the Jews for 2000 years, to make an exodus and create a great nation of nations. White Anglo-Saxon Protestants would make an Exodus to colonized the future United States, Canada, New Zealand and Australia proving colonialism is not the evil Marxism portrays...it is all about greater and lesser cultures and peoples not race.

The United States is the only place on earth where an individual, regardless of race or ethnicity, can put the past behind them by agreeing to accept the conditions of citizenship and start anew saying “I am an American”...as is the case with Christianity. Enough evidence in and of itself the Constitution bears the imprimatur of the God of Sinai and the instruction, Torah, of Sinai and Yeshua is inextricably infused in the founding documents e.g. the words “Laws of Nature and of Nature’s God” were capitalized by Thomas Jefferson in the Declaration of Independence to show deference as is the way of Judaic scholars.

“The first obligation is to Truth, and that a Truth derived from an apprehension of an order more than natural or material.” Russell Kirk, Academic Freedom: An Essay in Definition

Marxians are quick to label those who oppose them as “extremists” but in truth the word exposes the false religion of human intellectual arrogance, Marxianity, for its own extremism; the “Laws of Nature and of Nature’s God” and the resulting Jude-Christian principles as absolutes and virtues stand in the way of human intellectual rationalizations and as such must be destroyed along with history. Never in human history has an ideology that openly calls for the rejection of the past ever gained such a stranglehold on the present.

Americans can be rightly proud they live in a country intended from the beginning to be a nation of all nations to lead and serve as an example to the world that people no matter what race, creed or country of origin can live and work together to create greatness...but never should the greater become lesser. It is in that context American and European nationalists have every right to insist upon control of migration across borders to preserve cultures thousands of years in the making, now threatened by multiculturalism; the premise destroying the object writ large.

Multiculturalism is nothing more than a Marxian open borders strategy being forced exclusively upon the nations and cultures of western civilization in the name of tolerance, diversity and racial equity; an oxymoron in that multiculturalism is a case of the premise destroying the object. Open borders are meant to dilute cultures a thousand years in the making...a strategy aimed directly at western civilization designed to weaken the white Anglo-Saxon Protestant Judeo-Christian barrier between evil incarnate and the destruction of Israel.

Ironically, multiculturalism became intellectually fashionable after the Holocaust, but the version forced upon Europe with millions of displaced people at the end of WW2 experienced a metamorphosis when the idea was imported to the United States; secular humanists in the best ‘can’t we all just get along’ fashion sought to dispose of the ‘melting pot’ in favor of a cultural mosaic. In doing so they violated the God of Sinai’s primary directive; there are greater and lesser peoples and cultures and while the greater has an obligation to the lesser never is the greater to be lessened by contact with the lesser lest a thousand years of culture are lost.

One must gain the higher vantage where history is measured in hundreds of years and then look to the arrested development of black Africa after Europeans were ushered from the sub-Saharan continent by unrelenting accusation of colonialism and imperialism by neo-Marxists in the west. Africa is a still open and festering wound in the history of human advancement and now there are 5½ million whites in South Africa facing genocide on the growing crest of the Black Lives Matter inspired “anti-racism” movement; arrested development mirroring that of the black experience in America intentionally inflicted on blacks after 1960 so as to render them malleable cannon fodder in the short term and a dependent impediment to be disposed of in the long term.

Mandela was a Marxist, Obama is a Marxist, and if Americans hope to preserve the Constitution they will have to gain the courage to make the difficult decisions and judge objectively; Zimbabwe is a failure, South Africa is a failure and rather than a Juneteenth national holiday to add to Martin Luther King Day, fearlessly declare the black subculture has been judged and found wanting as to character and deserving of nothing.

The truth must be told in that blacks in America are the last chosen people and they have but this one opportunity to realize their destiny; the statue of Martin Luther King has a place high on a mountaintop in Africa overlooking the Promised Land...otherwise blacks will fall with Marxianity and those that remain and survive will find themselves in Africa one way or the other.

Simple Scottish common sense advises a priority for Yeshua in 2026 Jerusalem is the restoration of cultures a thousand years in the making; rich cultures every individual who truly embraces multiculturalism would love to visit...and would never think of destroying. Whether blacks in America, Ishmaelites in the Promised Land, whites in Africa, Islamists in Europe or illegal migrants in America...none should be out of place in 2026.

Xenophobic: is defined as a dislike of or prejudice against people from other countries and cultures but the word has been applied to massive illegal immigration to infer a racist, unenlightened and unfounded fear thereby avoiding the debate about lessening the greater cultures of America, the Anglosphere and all of western civilization so as to advance a blatant neo-Marxist strategy to “brown” and dilute the voting power of Americans of European descent; the aforementioned “white nationalists”.

The term xenophobia should be answered with the term alethephobia; fear or dislike of the truth. It has become obvious the strategy of massive migration has been encouraged by Marxians so as to replicate the South Africa model; masses of illegal migrants are demonstrably threatening the social and political fabric of America thus posing an existential threat to the Constitution. Asserting said migrants represent an irrational fear is far worse than alethephobia...it is a deliberate strategy to deflect from the truth.

