No.24 Europe and the Anglosphere Rising

“Shall I think that the Creator has made man so as to leave him to debate endlessly in the intellectual miseries that surround us? I cannot believe this: God prepares a firmer and calmer future for European societies; I am ignorant of his designs, but I will not cease to believe in them [merely] because I cannot penetrate them, and I would rather doubt my enlightenment than his justice.” Alexis de Tocqueville, Democracy in America

For a civilization to survive there are basic requirements including a land mass distinguished by borders within which people share an identity, culture and values even though there are multiple nations speaking different languages as is the case of western civilization. Removing the borders dilutes the identity and culture to the point there are no shared values...and the civilization ceases to exist. In Europe, as in the United States, there exists a theology that openly seeks the destruction of western civilization and Israel; afforded clarity as never before in the context of the Convergence Matrix.

It is the theology of the false religion of intellectual arrogance Marxianity and at the moment the Marxian elites across the Anglosphere and Europe have almost total control of the levers of governance; opening the borders of Europe and America in a final push to destroy a now evidenced plan. Some might wonder why, if the stakes are so high, HaShem chose human detritus to serve as an unlikely David to confront the international goliath?

Think...while you still have time. My first task was to confront the Christian churches as to how wrong they have been for 2000 years and why Judaism has never gotten it quite right; none seriously took the time to consider Yeshua and the fall of the 2nd Temple in the context of actual history.

Those churches are in the United States and to a pew there will be major problems with HaShem, He Who Is, presenting as pure reasoned intellect and power more inclined to the fictional Spock than the average human being today; reasoned intellect decidedly secular Europeans are far more likely to embrace...and as such it may be said with certainty the messenger fades away to insignificance while the message remains.

The message is certitude; the God of Abraham, Sinai, Yeshua and 1776 not only exists but is now fully engaged as evidenced by the messages being written in the ink of natural phenomenon which human detritus, the emissary, can both read and publically predict accurately; not prophesy, not talent and certainly not metaphysical but rather reasoned using the Convergence Matrix which advises as to how God thinks and what He is thinking.

If one looks closely the origin of the dilution strategy is apparent; God insured the North America continent to be colonized by white Anglo-Saxon Protestants was sparsely inhabited as opposed to South America where the indigenous peoples vastly outnumbered the Spanish colonizers. The net result was stagnant advancement that can easily be measured; in 1900 Columbia had 400 miles of railroad and the United States had 200,000.

The same equation holds for Africa where European colonizers were ejected by Marxist inspired black liberation...with the last being South Africa where millions of whites abandoned to Marxism in the name of democracy, tolerance and multiculturalism now face genocide with the anti-racism movement.

“Those who believe Europe is for the world have never explained why this process should be one way: why Europeans going anywhere else in the world is colonialism whereas the rest of the world coming to Europe is just and fair.”

Douglas Murray, The Strange Death of Europe: Immigration, Identity, Islam

The evil that is Marxianity adheres to Alinsky's Rules for Radicals more than most realize, especially Tactic #4: "Make the enemy live up to its own book of rules. You can kill them with this, for they can no more obey their own rules than the Christian church can live up to Christianity". Marxians have, for 60 years, misappropriated the "nation of all nations" concept and applied it to immigration cloaking the strategy in morality in accord with Alinsky's 'Means and Ends 10th Rule'; a strategy utilized in America and Europe almost exclusively.

Multiculturalism as a weapon with the false religion knowing full well lesser peoples fail to assimilate when the numbers are overwhelming.

"Multiculturalism denies historical and scientific evidence that people differ in important biological and cultural ways that makes their assimilation into host countries problematic. It is also extreme in the viciousness with which it attacks those who differ on this issue. These attacks are accompanied by a very generalized and one-sided denigration of Western traditions and Western accomplishments, and claims that a collective guilt should be assumed by all Europeans (whites) for the sins of their forebears. In the semireligious formulation of this view, expiation of these sins can only come through an absolute benevolence toward the poor of the world whose suffering is claimed to be the result of the white race and its depredations. In practical terms this can only be accomplished through aid to Third World peoples and generous immigration policies that allow large numbers of people to escape the poverty of the Third World.

Byron M. Roth, The Perils Of Diversity: Immigration And Human Nature

Deeply consider Byron Roth's comprehensive indictment; people differ biologically and culturally; western civilization and whites are evil and the "semireligious" vitriol infers only the elimination of the offender...by repeating the South African strategy of mass migration followed by a demand for "democracy" as was defined by Karl Marx...the road to socialism. Bryon Roth's use of the word "semireligious" was a missed opportunity to frame the truth and impress upon his readers the danger inherent in the false religion Marxianity; until Marxianity is addressed as an actual religion, albeit false, the "honest conversation" Marxians are terrified will actually happen will never occur.

In France where the government seized all church property in 1907 the ever evolving discordant brand of secular democracy is emblematic of the godless governance John Adams rejected. In France centuries old churches are sold and demolished at an alarming rate now that a society defined by lack of religion has emptied the pews far more effectively than in the far more stubborn Judeo-Christian United States; stiff necked Jews of the lesser House of Judah.

Adhering to a de facto version of the erroneously defined American separation of church and state, European governments, and in particular France, are ambivalent if not outright hostile to supporting centers of worship unless Muslims want to open a mosque which is not only accommodated but financed by a government dominated by Marxianity. In 2003 there were 1500 mosques and almost 2400 today; more mosques and Muslim centers have been built in France over the span of 30 years than Catholic Churches in last 100 years. England is no different; London has 423 new mosques, over 100 sharia courts and 500 closed churches.

Without traditional Judeo-Christian foundations both England and France are slipping away. In England Muslim men with multiple wives and sometimes up to 20 children live off of an already stressed welfare system forced to divert more money from wealth creation to support and ever expanding dependent population and in France, like blacks in America, Muslims have established virtual no go zones.

The Muslim and African populations are growing exponentially while white Europeans have been weaned away from large families. Like the specious Paris accords and China's in re carbon reduction, western civilization has been told it must make concessions while the worst offenders are exempted. An August 2017 article by Giulio Meotti, Muslims Tell Europe: "One Day All This Will Be Ours provides stark evidence Europe is on the verge of surrender. Much disparaged, ostracized and persecuted Dutch parliamentarian Geert Wilders told a refreshingly honest inconvenient truth:

"In the coming 30 years, the number of Africans will grow by more than one billion people. That is twice the population of the entire European Union... The demographic pressure will be enormous. One-third of the Africans want to move abroad, and many want to come to Europe. Last year, over 180,000 people crossed in shabby boats from Libya. And this is just the beginning. According to EU Commissioner Avramopoulos, at his very moment, 3 million migrants are waiting to enter Europe".

