No.5 JudeoChristianNation

“And this gospel of the kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come” Matthew 24:14 ESV

God commissioned Paul to insure Peter would not die in Jerusalem as James did in a futile effort to convert Jews after eleven disciples disappeared from history; dragging Peter to Rome and in turn insuring Christianity would survive. God commissioned human detritus to deliver an offer of peace with nonnegotiable terms...and for those who fail the final test of reason He is sending messages in the ink of natural phenomenon because He is a just and understanding God. The Convergence Matrix will be debated and discussed throughout the world; acting as a catalyst for the gospel testimony to all nations and then the end shall come in 2026 Jerusalem.

By measure the Christian churches have failed, and with the advent of Marxianity and postmodernist thinking are now in full retreat...with many compromising with evil incarnate; tares that will fall with the false religion if they fail to rise as One Faith—One Voice to fight a holy war declared by Marxianity.

There are a number of theological and intellectual hurdles to be overcome by the thousands of denominations, congregations and millions who now have something to believe in they can hold in their hands to explore and debate...the Convergence Matrix. First and foremost are mathematics incapable of deceit and the reasoning attendant to bequeathing the matrices to human detritus to interpret; not a prophet but a faithful emissary chosen before birth to come of age as America entered into a period of steep decline and doubt in the 1960's.

The ever expanding matrices create a message that is not difficult to read.

- That the God of Abraham/Sinai, Yeshua and 1776 exists is no longer a matter of mere belief or faith but rather Blaise Pascal's "certitude, certitude" and He is fully engaged.
- Yeshua is far more important and understandable than most believers and unbelievers realize.
- The answer to history as an equation is Israel and the Holy Nation.
- The United States as exceptional is no longer debatable; the reestablishment of Israel and her protection unto July 4th 2026 with Yeshua in Jerusalem exactly 250 years after the signing of the Declaration of Independence in 1776. The founding documents are instruction, Torah, for all mankind.
- There are three identifications of evil incarnate in the first axis/paragraph of the matrices; Athanasius and the Trinity, Mohammed and finally Marx/Engels as detailed in Pamphlet No.2...Mankind's Final Test of Reason. Two, Trinitarians and Islam, have an exit from the field...but Marxianity will be destroyed.
- God chose human detritus to convey His offer of peace with terms; writing without edit in the manner of Jefferson's ploughman informing all who willing to listen even the most sinful can be conditionally forgiven and have a place in a plan nearing its end; personal baptism in clear natural water.

He Who Is will at the appointed time impress upon mankind that ignoring the Convergence Matrix is the penultimate choice writ large and the message will be clear; choose the moral law of Sinai, the gospel of Yeshua and God's grace or lose all.

For the first time in history the means to communicate the gospel truth worldwide is provided by technology and all now have good reason to listen.

"The times in which our generation lives are not ordinary times. We dwell on the interface between two worlds —a world as it was and a world as it is meant to be. Everything is in place, all the infrastructure to bind the world together as one, the technology by which all of humanity can share deep wisdom; all that is needed so that the secret of oneness can be grasped within the human mind. The stage is set. All that's left is for us to open our eyes."

Rabbi Menachem M. Schneerson, Likkutei Sichot 13

To win the holy war declared by Marxianity will require a response on every level nationally in the context of American exceptionalism and historic mission made clear by God Himself; the Declaration of Independence has been proven by the Convergence Matrix to bear His personal imprimatur and as such "Render unto Caesar that which is Caesar's and unto God that which is God's" has new meaning...America is God's country.

Marxian academics will no doubt label efforts to unify Christian churches, congregants and those who will fill the pews seeking meaning and purpose as Christian nationalism but they would be wrong; I seek the creation of the JudeoChristianNation so as to inflict massive retaliation against Marxianity by using the Convergence Matrix to evidence existence and reveal Christians are Jews of the lesser House of Judah. The matrices reveal God's plan for human ascendance and the critical role the United States plays in the last 250 years of human history as it is understood i.e. beacon to the world and the reestablishment and protection of Israel in the last days.

The final confrontation between good and evil is unfolding before your very eyes; pitting those who adhere to the "Laws of Nature and of Nature's God" against those who do not; the false religion of intellectual arrogance, Marxianity, posing as a political ideology in and utterly incongruent alliance with a political ideology, Islam, posing as a religion. It really is that simple and academics now have a real problem in that the matrices do indeed evidence White Anglo-Saxon Protestants (WASPs) were in fact a greater people and culture crafted to make an exodus to North America to create the United States which in turn reestablished Israel.

Marxians have a visceral understanding of the truth and have for decades sought to contain WASPs by defining them as revanchist white supremacists. The greatest strength of America belies the idea that Christianity is not infused in the founding documents; people from all over the world regardless of race, creed or national origin need only embrace the Constitution to become an American...a nation of all nations just as Christianity is a faith of all nations that simply requires embracing the why of Yeshua's sacrifice.

The massive retaliation against Marxianity begins with the reintroduction of God to the public square and schools as history given the indisputable mathematics of the Convergence Matrix. The next order of business will be unifying the churches and synagogues under the banner of One Faith-One Voice; Christians are in fact Jews of the lesser House of Judah. Finally, 30 to 33 JudeoChristianNation in CommonsenseCession to evict Marxianity from Washington DC and establish the republic of Jefferson and Adams so as to anchor America on the right side of the end of history as it is understood i.e. apocalypse need not touch America.

Most believe apocalypse is inevitable but few realize the modern definition is far afield from the ancient understanding of the word, which meant to reveal, lay bare, disclose or uncover. In short, everything you know or thought you knew has changed and will never be the same with the Convergence Matrix i.e. a very real worldview of God, Yeshua, 1776 and an actual plan nearing its end renders every understanding untenable.