The truth is every demand made by Marxians whether carbon reduction or multiculturalism aggravated by illegal migration is directed at the countries of western civilization i.e. dismantle the economy to save the world from the climate change Armageddon of Marxianity and open the borders to lesser people who have absolutely no idea freedom is not free...but do know Marxians will provide as long as you vote Democrat. That is the real black experience in the last 60 years.

Illegal migration and vote integrity will have a solution with the pamphlets...and black Americans as the last chosen people will have to decide as never before as will Hispanic illegal migrants in that both are threatening God’s plan and if anything is to be learned from the matrices it is His willingness to intervene and lack of sympathy for those who threaten His plan.

The answer to the ultimate equation is and always has been Israel and when one comes to accept that all mankind is being subjected to a test of reason even the most cynical will be hard pressed to dismiss the Satan and ha-satan when all of the pieces of the puzzle fit together so perfectly. Defeating evil will not be as difficult as one might have been led to believe, in that not only is there no truth in them they are utterly lacking in Scottish Common Sense that when applied will free Europe from "tolerance". Hoist millions of Star of David flags and watch as Neo-Marxists, Islamists and neo-Nazis assume a fetal position...evidencing they are ideological cousins.

Islamophobic is by far the least tenable of the imprecations used to silence opposition to Marxianity. Marxism and Islam are specifically identified in the matrices as evil incarnate and both should be treated as such. Islam is not the only religion in America that calls for the destruction of all others...Marxianity and its "Moses" Karl Marx was obsessed with destroying any religion other than his own.

The fact that both Marxianity and Islam share the goal of world conquest should be enough to warn against associating, but an alliance between the ostensible champion of the oppressed and a political ideology posing as a religion notorious for blatant homophobia, misogyny and anti-Semitism has only one explanation; both know the United States must fall before Israel can be destroyed ergo "The enemy of my enemy is my friend" and as such a cold blooded political calculation holds sway. The Islamic invasion of Europe is exactly that; an invasion by design...Planned Chaos created by Obama.

The Islamic invasion of Europe was started by the evil that is Obama with five related events in 2011; the Arab Spring, the US/NATO Libyan intervention, the precipitous withdrawal of US forces from Iraq resulting in the rise of ISIS and the Syrian civil war. The EU led by Germany, France and Britain foolishly opened the door to millions of Muslims taught since birth there will be no peace until the entire world is Islamic. Muhammad is now the most popular name for newborn boys in a number of European countries.

The people of Europe will come to realize raising millions of Israeli flags in Europe will change every equation; Marxians of the EU will know everything has changed while at the same time prompting wise Sunni Muslims to return to lands promised in Genesis 15:18...in anticipation of a conversation with a God of Sinai unwilling to negotiate the safety of Israel and the house Yeshua built; a house with many rooms and each one is decorated and furnished differently as it should be in a truly multicultural world.

For Ishmaelites, reason begins with another instance of scripture fusing with history in a way that defies probabilities mathematics; the promise to Abram, father of Ishmael as opposed to Abraham father of Isaac and the holy nation, in Genesis 15:18, "To your seed I have given this land, from the river of Egypt until the great river, the Euphrates river" describes the reality of Sunni Islam stretching from Egypt to the Euphrates with Shiite Iran beyond. There is a great African nation waiting to be born and so too the great nation of Ishmael.

The seed of Abram, seed to be planted, is not the same as the seed of descent of Abraham; two different men but none take HaShem seriously in that they shared the same body. Sunni Islam need only stand down until 2026 and rather than attacking Israel, prudence more than suggests Ishmaelites embrace a 180 degree shift to protecting Israel against the machinations of Shite Iran while encouraging an Ishmaelite Aliyah. The land promised to both is far too specific to be ignored by the seed of Abram and Abraham; Ishmaelites in Europe and Jews in America are being called to return to the land promised in anticipation of singularity in 2026...Aliyah for brothers from different mothers.

Islam, like blacks who identify as black before American, will have to break their bonds with Marxianity but to do so will require a simple, understandable, argumentum a fortiori...the God of Sinai, Yeshua and 1776 exists and is now fully engaged in ushering mankind through the last four years with plans for war and peace. Choose God; take up Yeshua's sword and fight for the peace of Jerusalem or fall with Marxianity.

LGBTQIA+ and gender has refuge in human intellectual arrogance but no refuge in the "Laws of Nature and of Nature's God"; the word "abomination" used to describe homosexuality is an unequivocal expression signifying a direct offense against the "Laws of Nature and of Nature's God" ...and fluid gender is madness.