Europe and all of western civilization is facing and existential threat from a demonstrably malicious and controlling Marxianity which has mouthpieces such as the New York Times asking why, "despite shrinking population, Eastern Europe resists accepting migrants"...which was immediately answered another inconvenient truth not acceptable in polite conversation.

"The shrinking demography is precisely the reason they fear being replaced by migrants. In addition, much of Eastern Europe has already experienced being occupied by Muslims for hundreds of years under the Ottoman Empire, and are all too well aware what would be in store for them were they to come there again."

The article continues with Hungary's hated Prime Minister Viktor Orbán deftly skirting a racism charge Geert Wilders would ignore saying "There are two distinct views in Europe today to consider [regarding the decline and aging of the population]" "One of these is held by those who want to address Europe's demographic problems through immigration. And there is another view, held by Central Europe – and, within it, Hungary. Our view is that we must solve our demographic problems by relying on our own resources and mobilising our own reserves, and – let us acknowledge it – by renewing ourselves spiritually".

Giulio Meotti, displaying uncommon courage, concludes "Orbán just warned against a "Muslimized Europe" and "the question of the upcoming decades is whether Europe will continue to belong to Europeans". Nowhere is that truth more apparent than Britain and France; the article notes:

The Archbishop of Strasbourg, Luc Ravel, nominated by Pope Francis, soon declared that "Muslim believers know very well that their fertility is such today, that they call it ... the Great Replacement. They tell you in a very calm, very positive way: 'One day all this, all this will be ours' ..." In the US replacement theory is labeled conspiracy.

The problem is exacerbated by libertarian capitalists who are convinced that a growing economy needs a growing population; they who define liberty as non-interference for a privileged few and like Marxianity, have no use for the moral absolutes of HaShem.

The God of Sinai is not inclined to negotiate at this point; Marxianity has been identified as evil and the true nature of its ally Islam's view of the world cannot be dismissed:

Moshe Sharon, Professor of Islamic Studies, Hebrew University of Jerusalem, provides a view of Islam as if from the inside writing: "...[S]ince the creation of the world there is only one religion and it is the religion of Islam.... therefore, when Islam was not in that area before Mohammed came to it, it should have been there....So any place like this had to be freed, not to be conquered...And therefore, there is no Islamic occupation. If somebody occupies anything, it will always be somebody else, not the Muslims. So, there is no Islamic occupation. There is only Islamic liberation."

What the world has been witnessing is not Islamic terrorism but eternal jihad, which will never cease until Islam realizes the time has come to stand down in the effort to destroy their brothers from another mother and accept God's offer of peace with terms...a great Ishmaelite nation, Ishmael, at peace with Israel. The offer is a once in history opportunity and Muslims in Europe and across the world are as their Jewish half-brothers...being called to return in that neither should be out of place in 2026.

It took many hundreds of years for Christianity, a religion entirely depending on moral suasion, to make deep inroads first into the Roman Mediterranean and then into northern Europe, but Islam was far different; Islam justifies conquest, forced subjugation and the promise of paradise for those who die advancing the false religion and after taking Mecca conquered the Levant, Northern Africa and Iberian Peninsula in a "religious" blitzkrieg finally stopped by Charles Martel at the Battle of Tours/Poitiers in 732 exactly 100 years after the death of Muhammad. It would be the grandson of Charles Martel, Charlemagne, who would launch autonomous western civilization and he too is identified in the Convergence Matrix.

Consider Islam in real terms; Islam states it is a duty to make war against “infidels” so as to “liberate” that which was always Islamic and as such the taking of property is justified by Allah as is the subjugation and enslavement of the conquered...and if one should die in battle paradise is insured with 72 virgins awaiting the slain Islamic warrior. Every tenet is based upon earthly riches and pleasures...opposite of Yeshua’s instruction.

In context one might understand the timing of the short term weather event bringing the Northern Europeans to their “come to Jesus moment”; it would take a number of generations to instill the fear of the G^d so as to build an army to fight the evil that was Islam. Few realize the majority of those people carried Sinai DNA imprinted by the fear of hearing God speak; the Ten Tribes are not lost but rather the mixed multitude that populated Europe.

It is no “coincidence” Charles Martel stopped the deepest incursion into Europe at the Battle of Tours/Portieres exactly 100 years after the death of Muhammad and it is no coincidence exactly 1000 years after the birth of Muhammad, Pope Pius V excommunicated of Queen Elizabeth I of England with the Regnans in Excelsis papal bull, thus creating the Anglican Church securing Protestantism an island fortress and the Enlightenment began....and one year later Islam was defeated at the Battle of Lepanto forever denying Islam the Mediterranean and 50 years later the Pilgrims would land in the new world 13 years after Jamestown.

From that point on both Islam and Roman Catholicism would be on the wane while a very new human understanding waxed; the idea of individual freedom. One must look from the higher vantage to discern two religious entities, a corrupted church and a political ideology posing as a religion, have as central tenets obedience and submission and both receded after 1570. With Protestantism came the enlightenment which looked with disdain upon both as exemplified by the founding fathers of the United States; to say the founders simply wanted to avoid another Church of England is to oversimplify.

Most people are unfamiliar with the 30 Years War and those with cursory knowledge equate the war to a conflict between Catholics and Protestants. While true to an extent, the war was fought by hundreds of princes and nobles led by kings flying the flag of either Catholicism or any number of Protestant denominations for selfish reasons; the war was an anathema to founders Adams and Jefferson in that 8 million people lost their lives to monarchy and religion combined and all too often it was money, power and influence determining alliances rather than principle. France, ostensibly Catholic, went to war siding with Protestant so as to offset Hapsburg hegemony. The scale is hard to fathom until mentioning over 1400 castles were destroyed.

The people of western civilization have lost touch with history, but what is worse, what little they do know has been presented in a way that does not take into consideration the hand of God and as such the understanding of history is as it has been with Yeshua for 2000 years...wrong or never quite right. The Convergence Matrix corrects the deficiency and serves as a template that can be and must be taught to young and old alike.

“For the average person, all problems date to World War II; for the more informed, to World War I; for the genuine historian, to the French Revolution.”

Erik von Kuehnelt-Leddihn, Leftism Revisited

For the contemporary historian and intellectual the quote makes perfect sense but the truth is the history of mankind began just 6000 years ago, and while time does not allow delving deeper the matrices identify three singularities as a continuum; Abraham, Yeshua and 1776...all separated by 1750 years exactly. To understand the significance of the French Revolution gain the higher vantage by reading Pamphlet No.1 Obama Preempted.

France on the Verge of Surrender

"The police in the UK are too scared to act in case they are labeled racists. This is what uncontrolled immigration does to societies. It's the same in Europe. The best way to destroy a culture is to make it multicultural."

Robert Black

Gain a higher vantage where history looks quite different than portrayed; history as patterns revealing more than written histories focused upon the powerful; an academic weakness in that one cannot fully appreciate history without understanding the average as well as one does the powerful but there is tangible evidence.

Look to Europe where centuries of war have taken a huge toll on the psyche of people who no longer look to G^d and where empty churches hundreds of years old are being sold to the highest bidder, converted or demolished; the postmodernist world wherein people have come to perceive churches as nothing more than extensions of past powerful rulers in long dead eras...and for the most part the perception is accurate; cathedrals, fortresses, grand palaces and villas are the predominate surviving structures of the past i.e. tangible manifestations of a wealthy and powerful few with undeniable church influences...all too often dark.

Unfortunately, the Catholic Church has a notorious history of blurring the lines between the wealthy, powerful and church proper...especially in France where the church would pay a heavy price in the French Revolution.

"In every country and in every age, the priest has been hostile to liberty. He is always in alliance with the despot, abetting his abuses in return for protection to his own."

Thomas Jefferson to Horatio G. Spafford, 1814

Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin Franklin and John Adams experienced France at the cusp of its history; a France soon to pass into history wherein a decadent ruling class stimulated Franklin but distressed Adams despite a certain affinity with a culture and people that charmed Jefferson with its beauty, architecture and shopping; Jefferson returned to the new United States with 86 crates of goods. Franklin would see the Constitution ratified then die in 1790, John Adams would become the 2nd President and Jefferson the 3rd during which the friendship between the two men would wither in large part due to the French Revolution which Jefferson praised then distanced himself from...finally recoiling from the horror of the wanton and unnecessary bloodshed.

It might be said in retrospect that the words Liberté, égalité, fraternité are mere words upon which nothing of substance rests...and the history of France since the revolution suggests America's close family in France should not take offense to the truth.

In the two centuries since the French Revolution there have been numerous constitutions, "Republics", and numerous military defeats...and it might be said France lost its soul; comfortably reclining into simply enjoying life when possible and famously claiming three crowns attesting to pleasure. When one says France or the French one cannot help but think of food, wine and sex. Now France is being overrun with Islamic migrants as is the rest of Europe; a continent in danger of losing identities a thousand years in the making...and France is a primary target of Islam.

France and its people are ill prepared; lacking the foundation and will that come with moral certitude to resist a concerted attempt to conquer the nation...not comfortable complacency but a vacuum created over 200 years ago in 1789. France created their own original sin when the revolution executed King Louis XVI after Jefferson and Lafayette asked he be spared along with royalty, aristocracy and every other "enemy of the revolution" including the church in a way that no doubt pleased Marx. Alexis de Tocqueville understood the nature of the beast Robespierre helped deliver.

"Nations, as well as men, almost always betray the most prominent features of their future destiny in their earliest years."

There have been a number of French constitutions and "Republics" attempting to contend with ever changing social fluctuations and radical political ideologies, indicating a nation and people perilously detached from G+d's absolutes. With just a little more light, the designs of Magog Islam doing the bidding of the Marxian Gog doing the bidding of evil incarnate will come into focus as it concerns a rudderless France.

Islam has made the deepest inroads throughout France; establishing islands of Islamic rule in 'no go' zones where the only law is sharia. To the south where Islam once ruled Andalusia there is now an effort to covert hundreds of vacant churches to mosques with the help of Spanish Marxists as is happening in France. There is even talk of "returning" by opening to all faiths the Cathedral of Cordoba; Islam like Marxianity once allowed in will only leave when confronted with a sword...not peace but the sword.

But the focus of the Islamic migration is centered on one particular Christian church; the Basilica of St Denis in Paris where the remains of Charles Martel are interred; Charles Martel who stopped the deepest incursion into Europe at the Battle of Tours/Poitier and the grandfather of Charlemagne; the two men created the soil of western civilization within which Abraham's seed of nations was to grow into a mighty oaks.

More light still might illuminate what one sees yet cannot or will not admit; the millions of "refugees" flooding into Europe are not scared women, widows, children, orphans and the elderly. Behind the burkas and crying children is an army of fighting age men; approximately 4 of 10 migrants are males between the ages 18-34 and males comprise almost 75% of the total refugee count. Inexplicably, the majority travel through Muslim Turkey to reach central and Northern Europe traveling twice as far as necessary for refuge had the Saudi's provided existing facilities built for the Haj while keeping them close to their home countries.

The leaders of Europe's "social democracies" belong to the false religion Marxianity and wish to dilute western civilization. There can be no explanation or rationalization for the insistence by "progressive" politicians that European citizens endure such an irrational immigration policy save for one; immigrants, their offspring and the flood of refugees now make up 20% of Europe's population thus diluting even more of what remains of a threadbare Judeo-Christian Europe; birthplace of western civilization.

The migration and Marxianity's multiculturalism are intended to undermine Judeo-Christianity strategically; a self-evident truth, but what does the immigrant population mean to Islam and France?

It would take but a single call to Muslims across Europe and millions would descend on France centering upon what Muslims openly call "Little Mecca", the Basilica of St Denis in Paris, and there would be little or nothing the French would or could do save for capitulation and collaboration. Do you really believe the Notre Dame fire was an accident after so many historic cathedrals have been subjected to arson attacks by Muslims? If one does then it is likely one has been deceived much the way immigrant crime statistics are hidden as described in a must read article titled Clear Link Between Immigration and Crime-- Like the One the U.S. Seriously Downplays by John R. Lott Jr. & James Varney for Real Clear Investigations December 1, 2022

"You are only a prisoner when you surrender" Tad Williams, Shadowplay

The Muslims would also descend on Spain establishing a corridor from Andalusia to Paris in Reconquista; Islam will have regained all the lands lost between Tours/Poitier in 732AD and its ejection from Spain by same Queen Isabella and King Ferdinand II who funded Columbus. The result would be an even more porous route from Africa to Gibraltar and up to Northern Europe striking a fatal blow... and Islam would have target Vienna.

"Never open the door to a lesser evil, for other and greater ones invariably slink in after it"
Baltasar Gracián, The Art of Worldly Wisdom

Be that as it may, Germany is the very heart of Europe and was the primary target at the time of Martel and it is today. Germany is Islam's objective...but Germans are uniquely positioned to defeat Islam, reverse the Islamic invasion and confront Marxianity and in doing so save Europe. Germany need only surrender one more time, but not to nations; Germans need only surrender to reasoned truth, uncommon sense...and a singular opportunity for redemption.