Homosexuality is antithetical to the "Laws of Nature and of Nature's God" and, contrary to the estimations of tares in the guise of so called tolerant, diverse and inclusive churches, those who embrace the alphabet soup of sexual preference will not receive forgiveness unless and until the offender walks away from the offense and that includes said denominations. The moral laws of Sinai are still in effect contrary to Christian theology.

The destruction wrought by neo-Marxist theologian Herbert Marcuse and the "sexual revolution" cannot be understated; "free love" translated to "healthy" irresponsible sexual gratification...and the Imaginarium, with Madison Avenue in tow, started pushing the limits until pornography was deemed free speech and abortion became a constitutional right to privacy nowhere to be found in the Constitution. In a short period of time "coming out of the closet" was defined as heroic and eventually the Imaginarium deemed venturing into homosexuality avant-garde and evidence of enlightenment...but in truth it is a deviation from nature now being pushed upon the young to sow chaos.

The agenda is obvious to those immune to Marxian indoctrination; Planned Chaos designed to rend the Judeo-Christian fabric of America by providing protected status to less than 5% of the population after designating a sexual preference a civil right and then foisting the abomination upon the young. To advocate or tolerate without being forthright as to the damage done to the fabric of society is to compromise with evil incarnate.

Woe to those who say of the evil that it is good and of the good that it is evil; who present darkness as light and light as darkness, who present bitter as sweet and sweet as bitter.

Isaiah 5:20

Not only was homosexuality and the alphabet of sexual preference defined as acceptable lifestyles to the young but with the civil rights designation Marxians set out to force acceptance of an abomination upon Americans of conscious; an organized assault designed to eliminate the Judeo-Christian foundations of America and freedom of association. For Marxians, at the most fundamental level, the measure of right and wrong, good and evil as the ultimate inequalities, must be coercively disposed of, hence the requirement to forcibly remove the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God...i.e. the God of Sinai as the source of absolutes.

"Communism has never concealed the fact that it rejects all absolute concepts of morality. It scoffs at any consideration of "good" and "evil" as indisputable categories. Communism considers morality to be relative, to be a class matter. Depending upon circumstances and the political situation, any act, including murder, even the killing of thousands, could be good or could be bad."
Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn

The assaults have been blatant and egregious as exemplified by the Masterpiece Cake Shop and its owner Jack Phillips who after prevailing before the SCOTUS was immediately attacked by lawyer and transgender activist Autumn Scardina who called with specialty cake requests including one, reportedly from the Church of Satan, requesting "a three-tiered white cake" with a "large figure of Satan, licking a nine inch black Dildo"... "I would like the dildo to be an actual working model that can be turned on before we unveil the cake". Autumn, it is your religion that will not survive and neither will you if you fail the test of reason.

Equity vs. Equality; equality as understood by the founders was equality before the law and equal opportunity, but for Marxians equality is an ever changing egalitarian concept intended to advance equal outcomes, equity, which inevitably results in equal misery as is the way of Marxianity. The founders recognized that freedom would require both equality and inequality, with equality having a precise definition; a moral statement that each individual was equal before the law as sovereign, self-governing, individuals with equal rights and freedoms...but outcomes were the sole responsibility of the individual.

"Human beings are born with different capacities. If they are free, they are not equal. And if they are equal, they are not free."
Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn

Marxian equity is a zero sum proposition which requires in the taking of a degree of freedom and property from citizens of one class to benefit a chosen class to insure equal outcomes; a status society in the name of social justice. Freedom as enshrined in the Declaration of Independence, freedom to make your own way, will result in unequal outcomes and every effort to reduce inequality legislatively or in the Supreme Court is unconstitutional.

Consider sports under Title IX mandates which demand equal numbers of men's and women's sports programs, but in doing so channels both men and women into state sanctioned activities; freedom of choice is determined by the governing authorities by legislative fiat and sleight of hand...and now men are competing against women in the name of Marxian equity. There are a number of sports programs for children that do not keep score in the name of social justice, instead lauding the children with participation trophies at the expense of learning what accomplishment requires; the pain attendant to hard work, teamwork and the prospect of loss to the greater.

Imagine the ideology applied to professional sports; no drafts but rather a panel of "experts" to insure teams are equally skilled and racially diverse pitting shorter on average Hispanics and Asians against taller on average black basketball players, not to mention women who identify as men playing football in the NFL...except professional sports is exempt for obvious reasons.

The hypothetically "racially diverse" team consistent with the Marxian definition of equity touches upon a subject that has been removed from debate; human DNA. A Marxian football team with Asian, Hispanics, blacks and whites in proportion to percentage representation in the general population would be crushed by a current NFL team...and a basketball game would be equally fun to watch. The point being, racial categories work only if they serve to advance the Marxian agenda, but when confronted with sports where physical prowess and skills cannot be rationalized away the value of the merit system becomes apparent...especially when blacks dominate.

Americans are hero worshippers and celebrate excellence, especially in sports, but it is there where the hypocrisy of "equity" versus equality of opportunity is most obvious as is the power of corporations to secure exemptions. It is time for a "disparate impact" lawsuit against every major league sport to expose the hypocrisy and put an end to the "equity" ruse.

Every form of Marxian equity requires coercion and as such is at odds with human nature and the propensity to associate with likeminded individuals with shared ethics and sense of morality; forced association.

"But we assure the socialists that we repudiate only forced organization, not natural organization. We repudiate the forms of association that are forced upon us, not free association. We repudiate forced fraternity, not true fraternity. We repudiate the artificial unity that does nothing more than deprive persons of individual responsibility. We do not repudiate the natural unity of mankind under Providence." Frédéric Bastiat, The Law 1850

The words "under providence..." was then and is now the focus of the culture war; Marxians will not stop until the God of Sinai is completely removed from the equation and every passing day the assaults will increase forcing acceptance of the unacceptable in the guise of civil rights and equity.

In the eyes of Black Lives Matter neo-Marxists equal opportunity is nothing more than a constitutional ruse designed by the founders to perpetuate disparities. With the introduction of similarly sounding “equity” and the SCOTUS embrace of “disparate impact” in June 2015 a clear distinction was afforded and a central tenet for addition to the social justice arsenal was created, i.e. radical equality of outcomes

Equity is the current imperative designed to institutionalize racial preferences the courts to date have rejected, but policies are far different than the workings within existing agencies; instructed to extend benefits based on race. Before this confrontation is over, every federal agency providing benefits will have provided beneficiary demographics and justifications according to the Open Books Act to be enacted by Democratic-Republicans.

Diversity is a word that when used by Marxians rings hollow and diverges from the noble inflections of what the term implies; diversity when used by Marxians is an oxymoron when the false religion is defined by an ant hill group think intolerant of independent and diverse thought with true believers prone to word stimulus which act hauntingly like pheromones.

“Because “we human beings are imaginative by nature, we cannot choose to live by the routine of the ant-heap. If deprived of the imagery of virtue” — imaginative depictions of the truly good life — “we will seek out the imagery of vice.”

Russell Kirk, The Conservative Mind: From Burke to Eliot

Marxism originally set about establishing class distinctions to prompt revolutions but when the strategy faltered with the creation of massive wealth neo-Marxism then turned to the sexual revolution and the civil rights movement with race distinctions the primary vehicle; a two pronged strategy later merged to create sexual orientation and gender as a civil rights issue i.e. a false class consciousness and balkanization with a layer of collective consciousness. Ludwig von Mises in his Theory and History expanded upon how the individual tribes morphed into a hydra, writing:

---Class consciousness, says Marx, produces class ideologies. The class ideology provides the class with an interpretation of reality and at the same time teaches the members how to act in order to benefit their class. The content of the class ideology is uniquely determined by the historical stage of the development of the material productive forces and by the role the class concerned plays in this stage of history. The ideology is not an arbitrary brain child. It is the reflection of the thinker’s material class condition as mirrored in his head. It is therefore not an individual phenomenon conditional upon the thinker’s fancy. It is enjoined upon the mind by reality, i.e., by the class situation of the man who thinks. It is consequently identical with all members of the class. Of course, not every class comrade is an author and publishes what he has thought. But all writers belonging to the class conceive the same ideas and all other members of the class approve of them. There is no room left in Marxism for the assumption that the various members of the same class could seriously disagree in ideology. There exists for all members of the class only one ideology---

Marxian “diversity” has nothing to do with race in that any person of color diverging from the theology of Marxianity is ostracized. Every ‘woke’ individual would be well advised to read the writings of Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn and there they would find universal truths including “It’s a universal law-- intolerance is the first sign of an inadequate education. An ill-educated person behaves with arrogant impatience, whereas truly profound education breeds humility.”

Those taking a knee to a Black Lives Matter idol have very little time to learn and embrace the humility that will be necessary to prepare for a conversation that will occur in 2026; a conversation with one who will not shy away from saying all lives are precious, all lives matter and personal conduct is not subject to negotiation; the content of character rather than skin color and most assuredly not the mud of sexual preference or lack of personal responsibility.

“The cult, the ideology of diversity—what we have baptized as “identity politics,” which represents the systematic rejection of everything connected with impartiality and objective, impersonal standards—is the enabling presupposition of the destructive cauldron of racist obsession in which our society is now marinating.” Roger Kimball, Franklin’s Admonition

Mighty oaks from little acorns doth grow...and in this instance knowing how Marxians think, their strategy, how they manipulate the truth and the true nature of the confrontation at hand provides context for massive retaliation required by certitude; American patriots as Democratic-Republicans engaged in a holy war forced upon them by the false religion of human intellectual arrogance Marxianity; a war of mitzvot; מלחמת מצווה; a holy war sanctioned by HaShem just as He did with the first War of Independence.