Germany and America; Atonement and Redemption

"For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways," says the Lord. "As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways and My thoughts [higher] than your thoughts."
Isaiah 55:8-9

The African Exodus detailed in Pamphlet No.18 is an appeal to blacks who identify as black before American to take the last exit being offered by the God of Sinai. I wrote there is a reason G'd forged a 6'4", 210lb, American of German/Norwegian descent with blond hair and hazel eyes aptly named Adler Pfingsten, human detritus, His faithful emissary; Marxianity, which ostensibly eschews prejudice and stereotyping, is being confronted by what is probably the archetypical stereotypical definition of evil...as defined by evil.

The African Exodus is an appeal to reason and it makes uncommon sense the one to champion black redemption and salvation from genocidal Marxianity is exactly the opposite of what most would expect; forcing them to look beyond the messenger and use reason to decide between destruction or a destiny crafted by God even before the first African slave set foot in what would be the United States in 1619. Blacks have very little time to decide given it was they who facilitated the 2020 fraudulent election of Biden/Harris, in turn setting the stage for an Islamist and Chinese communist resurgence by weakening the United States.

On the other hand, specificity as to the choice of a German/Norwegian emissary is a message as clear as the matrices are accurate; only Germany can break the back of Marxianity in alliance with Islam so as to save western civilization and as such the appeal to reason has added weight when the one chosen to deliver the entreaty is the product of Norse and German soil. HaShem could have chosen any one of close to 8 billion human beings but chose an American of German/Norwegian descent for that exact reason; reason itself which confirms the tie that binds America and Germany at the most critical time in history.

There is also a reason why the disaffected Jewish German pedant Marx believed communist revolution would find fertile ground in Germany; the Germans were then and are now a highly advanced people with a culture known for its creativity, industry, skills, discipline and a proud martial tradition enunciated by Otto von Bismarck who said "An appeal to fear never finds an echo in German hearts". The same Bismarck who answered Kaiser Wilhelm's question "Can you prove the existence of God?" replying "The Jews, your majesty, the Jews."

Every German will need to gain the highest vantage to understand the obvious when one accepts there is a plan and a Satan tasked with testing mankind exists...as does the God of Sinai, Yeshua and 1776. Has one ever thought the Battle of Tours/Poitiers, the 30 Years War and Nazis may share a common thread?

They do; three assaults targeting Germany by the three evils specifically identified by the matrices...first by Islam, then by the Catholic Church and finally Marxism disguised as National Socialism. The three greatest assaults on Germany were meant to destroy the one people and culture that most closely reflects that of Judaism; Germany, where the mixed multitude Sinai DNA is most intact. Germans are a strong, cohesive, intelligent and creative people so like the Jews there can be no reasonable doubt they were infused with the DNA of "lost tribes" led by the northernmost tribe of Israel; Dan as in Danube and Danmark. Gain the higher vantage and look at the Exodus with new eyes.

"Secular historians "live scrupulously, morally, righteously by the law of historical method but that method leaves us in vast darkness. It tells us that there are facts but does not tell us what they mean....We cannot take an honest view of human history unless we acknowledge God's work through human kind in history."

Arthur Link, Historian

A Yiddish appeal to Jewish humility "Klieg, Klieg, Klieg-Du bist a Nar-You are smart, smart, smart, but you are not so smart!" is wisdom Judaic scholars may want to embrace as it concerns the Convergence Matrix. The derash and sod of Genesis and Exodus revealed by the matrices provides a view of history in the context of a plan that answers questions none thought to ask including the why of the blessing 'May G-d make you like Ephraim and like Manasseh', the where of the lost tribes and reasoned logic of gentile adoption paid for by the sacrifice of Jewish messiah of purpose Yeshua.

Mysteries in history, in particular those relating to the Jews, have an answers if one is humble enough to accept the reality of an omnipotent, omnipresent and omniscient being who chose the title 'God' when setting mankind on the way to ascendancy; a plan that began in earnest by way of a people chosen to carry His instruction, Torah, to the entire world. First and foremost among mysteries is the "lost tribes" of Israel when in fact, like the matrices, they were hidden in plain sight yet visible through the lenses of reason provided by the matrices.

Throughout history the Jews have sought anonymity as a protective shield following the lead of HaShem who in His infinite wisdom had the Jews wander in the wilderness for 40 years until the memory of the Exodus faded from the minds of Egyptian Pharaohs rather than immediately enter Canaan which was a northern province of Egypt; Canaan where the chosen people would live side by side with Canaanites contrary to decimation accounts included for God only knows what reason.

Anonymity suggests, and history confirms the "Lost Tribes" were not lost at all; hidden in plain sight they exploded outward across the Mediterranean, the Levant and Northern Europe with the Assyrian diaspora as they were programmed to do at Sinai as part of a plan that can be traced to a blessing. On his deathbed Jacob, as Israel, adopted and blessed his two grandsons by Joseph in Egypt; "With you, Israel will bless, saying, 'May G-d make you like Ephraim and like Manasseh'" hence the common blessing among Jews.

To understand the true blessing focus upon the words "With you, Israel will bless" and the words that proceed them when born from above Israel nee Jacob conferred the blessing that would by tradition be given to the older son Manasseh upon Ephraim. Israel said "...his younger brother will be greater than he, and his children will fill the nations"; a blessing that is a virtual mirror image of Isaac and Ishmael and a precedent set for the adoption of gentiles into newly created lesser House of Judah as Yeshua did.

The blessing is seemingly incongruous in that the tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh would not play a predominate role in Jewish history until the tribes were the driving force that broke apart the Kingdom of Israel established by David; acting as the catalyst for the northern kingdom of Israel; worshipping the golden calf in opposition to the southern Kingdom of Judah from whence Yeshua would emerge. A seeming odd prophesy until one looks deeper and comes to realize the seed of Abram were to be planted while the seed of Abraham were those of descent.

If one goes to the Jewish Hebrew to English translation of Genesis 48:19 on the invaluable Chabad site the word [fame] will be found inserted before "will fill the nations" in a rare Judaic addition to the text in an attempt to provide context where none is needed; a direct descendant of Ephraim precipitated the end of David's kingdom and the creation of two kingdoms with the north comprised of the ten tribes...which would in indeed "fill the nations" and seed western civilization with the Torah of Sinai written on their hearts fulfilling "With you, Israel will bless".

How the Torah was carried will require the higher vantage, the highest peak gained after surmounting the mountain of ignorance; the place where an extant creator resides in that eyes closed to the idea the God of Sinai is far more than myth or contradicting stories, leave questions that can be answered left unasked. Very few think to ask questions as it relates to actual history and how history fuses with the "stories" in Judaic scripture and how mathematics and known science fuses with both.

Dissuade yourself of the idea of God as a metaphysical genie and think in terms of that which has been learned about the physical world with emphasis on genetics in this instance. The House of Israel was but a narrow sliver of the massive mixed multitude present at Sinai and yet within that narrow sliver an even narrower sliver, the Cohanim, the Cohen, the priests chosen, to this day carry a unique genetic haplotype and the question is why?