Like speaking to a Christian fundamentalist about the flood, it is virtually impossible to convince a true believer of Marxianity the “Laws of Nature and of Nature’s God” are immutable and no matter how adamant they are water can be made to flow uphill the end result is that they and all who follow them will either end up all wet or washed away. It is a phenomenon called “polylogism” i.e. different groups reason in fundamentally different ways reflecting the group perception of reality. When Biden said “We choose truth over facts” he was actually exposing a deeper truth about Marxian thinking.

Polylogism; Reason versus Doublethink

“Doublethink means the power of holding two contradictory beliefs in one’s mind simultaneously, and accepting both of them.” George Orwell, 1984

There may be no better example of the contradictory neo-Marxist than the Frankfurt School inspiration for the “sexual revolution”; Herbert Marcuse. A ploughman need only read a bit of his writing to recognize the false Marxian prophets to be ignored and true philosophers to be embraced. To wit:

"This world contradicts itself. Common sense and science purge themselves from this contradiction; philosophical thought begins with the recognition that the facts do not correspond to the concepts imposed by common sense and scientific reason—in short, with the refusal to accept them."

For those who accuse others of being science deniers it is hard to imagine how Marxians reconcile the idea facts do not correspond to common sense and scientific reason; both primarily concerned with facts...until one realizes that Marxian logic depends upon "the refusal to accept" what the ploughman knows to be factually true. Want to be a girl? No, problem, your penis means nothing; it's all in your head and water flows uphill.

Polylogism is a term used to describe a thesis expounded by Ludwig von Mises in What the Nazis borrowed from Marx; Nazism and Marxism intentionally developed diametrically opposed and incompatible modes of logic so as to assault the existing culture. Polylogism describes a system of belief based upon utilitarian intellectual and political constructs rather than objective empiricism rendering most discussions and negotiations impossible by design. Polylogism is a concept best defined in the actual words of Mises and worth reading twice over:

---"Marx and the Marxians, foremost among them the "proletarian philosopher" Dietzgen, taught that thought is determined by the thinker's class position. What thinking produces is not truth but "ideologies." This word means, in the context of Marxian philosophy, a disguise of the selfish interest of the social class to which the thinking individual is attached. It is therefore useless to discuss anything with people of another social class. Ideologies do not need to be refuted by discursive reasoning; they must be unmasked by denouncing the class position, the social background, of their authors. Thus Marxians do not discuss the merits of physical theories; they merely uncover the "bourgeois" origin of the physicists.

The Marxians have resorted to polylogism because they could not refute by logical methods the theories developed by "bourgeois" economics, or the inferences drawn from these theories demonstrating the impracticability of socialism. As they could not rationally demonstrate the soundness of their own ideas or the unsoundness of their adversaries' ideas, they have denounced the accepted logical methods. The success of this Marxian stratagem was unprecedented. It has rendered proof against any reasonable criticism all the absurdities of Marxian would-be economics and would-be sociology. Only by the logical tricks of polylogism could etatism (total control of the State over individual citizens) gain a hold on the modern mind.

Polylogism is so inherently nonsensical that it cannot be carried consistently to its ultimate logical consequences. No Marxian was bold enough to draw all the conclusions that his own epistemological viewpoint would require. The principle of polylogism would lead to the inference that Marxian teachings also are not objectively true but are only "ideological" statements. But the Marxians deny it.

They claim for their own doctrines the character of absolute truth. Thus Dietzgen teaches that "the ideas of proletarian logic are not party ideas but the outcome of logic pure and simple." The proletarian logic is not "ideology" but absolute logic. Present-day Marxians, who label their teachings the sociology of knowledge, give proof of the same inconsistency. One of their champions, Professor Mannheim, tries to demonstrate that there exists a group of men, the "unattached intellectuals," who are equipped with the gift of grasping truth without falling prey to ideological errors. Of course, Professor Mannheim is convinced that he is the foremost of these "unattached intellectuals." You simply cannot refute him. If you disagree with him, you only prove thereby that you yourself are not one of this elite of "unattached intellectuals" and that your utterances are ideological nonsense.

Polylogism is not a philosophy or an epistemological theory. It is an attitude of narrow-minded fanatics, who cannot imagine that anybody could be more reasonable or more clever than they themselves. Nor is polylogism scientific. It is rather the replacement of reasoning and science by superstitions. It is the characteristic mentality of an age of chaos."---

Planned Chaos as defined by Mises; if your enemy intentionally renders conversations, negotiations, debates and compromise impossible it is safe to assume actual progress is not the goal. Perhaps in that context one might understand the slogan "become ungovernable"; chaos designed to convince debate weary Americans a Constitution adopted in 1789 is no longer sufficient to the times at hand. Marxians are focused upon raw power and revolution; remove anything and everything that lends to 'old think' to make room from Marxian 'new think'. Ludwig von Mises understood their irrational logic but Orwell knew them personally and experienced the deadly logic intimately:

"The Party seeks power entirely for its own sake. We are not interested in the good of others; we are interested solely in power, pure power...We are different from the oligarchies of the past in that we know what we are doing. All the others, even those who resembled ourselves, were cowards and hypocrites. The German Nazis and the Russian Communists came very close to us in their methods, but they never had the courage to recognize their own motives. They pretended, perhaps they even believed, that they had seized power unwillingly and for a limited time, and that just around the corner there lay a paradise where human beings would be free and equal. We are not like that. We know that no one ever seizes power with the intention of relinquishing it. Power is not a means; it is an end. One does not establish a dictatorship in order to safeguard a revolution; one makes the revolution in order to establish the dictatorship...The object of power is power"

Polylogism may have reached its high water mark with CRT, gender and "equity"; one of the first priorities of the Biden administration was to issue an executive order formalizing "equity" in agency decisions which by extension is formalization of Critical Race Theory which according to evangelist Ibram X. Kendi means "The only remedy to racist discrimination is antiracist discrimination. The only remedy to past discrimination is present discrimination." Hundreds of agencies immediately began looking at every program to equalize outcomes.

Inverting equality as the goal of civil rights, any disparity was to be considered the result of foundational, intrinsic, and pervasive racism requiring distribution of benefits and opportunity based upon race in the pursuit of "equity" i.e. equal outcomes. The dream of Martin Luther King Jr. of a colorblind society where every citizen could and should expect impartial treatment with "character" the determining weight on the scale was rejected by an almost instantaneous elite consensus without serious public debate; individual character was deemed a form of white supremacy on the specious "pyramid of white supremacy" the academy and media embrace.

Equity requires Critical Race Theory and vice versa; Western civilization and culture is an intersecting matrix of oppression advantaging predominately white Christian heterosexual males at the expense of BIPOC, women, homosexuals and the transgender...requiring the destruction of every edifice, read memory, of the construct. The shades of gray language of the Marxian is one part hyperbole untethered from reality and two parts pheromone calling the ants to common purpose; the elite Marxian activist class who dominate nonprofits committed to social engineering...entirely at odds with the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God.

It is a complex ecosystem wherein the Marxian intelligentsia simply denies facts that impinge upon their reality; knowing that where the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God do not apply...water flows uphill.

Marxianity has a strictly goal oriented theology but the nature of the animal underneath the colorful language doesn't change at all; power for the sake of power and politics as an avocation. Marxians will say and do anything to gain power but in the end there are no solutions to pressing issues; Planned Chaos spiced with redistributionist concessions to the tribes in the name of "progress".

One need only consider how quick the dramatic shift to the far left created by Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez to appease a base that actually expects the coffin to be closed on the Republican Party and final victory at the end of the Gramsci rainbow; a base that is demanding a platform of policies such as the Green New Deal along with a litany of objectively unachievable far left proposals.

Regardless, even when confronted by hard facts Marxians display the classic refusal to accept insisting water can be made to flow uphill...with the assistance from the water carrying media and academy. Look no farther than the Covid hysteria and the "mostly peaceful" BLM/Antifa riots for examples of the narrow-minded fanaticism of Marxians; the average individual sees burning or locked down businesses, madness and chaos but not the Marxian who sees noble racial justice, economic equity and flattening the curve.

"Central to Solzhenitsyn's moral and political vision, is the nonnegotiable distinction between truth and falsehood. Solzhenitsyn's target was precisely the ideological Lie that presented evildoing as a historically necessary stage in the fated 'progress' of the human race. He always asserted that the ideological Lie was worse than violence and physical brutality, ultimately more destructive of the integrity of the human soul."

Daniel J. Mahoney, reflection on The Gulag Archipelago

The towers of Marxianity not only propagate the delusion but come to believe it themselves which in turn shapes how they live their lives. When reality is defined by ideology rather than objective fact the chances of finding that elusive middle ground so many feckless and servile republicans still believe exists is nigh on impossible, suggesting it is not only the not at all loyal opposition with a tenuous grip on reality.

How tenuous is on full display when the republican establishment could not bring the party to accept the existential threat that grew day by day for four years and then moved on to impeachment after Marxians lost control of the collusion narrative; like cornered vipers Marxians persisted in striking blindly repeating the same pattern that originated in the oval office of Obama.

How best to cover arguably treasonous behavior of the deep state? Accuse original target Trump of unleashing the power of the state against his enemies; projection, doses of PCP and polylogism refusing to concede the obvious. Of the three, projection is by far the most prevalent tactic.

Projection; Fear and Loathing in Marxian Towers

"It's not treason if you win." Lisa Shearin, Bewitched & Betrayed

Projection was defined by Sigmund Freud as a psychological defense mechanism by which people repress a sense of guilt for some thought or impulse by attributing the same thoughts or impulses upon others; "negation" elevated from defensive mechanism to offensive weapon by the Marxian political class who rightly fear the American people.

Victor Davis Hanson recently opined that Americans would be well served and entirely justified in considering what the Marxian politicians and lockstep media say and assume the opposite is in fact the truth e.g. in late 2019 and early 2020 Marxian politicians and media asserted Trump was planning massive vote fraud in November....and the rest is history still unfolding.