The only plausible answer is genetic imprinting well known to behavioral scientists and geneticists e.g. the progenitors, survivors, of every species have learned what is dangerous, fearful, and pass it on to offspring as genetic memory. Fish do not school to learn how to school.

The few salmon that survive to reach the ocean do not school to learn how to survive or migrate; they are the offspring of male and female survivors that pass the knowledge of how to survive in just two cells, egg and sperm, needing no parental guidance. It has been posited both fear and pain somehow imprint the genetic material in a way that is passed on to the offspring as a survival mechanism...and Sinai may have been the paramount human case in point.

The Torah includes a description of what may have been the most terrifying moment in history; the God of Sinai spoke to the mixed multitude and they begged Moses 'no more'...His words were written upon their hearts according to Judaic scripture but reason screams out the Torah was actually written on the genetic material of the chosen people in various degrees and for various purposes. Upwards of 3 million people "heard" God speak in a way intended for the moment and purpose; actual words and terror as opposed to words that were not words at all in a mere 5 seconds in which there was no time to react leaving this emissary nothing but logic, reason and an ingrained imperative to begin the challenging search for answers from the higher vantage.

Had religion embraced the God of Sinai in terms of an intellect and power capable of bending and shaping the physical world to use at the subatomic level in a way transcending human technology they could have saved the time, effort and expense of performing tests to prove those people, mostly Jews, who gathered by the thousands to listen to Yeshua could actually hear due to the naturally occurring acoustics.

They could hear but it has less to do with acoustics than genetic programming and the Jews he focused upon, Galileans, were the most knowledgeable and Torah adherent in Judea; more Jewish scholars came from Galilee than any other place...speaking many languages as recorded in Acts. It has been said any advanced technology would likely be perceived by people even 100 years ago as magic or metaphysics but what of technology looking back?

The idea that Christianity spread across the Levant and Mediterranean in such a short period of time due to the efforts of twelve disciples lost to history is to deny logic and reason; the Jews Yeshua came for had no problem hearing him teach in that they carried the instruction imprinted upon the genetic material of their ancestors at Sinai; they recognized the call to purpose in the same voice heard at Sinai and they too exploded out to carry Yeshua's gospel, the "good news", following in the footsteps of one of religion's greatest mysteries.

In context reconsider the "Lost Tribes"; the Assyrians reasonably did not take the entire population of the northern kingdom of Israel and they too, divorced from the temple in Jerusalem, exploded outward to the north as Scythians and Cimmerians then to the west all the way to Ireland. If one doubts simply look to many dismissed theories and name associations across northern Europe. I would posit the Danaans and the later the Achaeans, Ionians and Phoenicians were within the mixed multitude that either did not cross into Canaan or soon after exploded outward with in accord to the DNA programming.

The answer to another mystery even preeminent Judaic scholar Rashi concluded had no answer, has an answer in convergence; the 400 years of slavery the seed of Abram would endure in Genesis versus the 430 years of Exodus when neither one can be explained by the timeline of the Torah in the context of the matrices. The answer is the seed of Abram was to be planted versus Abraham's seed of descent i.e. the Canaanites history records as the innovative and creative Hyksos were in Egypt long before Jacob would be reunited with Joseph and during the Exodus they would join the mixed multitude to be genetically imprinted to seed the world with varying degrees of Torah.

HaShem sent a message across time with the paradox, advising this moment that mathematics alone do not tell the entire story; one must fuse mathematics with history and Torah for the truth. As to the seed of descent the family feud that started with Isaac and Ishmael and the lands that stretch from the Nile to the Euphrates has an answer; Ishmael was of Abram and Isaac was of Abraham and the land promised to the seed of Abram has been fulfilled while the land promised to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob is yet to be fulfilled but soon will be with only the Ishmaelite decision to stand down to be made.

Whether 400 years a slave as it concerns the African Exodus or the stunningly accurate description of the Ishmaelite lands with Shiite Iran, Afghanistan and Pakistan beyond the Euphrates as it concerns the nation of Ishmael, every aspect of Torah has meaning and purpose...all pointing to a plan for the creation of western civilization and finally the United States. That Germany has been in the sights of evil incarnate since Yeshua is clear when viewed from the higher vantage; it is no coincidence Germans are the largest European ethnicity in the United States.

The tribe of Dan provided the anchor of the northern arc centered in Germany and those Germanic people were called to Christendom 44 years before Muhammad's birth a reason; after a 100 year Islamic blitzkrieg across the Levant, North Africa and deep into Europe the Muslims were stopped before they could reach the German heart of Europe by high German speaking Charles Martel... and his grandson Charlemagne would center in Aachen, Germany marking the beginning of autonomous western civilization. The same heart, Germany, is once again in the sights of Islam in alliance with Marxianity but now the German people know why they are second only to Judaism as it concerns intellectual contributions to mankind...Germans can trace their origin to Sinai.

"To look at something as though we had never seen it before requires great courage."

Henri Matisse

Gutenberg gave the world the printing press with moveable type in an informational singularity and by the time of Elizabeth I just 100 years later an estimated 200 million books had been printed ushering in the enlightenment and revolutionizing the way average people thought of the world around them.

The Torah is far more than the Pentateuch; Torah is word for word, letter for letter, authored by He Who Is; Torah is the very weave of human existence; Torah is the essence of G+d; Torah knows no boundaries providing a virtual portal and bridge between physical and spiritual existence; Torah is understanding on such a grand scale it is imperceptible...and imbedded deep within the Torah are the answers to every question as Sir Isaac Newton surmised.

The German nation and people must come to understand the weave of history from a higher vantage so as to seize a singular opportunity to remove the onus of Nazi atrocities...and all must come to understand Torah is not merely the Judaic holy book but instruction for all mankind carried by a chosen people who have been targeted by evil incarnate since Sinai just as Germany has been targeted since Yeshua; Germany and the German people were targeted by the Satan and ha-satan to destroy their Sinai DNA.

Karl Marx and Hitler both made veiled reference to the commissions bequeathed at Sinai and amended by Yeshua; Karl Marx's "On the Jewish Question" opined "The Jews have emancipated themselves insofar as the Christians have become Jews" evidencing he understood the reason for gentile adoption into the family born at Sinai, Jews of the lesser House of Judah...a perceived tragedy Adolf Hitler put into words in Table Talk:

"Had Charles Martel not been victorious at Poitiers—already, you see, the world had fallen into the hands of the Jews, so gutless a thing was Christianity!—then we should in all probability have been converted to Mohammedanism, that cult which glorifies heroism and which opens the seventh Heaven to the bold warrior alone. Then the Germanic races would have conquered the world. Christianity alone prevented them from doing so."

It is no coincidence Adolf Hitler and the Grand Mufti of Jerusalem, Haj Amin al-Husseini, formed an alliance resulting in a number of military units that fought with the Nazis against the common "Jewish enemy" including the Free Arab Legion and 13th Waffen Mountain Division of the SS Handschar; an SS Division of primarily Bosnian Muslims notorious for brutality and war crimes committed against Serbs and Jews. The alliance between Marxianity and Islam is the same evil but Sunni Islam has an exit with the nation of Ishmael.

The truth is the world is looking into an abyss and to warn mankind away, a nation and people who have experienced the abyss must rise and reclaim their rightful station, their righteousness, being right with G†d; Germany must be born again. The abyss is separation from G†d, and since 1945 the German nation and people have paid dearly for the sins of their fathers; failing to recognize evil and rise to end the advance of evil can now be atoned for by recognizing the equally malignant evils Marxianity and Islam; socialism with another face once again in alliance with Islam and once again openly making clear their goal of destroying Israel and the Jews...and both know they must first walk over the corpse of America and the nations of western civilization.

The German people and nation are uniquely positioned to atone for Shoah; the German nation and people as defenders of Israel and the Jewish people can break the cycle of evil with the result a German people and nation with a renewed national character fully intended by G†d to convey to the rest of western civilization, especially the United States, a fearless sense of purpose, commitment and endurance attendant to a renewed sense of meaning.

"God creates out of nothing. Wonderful you say. Yes, to be sure, but he does what is still more wonderful: he makes saints out of sinners." Søren Kierkegaard, The Journals of Kierkegaard

Numerous times in this writing there has been the need to gain a higher vantage so as to see that which can only be seen from above current understanding; vantages gained from outcroppings, pathways and ledges in the difficult climb up the mountains of ignorance. There is something to be seen at this point in the climb that will require far more than overcoming the fatigue that comes with following a difficult guide on a challenging path to attain the next vantage; one must don the wings of angels to see the Shoah through the eyes of angels.

Be forewarned, Shoah, when viewed from high above human understanding, is to see the only place where heaven and hell meet but do not touch; it is a place where G†d's peace and G†d's wrath hang in precarious balance awaiting the penultimate choice none can avoid...choose God or lose all.

"And there is shoah hidden in good \ And good hidden in shoah." Samuel Idn Naghrilla

The good begins with admitting the truth; America shares the guilt for Shoah in equal measure to Germany...and now you know the why of choosing an American of German/Norwegian descent as emissary.

"And good hidden in Shoah"; Redeeming Proud Nations

"Few are guilty, but all are responsible." Abraham Joshua Heschel, The Prophets

Who is more guilty...the murderer who chases a family to a doorstep screaming his murderous intentions the entire way or the one who refuses to open the door to provide safe haven before confronting the evil fearlessly? How the more guilty if the reason the door was not answered and opened was a combination of ignorance, avoiding discomfort and inconvenience? Had Christians across the world been weaned on the truth, Christian are Jews of the lesser House of Judah, Hitler's murderous ambitions would have been stillborn and at worst America would have been enriched by millions of the most creative people on earth.

That all are responsible is a weight American Christians in their arrogance and ignorance must bear equally with the German nation; the House of Judah refused to acknowledge their family and open the doors to every Jew after the Nuremberg Laws blatantly denied equal protection; an unprincipled America more concerned with narrow selfish concerns allowed 6.2 million Jews, family, to be lost in the Holocaust when in truth those victims could have been easily absorbed. Atonement by America is no less a requirement in the approach to the end of human history than that of the German nation and people.

"If you refrain from rescuing those taken to death and those on the verge of being slain will you say, 'Behold, we did not know this'? Is it not so that He Who counts hearts understands, and He Who guards your soul knows, and He will requite a man according to his deed?"

Proverbs 24:11-12

Very few, Winston Churchill among them, recognized Hitler as evil, but not Americans who had to be wrenched from their comfortable complacency by Pearl Harbor three years after Hitler went to war in Europe. During that three year interim German American Bunds would parade and rally at Madison Square Garden in support of the Nazis which featured a 40' portrait of George Washington flanked by swastikas.

When Americans ask "How is it possible a people so immersed in literature, science and the arts became accomplices to mass murder?" I cringe in that the same or greater evil goes unrecognized every day; Marxianity is appreciably no different than nascent Nazism so perhaps the better question is "How is it possible Americans do not recognize the same evil in their own house?"

Hitler, the Nazis and WW2 did not emerge from a vacuum in 1933 created by the German people but rather can be traced back to 1861 and the Civil War future president Woodrow Wilson said formed his first memory; talk of war and Abraham Lincoln. One need only have patience as the dots are connected between Wilson as a champion of peace and a pawn of evil incarnate. There are brutal truths to be told and gaining a higher vantage to discern history as an evil agenda will be difficult, but necessary.

One can parse the record of Woodrow Wilson on many levels including his disdain for the Constitution, segregation and Sedition Act of 1918 but the focus is Germany and the rise of Hitler. The United States did not enter WW1 in large numbers until the last year of the war in 1918 to "make the world safe for democracy" but doing so purchased a seat at the peace negotiations in Versailles.

To his credit Wilson believed that in one way or another every European nation shared a degree of responsibility for the war but could do little in the way of tempering the designs of dying empires; Wilson could only nod in agreement or shake his head as Germany was humiliated, stripped of its colonies and saddled with crippling reparations rather than standing forthright and adhering to the lessons learned from the reconstruction debacle...and the stage was set for WW2 and the Vietnam War.

Ho Chi Minh was there to press for Vietnamese independence with the words of Thomas Jefferson in hand but was rebuffed. Ho Chi Minh returned home and on the way set aside Jefferson and picked up Marx...and yet the Proclamation of Independence of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam (1945) begins with: "We hold truths that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of happiness." "This immortal statement is extracted from the Declaration of Independence of the United States of America in 1776".

After Versailles Wilson proclaimed "at last the world knows America as the savior of the world!" but the treaty was never passed in the Senate and in 1921 separate peace treaties were signed with the nations of the Central Powers. In 1919 Wilson won the Nobel Peace Prize but his "progressive" pipe dream, the League of Nations, never counted the United States as a member and now the successor United Nations is nothing more than a platform for tyrants.

"A wind that blows aimlessly is no good to anyone."

Rick Riordan, The Blood of Olympus

The past is prologue in that the first professor in the White House was much like the second, even as to Marxian sympathies. Wilson's departure from traditional progressivism to the more pernicious tyrannical progressivism can be discerned from point VI buried in Versailles; the longest of the points is an exhortation to the nations of the world to support the aspirations of the Bolsheviks ending with the line: "The treatment accorded Russia by her sister nations in the months to come will be the acid test of their good will, of their comprehension of her needs as distinguished from their own interests, and of their intelligent and unselfish sympathy" ...just 3 months before the Bolsheviks executed the entire Romanov family and their entourage.