The issue is not a small matter given the first attempted coup in American history began with projection when the Clinton campaign used Russian disinformation cobbled together by one time MI6 British intelligence officer Christopher Steele, claiming Trump was colluding with Putin. The projection continued unabated for three years with the Mueller Investigation farce and when the collusion narrative fell apart projection was again employed; asserting Trump colluded with the Ukrainians for political purposes while ignoring the Biden influence peddling.

An impeachment trial ensued and the fact Biden bragged on camera to having a Ukrainian prosecutor looking into his son Hunter's business ties to Ukraine natural gas company, Burisma Holdings, fired was swept under the rug...as were Hunter Biden's China deals and his laptop.

Four years of a rolling soft coup unique in the history of a 'nation of laws not men' that had the not at all loyal opposition Marxian Democrats refusing to accept the results of the 2016 election of Trump; fear and loathing in Washington DC writ large with the 2020 election that now has Marxians demanding all accept an election fraught with fraud and irregularities as legitimate. Marxians in league with elite allies within a weaponized administrative state hiding behind the façade of law and the Constitution, both to remove a lawfully elected president then assembled a well-planned conspiracy to use Covid as a pretext for changing voting laws to insure mass vote by mail schemes with the knowledge it would be the faithful counting the votes; Marxians now engaged in the most telling and dangerous projection in history.

Critical Race Theory is an academic concept that holds racism is systemic and embedded not only in institutions but society as a whole, when in fact it is Marxianity that has a stranglehold on the federal government; a false religion in violation of the establishment clause. America was not a racist country until the introduction of CRT which holds every American of European descent guilty of racism...which is racism most foul.

The fear and loathing cuts across party lines in that polylogism is not confined to Marxians; there exists a profound US versus the people mentality within the political estate and whether Democrat, republican or administrative state has very good reason to minimize and keep secret as much of the sedition as possible to avoid pitchforks...and if necessary the 2nd Amendment. That truth leaves patriots such as Michael Anton and Peter Berkowitz appealing to principle knowing full well the American institutions of governance would inevitably suffer for the sins of a few; Americans would be left with the impression the Constitution has failed thus fulfilling the Planned Chaos strategy.

Damned if you do damned if you don't; checkmate evil...unless one gains the higher vantage where evil incarnate is identified in the Convergence Matrix written in the language of God mathematics fused with history is no longer subject to debate; a religion posing as a political ideology, Marxianity, in alliance with a political ideology posing as a religion, Islam, fixated on the destruction of the Constitution...so as to destroy Israel.

It really is that simple and as such the calls for civility and avoiding thinking in terms of a Manichean battle between good and evil no longer apply; recognizing evil and acting accordingly has been given a frame of reference never known in human history before the Convergence Matrix; an act of grace requiring one take up Yeshua's sword and translate the knowing into action so as to defang the Marxian beast...then castration to prevent the beast from ever propagating again.

There is very little time left to confront an ideology that makes clear it intends subjugate and rule over average Americans with ideas and principles the elites are convinced should not be allowed to propagate; "These people need to be extirpated from politics" as Nils Gilman of the Berggruen Institute recently tweeted.

"Democracy is the Road to Socialism"* Karl Marx

Notice how Marxians are far more inclined to use the word democracy than republic; a constitutional republic which is meaningless to seven out of ten young voters who cannot name the three branches of government let alone which country the founders declared independence from...by design in that the young consider the vote as a means to an end i.e. the government as a legitimate source of income. James Madison disagreed.

"I cannot undertake to lay my finger on that article of the Constitution which granted a right to Congress of expending, on objects of benevolence, the money of their constituents" and "Charity is no part of the legislative duty of the government."

Neo-Marxism is infused in almost every institution and government agencies yet their agenda is stalled ergo they openly push for replacement of the constitutional order i.e. the SCOTUS is dominated by originalists and the Senate is locked in a 50-50 tie even though Democrat senators represent over 40 million more voters. It does not matter that the founders created a finely balance scheme to protect the interests of the smaller states, it matters only that Wyoming, Idaho and Montana with a combined population of 3.4 million has more senators than California and New York with 59 million residents and so the Constitution is "undemocratic" as is the Electoral College.

They fail to mention California, with its massive illegal population, has more representatives in the House than 22 states combined. The disparity in the senate has translated to Republicans nominating the most SCOTUS justices even though they have won the presidential popular vote only once in 30 years...a disparity Marxians seek to eliminate with the National Popular Vote Interstate Compact (NPVIC); a constitutionally dubious scheme fifteen states and the District of Columbia have signed on to that would have the signatories awarding all their electoral votes to whichever presidential candidate wins the popular vote.

To institute Marxian "democracy" and insure they get their way there are calls for major institutional changes including packing a "reactionary" SCOTUS, admitting the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico to gain control of the Senate permanently. Many are openly calling for a "unitary dominant-party parliamentary republic with an executive presidency" like that of South Africa.