Hitler came to power promising jobs and renewed world respect after the WW1 humiliation and delivered as promised; garnering him the adoration of the German people. Had Hitler died in 1938 many would have considered his tenure one of a great statesman even with the 1935 Nuremberg Laws...which Americans reclining in comfortable complacency attendant to material wealth should have, but failed to, recognized as an unacceptable violation of principle justifying bringing every European Jew to the United States.

If Americans understood their purpose to be a beacon unto the world as Jefferson knew them to be; if American Christians recognized their intended identity as Jews of the lesser House of Judah; if Americans loved a Constitution with G+d's personal imprimatur and were willing to fight for it as Abraham Lincoln did...they would have reacted to the violation of what may be the primary purpose and principle of governance per Jefferson; equal protection before the law.

But they did not and the outcome, Holocaust, is a shared responsibility not made distant by an ocean or time...and newspapers such as The New York Times which touts but consistently belies objectivity are now on notice there can be no excuse for burying the truth for political or ideological purposes.

The German people could not look to a free press and most would learn of the Holocaust only after the war which begs the question...where were American papers such as the New York Times as "paper of record"? The answer is not comforting; Arthur Sulzberger, "Reformed Jew", publisher of the New York Times during WW2 believed Judaism to be just another religion, was anti-Zionist and like Einstein was not receptive to the idea of a "chosen people".

Sulzberger, perhaps the Henry Ford of publishing, buried new stories about the plight of the Jews at the hands of the Nazis. A Tribeca Film Festival review titled 'Reporting on the Times' Calls Out New York Times Holocaust Coverage by Marlow Stern is a must read.

Had Franklin Delano Roosevelt disregarded the anti-Semitism that arose with the second era Ku Klux Klan during Woodrow Wilson's administration the door for Jewish immigration from Europe after Hitler came to power would not have been closed; principle was displaced by a political agenda resulting in the deaths 6.2 million Jews who could have been allowed to immigrate after the Nuremberg Laws were passed.

The Nuremberg Laws should have enraged every American but a people divorced from principle are numb to injustice. Worse yet, the government of the people went to extraordinary lengths to block Jews from coming to America including the travesty that was the MS St. Louis; a German steam ship with 900 Jews escaping Nazi oppression was turned away the United States and Canada forcing the return to Europe where an estimated 230 would eventually go to death camps...The Voyage of the Damned.

"FDR appointed a eugenic zealot named Isaiah Bowman to his "M Project" that kept Jews from the safety of US shores."

A.E. Samaan, H.H. Laughlin: American Scientist, American Progressive, Nazi Collaborator

To emphasize the gravity and finality of the choice to be made, one must consider the possibility HaShem allowed evil to destroy a third of his holy nation to provide perspective at this most critical time in history; to ignore, disparage, deny or depreciate the sacrifice of 6.2 million innocent Jews as a consequence of failing to recognize evil incarnate is far more than a grave error...it is a fatal error. There are upwards of 6 million whites abandoned to Marxianity in Africa to be evacuated before Shoah at the hands of the same evil that stalked the world in 1933.

Shoah looks very different through the lenses of convergence does it not?

Good hidden in Shoah in that Americans and Germans, by accepting a shared responsibility for the Holocaust, can regain the courage and moral authority to defeat Marxianity in alliance with Islam by simply reminding themselves of the sacrifices made by HaShem and his chosen people.

"If we bear all this suffering and if there are still Jews left, when it is over, then Jews, instead of being doomed, will be held up as an example"

Anne Frank would have been pleased to know it would be left to the German people and nation to find redemption defending Jews and Israel while saving Europe and awakening an equally guilty sleeping giant.

The direct link between the German failure to recognize the evil that was Hitler and the facilitating guilt of America amounts to a warning; the failure to recognize the past prologue evil in its own house constitutes a failure of reason on a biblical scale and will have consequences on a biblical scale.

"If at any time I announce that a nation or kingdom is to be uprooted, torn down and destroyed, and if that nation I warned repents of its evil, then I will relent and not inflict on it the disaster I had planned. And if at another time I announce that a nation or kingdom is to be built up and planted, and if it does evil in my sight and does not obey me, then I will reconsider the good I had intended to do for it."

Jeremiah 18:7-10

The German nation and people have been extended the opportunity to atone for the Holocaust, reclaim their pride, culture and honor in a principled and dignified manner by rejecting both Marxianity's multiculturalism and the Islamic invasion of Europe; standing forthright against Ezekiel's heretofore unidentified Gog and Magog in defense of Israel, the chosen people and a now evidenced plan thousands of years in the making in a profound expression of atonement worthy of a forgiving and just G^d.

If Marxianity is allowed to define western civilization, European civilization, as unworthy of defense Islam will have achieved striking the fatal blow into the heart of Europe as it has tried to do for 1400 years...but rather than scimitars the preferred weapons have been provided by Marxianity in the form of tolerance, diversity and multiculturalism.

The power of an idea and its ability to draw evil furiously from its refuge can be easily demonstrated; the German people need only fly the flag of Israel in a demonstration of courageous purpose and conviction...and all else will follow. Marxianity will condemn the gesture as "hate" which presupposes the flying of the rainbow of sexual perversion flag in Islamic countries is "love"; fly the Star of David and both will be confronted by a nation refusing to submit to either false religion.

Millions of Israeli flags on display will prompt other nations to follow in a defiant statement across western civilization to both Marxianity and Islam, and both can be expected to show their true nature resorting to coercion and violence, which is better defeated now before the alliance of evil is able to consolidate power further. Ignore the accusation of incitement to violence and simply say in one voice...this we will defend.

"Anybody can become angry - that is easy, but to be angry with the right person and to the right degree and at the right time and for the right purpose, and in the right way - that is not within everybody's power and is not easy."

Aristotle

The German nation and people can almost singlehandedly break the back of evil incarnate in Europe, but how does America atone when the House of Judah closed its doors and allowed 6.2 million Jews to die needlessly in a Holocaust; Jews, family, who represented America's foremost responsibility and the reason the United States has been blessed above all other nations?

The answer is taking great evil and turning it into good as G^d would have it by joining with Germany to evacuate white South Africans in the process of assisting the creation of a great African nation where backs can determine their own destiny. Do not rely upon your own understanding but instead gain the higher vantage which speaks to uncommon sense as a guiding hand across time; Germany as a nation and as a people is the linchpin upon which the fate of western civilization swings.

With singularity and the end of history as mankind understands history less than four years hence, the stakes could not be higher; Mankind is being forced to confront a reality none in comfortable complacency ever thought would happen; a confrontation of biblical proportions.

Marxianity is a religion posing as a political ideology in alliance with Islam, a political ideology posing as a religion; one intent on the destruction of Christianity and the other the destruction of the Jews and Judaism...and Germany is positioned to deal both devastating if not fatal blows.

Unfortunately there exist a significant number of people in western civilization easily swayed by the simplistic arguments generally impervious to reason; neo-Nazis who are enthralled by the material manifestations of Nazism, weapons and uniforms, without realizing the profound difference between the SS and the average German patriot and professional soldiers of the Wehrmacht.

"No matter how hard Evil tries, it can never quite match up to the power of Good, because Evil is ultimately self-destructive. Evil may set out to corrupt others, but in the process corrupts itself. That's just the way Evil is. All things considered, it's better to be on the side of Good, even if Evil occasionally has nicer uniforms."
John Connolly, The Infernals

Neo-Nazis and Ku Klux Klan members take note; if you wish to see the evil that is Marxianity reduced to a blathering unorganized madness, burn your Nazi and Ku Klux Klan flags during the next confrontation with Antifa or Black Lives Matter and then raise the flag of Israel, the Stars and Stripes and Stars and Bars as a reminder that 95% of the South fought not to defend slavery but as a matter of principle. Just as the alphabet of sexual perversions misappropriated the rainbow, a symbol of God's promise to humanity, the Stars and Bars represent the Jefferson flag; "Rebellion to tyrants is obedience to God".

The people of Germany, France, England and every other nation in Europe and the Anglosphere now have the view from the higher vantage and will have to make the penultimate decision...and every Muslim would be wise to begin the journey back from whence they came to build the great Ishmaelite nation Ishmael.

Many will wonder why the focus of this pamphlet leaned toward providing the view from the higher vantage rather than indict the "overwhelmingly left-wing establishment politicians" of the EU. The answer goes to the need to provide a deeper understanding of hand of God in history that will in turn require reconciling with the reality of an extant God of Abraham/Sinai, Yeshua and 1776. It is unnecessary debate the unfolding climate change madness that is deindustrializing Europe while creating a potential famine that will affect upwards of 60 million people worldwide. Real 'end of times' madness effectively captured by a December 2022 article titled 2022: The Year Food and Energy Security Fears Hit Europe by Peter Caddel.

"Whom the gods would destroy they first make mad" Unknown author; ascribed to Euripides

It is enough to know the EU is secretly but actively working and funding NGOs to advance a two state solution that would incorporate west bank Judea and Samaria into a Palestinian state...a "solution" the administration of Biden supports. First, whether the Palestinian Authority, Fatah, Hamas or Hezbollah none in the west seem interested in first demanding the abandonment of a "right to return" or recognition of Israel's right to exist. Second, none, not even the Israeli Knesset, has a right to cede even one inch of the land promised to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. HaShem will make His presence known in no uncertain terms between now and 2026 and all will have to decide which side of the dividing line they stand; with or against Israel.

To write pages trying to explain history as a weave far less complex than the actual weave of existence may seem a fool's errand but in truth there is a requirement to connect the dots in a way that spurs debate and the need for answers before a single step forward is taken. Appealing to the German people is small change when compared to warning an entire religion it is on the abyss and yet a single writing will suffice as to explaining why Catholicism is the first identified as evil incarnate; The Church over the Abyss by Daniel J. Mahoney for The American Mind, November 2022. Pope Francis is not excluded from the penultimate decision any more than the Marxian elites who are knowingly destroying western civilization.

In most wars the capital of the enemy well defended and is the last to fall, but this war of mitzvot is far different; Washington DC and the established political class that now occupy the nation's capital must be the first to fall and will be under siege henceforth. Washington DC will not be the only capital under siege; authoritarian Marxianity is the prevailing political ideology of the European Union and the Anglosphere where populism and nationalism is decried and defined as an offshoot of American "white supremacy" and likened to the rise of Nazism; projection most foul in that it is the godless false religion Marxianity that is the ideological descendant of Nazism, Leninism, Stalinism and Maoism.

Just as Americans will have to rise as Democratic-Republicans to exact massive retaliation on the false religion so too European populists and nationalists that can now identify with the JudeoChristianNation and boldly proclaim they too will adhere to the "Laws of Nature and of Nature's God"; people proudly claiming the inheritance of forebears who created the greatest civilization the world has ever seen under the roof of the house promised to David and built by Yeshua to shelter the holy nation until the birth of the United States. Now history has come full circle like a double helix; there will be a new birth of freedom that will originate in the nation of all nations; facilitating the restoration of European cultures 2000 years in the making.

"Multiculturalism is in its essence anti-European civilization. It is basically an anti-Western ideology." Samuel P. Huntington, The Clash of Civilizations and the Remaking of World Order

Europe is looking into an abyss and to warn mankind away, a nation and people who have experienced the abyss must rise and reclaim their rightful station, their righteousness, being right with G[†]d; Germany must be born again. The abyss is separation from G[†]d, and for 77 years the German nation and people have paid dearly for the sins of their fathers; failing to recognize the evil of Nazism can now be atoned for by recognizing the equally malignant evils that are Islam and Marxianity; National Socialism with another face once again in alliance with Islam and once again openly making clear their goal of destroying Israel and the Jews...and both know they must first walk over the corpses of American, Europe and the Anglosphere.

The German people and nation are uniquely positioned to atone for Shoah; the German nation and people as defenders of Israel and the Jewish people can break the cycle of evil with the result a German people and nation with a renewed national character intended by G^d to convey to the rest of western civilization a fearless sense of purpose, commitment and endurance attendant to a renewed sense of meaning. Redemption and atonement warns against the first blow; Judaism survived the centuries using brains rather than brawn and the existing battlefield remains one of ideas, knowledge and wisdom.

The power of an idea and its ability to draw evil furiously from its refuge can be easily demonstrated both in Europe and America; the German people need only fly the flag of Israel in a demonstration of courageous purpose and conviction...and all else will follow. European Union Marxianity will condemn the gesture as "hate" but it is time Islamists are confronted by the people of a nation refusing to submit to either false religion.

There will be difficult choices to be made causing deep division between family and friends having forever consequences for both sides...and now you know the meaning of "Do not suppose that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I did not come to bring peace, but a sword". But also understand why Yeshua brought a sword to this fight; not peace but the sword is a mandate to take up the sword if evil chooses violence.

For the first time in history the banners will be as were intended from the beginning; unapologetic JudeoChristian warriors tasked with defending both JudeoChristianity and Judaism proudly displaying the standards, shields, swords of their forefathers dating to Charles Martel and Charlemagne.

Hannah Arendt wrote "Evil thrives on apathy and cannot survive without it"; stand while still you can.

Godspeed,
Adler von Pfingsten