That Marxians are quickly moving ahead with exactly that plan in mind can be discerned from 1) the increasingly porous border and the not at all "conspiracy theory" browning of America as happened in South Africa, 2) the establishment of the entirely dysfunctional black subculture as a protected class, and 3) what I refer to as the "Oprah Winfrey Project". Have you notice the number of overweight, highly partisan and vindictive black women being put into positions of authority?

Look to Washington D.C. Mayor Muriel Bowser painting a Black Lives Matter street mural and refusing National Guard troops January 4th 2021 as if she knew what was coming.

At some time in the near future blacks will be called into the streets in violent revolution with the promise of “black empowerment” laws...if the Constitution is replaced. Make no mistake, Marxians seek regime change and fully intend to ride Critical Race Theory, Planned Chaos and the political and infrastructure power they control to that end; America is irredeemably racist and has been since the founding ergo the nation’s institutions, history and traditions are unworthy of respect and as such the “oppressed” are obligated to burn it to the ground.

An evil enemy, will burn his own nation to the ground...to rule over the ashes. Sun Tzu

One need only look to what Democrats have done to Jefferson’s beloved Monticello where the tours and displays are now skewed so much the tour is propaganda at best i.e. Jefferson the slaveholder versus sympathetic Sally Hemming ‘who many historians believe carried six children by Jefferson’. Marxians attacking the founders as vindictively as their statues in an effort to delegitimize them and by extension the founding documents. If one supports Black Lives Matter...one is supporting the death of the republic.

What do you see when politicians, executives and average people taking a knee in prostration before rioters and looters to renounce “white privilege” and declare fealty to “anti-racism”? I see parallels to Mao’s Cultural Revolution that first sought to dismantle the old and in the process destroying the history of China to create a clean slate for a Marxian utopia.

“It is wrong to think of utopias as harmless dreams...combined with the idea of progress, utopian thought is a dream that motivates action. It establishes a goal so lofty that it cannot be reached. The more ideal it becomes, the greater the stubbornness with which it is pursued. There comes a time when blood is spilled. Oceans of blood.”

Eugene Vodolazkin, Russian Novelist

In the minds of Marxian true believers violence, destruction and death are acts of love...and necessary to realize the bliss of a communist utopia even to the point of genocide which assumes traditional concepts of good and evil, right and wrong, morality, no longer apply. In the 75 years that followed the November 1917 Bolshevik Revolution an estimated 68 million innocent men, women and children died in a Soviet dystopia; an attempt to create a communist utopia.

“Every utopia contains a dystopia; every dystopia contains a utopia.” Ursula K. LeGuin

Americans are witnessing the intentional creation of a dystopian nightmare; designed to finish the destruction of the JudeoChristian foundations of the nation...Planned Chaos eloquently put to words by Victor Davis Hanson in a July 3, 2022 article titled Who Are the Real Insurrectionists?

There is one last aspect of the neo-Marxist front all should be aware of and on full display if one knows what they are looking for among the many signs held by pro-abortion protestors who block interstate 65 in Saint Louis July 10th with no arrests; a sign that read “Nobody is free until we are all free” ...a sign of intersectionality or shared oppression that Wilfred Reilly bound into a tight concept in the following excerpt from an article titled The Idiocy of ‘Shared Oppression’. To wit:

---Tablet columnist Wesley Yang has referred to this kind of thing as the “unity of oppression thesis,” “the astroturfed credo of the activist class” which insists, for example, that “LGBTQ parades have to call for freeing Palestine and White House plans for gender equity have to call for the elimination of cash bail.” Kristine

Hadeed, a left-leaning writer and apparent member of that class, made a good faith to explain the phenomenon to Yang on Twitter: “It’s because they recognize that the roots of oppression are intertwined. None of us are truly liberated unless all of us are liberated. Oppressed people uniting for collective liberation is the only way liberation will ever happen.”

Hadeed’s thesis was elegantly stated, and gels closely with the still poorly understood tenets of the woke movement writ large. Far from being an inchoate collection of protest-sign slogans and dorm-room pronouncements, contemporary radical theory is actually a coherent epistemology centered around: first, that racism and similar prejudices are “everyday” and “everywhere,” and that many supposedly race-neutral systems like standardized testing are in fact set up to oppress; second, that evidence of such oppression—most notably of racism—can be gleaned from the mere existence of performance disparities between large groups; and third, that the solution to this subtle but pervasive institutional bias is state-enforced “equity,” defined as the proportional representation of every major identity group across every endeavor, regardless of performance.

These three core ideas have generated secondary ones, like the claim that people of color (POC) by definition exist only outside of oppressive power systems, and therefore cannot effectively be racist...that because many or most groups are oppressed by their exclusion from power, the interests of all oppressed people(s) therefore run in concert, meaning that the destruction of a system oppressing one such group will help lead to equality for all---