Everything has changed now that all know the holy war declared long ago by Marxianity against the God of Sinai has been answered in kind; individuals embracing, supporting or condoning 'woke' and the alphabet of sexual preference will have to make the difficult choices as to allegiance; a choice between a licentious "do as you will" ideology of human beings and the reality of an extant Creator who will judge between endlessness or eternal possibilities; a Creator that made clear sex derived from human intellectual rationalizations deviating from the "Laws of Nature and of Nature's God" is far more offensive than wallowing in the animalist mud of sin...it is an abomination.

Evidence of existence heralds the end of the culture war with only the amount of destruction to be determined by Satanic Marxianity. If you doubt "satanic" read How Satanism conquered America by Mary Harrington. It is not only fair but necessary to say if every Christian and Judaic denomination is confident they are right as to theology the only thing certain is all are wrong to varying degrees...but worse yet, for 150 years wrong has been taught from the pulpit and now many churches are virtually secular social justice sanctuaries.

"If immorality prevails in the land, the fault is ours in a great degree. If there is a decay of conscience, the pulpit is responsible for it. If the public press lacks moral discrimination, the pulpit is responsible for it. If the church is degenerate and worldly, the pulpit is responsible for it. If the world loses its interest in religion, the pulpit is responsible for it. If Satan rules in our halls of legislation, the pulpit is responsible for it. If our politics become so corrupt that the very foundations of our government are ready to fall away, the pulpit is responsible for it"

Pastor Charles Finney on the Clergy and Church, 1873

In May 2022 Decision magazine reported "A new study from the Cultural Research Center at Arizona Christian University (ACU), guided by popular pollster George Barna, has found that just 37% of Christian pastors in the United States have a Biblical worldview".

Per Barna "This is another strong piece of evidence that the culture is influencing the American church more than Christian churches are influencing the culture....The survey found that the category with the lowest percentage of pastors holding a Biblical worldview is the one related to beliefs and behaviors about the Bible, truth and morality...In fact, data suggests that Syncretism, defined as the "blending of ideas and applications from a variety of holistic worldviews into a unique but inconsistent combination that represents their personal preferences," is the predominant worldview among pastors, with 62% subscribing to this hybrid philosophy."

The article concludes with a quote by Burna: "It certainly seems that if America is going to experience a spiritual revival, that awakening is needed just as desperately in our pulpits as in the pews."

Is it any wonder God has chosen to evidence existence and provide guidance with a warning; Do you really believe G<sup>d</sup> would leave evidence of existence and the needed definition of history in history simply to have the evidence ignored? Every pastor should deeply consider the penalty for leading unwary astray with what is and always has been worldview tethered to worldly cultures and human intellect rather than an extant God.

Use the oracle of reason as to the message written across the tablet of time; fusing two known variables, history and mathematics, with Judaic scripture as the Author's signature.

The Convergence Matrix is the ultimate test of reason for a cynical world; designed to prompt discussion and debate. Even the choice of faithful emissary to reveal and interpret the message across time without edit is a challenge best understood in the words of Abraham Joshua Heschel from his God in Search of Man: A Philosophy of Judaism. To wit: "The surest way of misunderstanding revelation is to take it literally, to imagine that God spoke to the prophet on a long-distance telephone. Yet most of us succumb to such fancy, forgetting that the cardinal sin in thinking about ultimate issues is literal-mindedness."

My role is to reveal and interpret the matrices for the final test of reason it is; an offer of peace with terms not subject to negotiation...then leave it to every theologian, academic and individual to struggle with the quest for the truth. It is a test that that is difficult by design as evidenced by the need to question scripture corrupted by politically inclined Christian church fathers. It took me seven years to reveal the axis of greatest evil and it can be expected the answers to even the most basic questions will not be easy to find, including evidence of existence which God has hidden since the beginning; putting the wisdom of the world in the hearts of men to make the final test even more difficult.

He has made everything beautiful in its time; also the [wisdom of] the world He put into their hearts, save that man should not find the deed which God did, from beginning to end.

Ecclesiastes 3:11

Only those who embrace the difficult truth will go on to seek God...the entire point of human existence. For the first time in history the thousands of religious denominations will have the means to settle the innumerable theological differences that divide them so as to unify as One Faith-One Voice to engage in a holy war declared against God by Marxianity. "Seek and ye shall find" has meaning as never before as does "Do not think I came to bring peace to the world; I did not come to bring peace...but a sword."

None need bother me with deliberations given all have equal access to the oracle of reason; God has provided guidance I have learned to recognize but never once have I again heard words that are not words at all. More importantly, all have very good reason to begin the quest for the truth sans the artificial rules of intellectual arrogance that defines the false religion Marxianity; rules which have compromised churches and pastors that care more for cultural acceptance than a biblical worldview; churches that openly advance unreserved support for open borders, the LGBTQ+/gender identity community, Black Lives Matter...not to mention the diversity, inclusion, and equity agenda of the "woke". Each and every issue marginalizes God and weakens America.

To embrace DIE at the expense of the founding documents is to insure both body and soul will die.

It is ironic given said churches meld seamlessly with Marxian ideology which controls the federal bureaucracy, academia, the media, the Imaginarium and 'woke' corporations in what is fast becoming the classic definition of fascism...with all seeking to remove God from the equation thus exposing Israel. Even more ironic is the number of leftist Catholic parishes that flagrantly endorse teachings in direct opposition to church doctrine.

Consider this excerpt from an article titled Liberal Integralism by Casey Chalk for The American Conservative:

"More than 50 years ago Time magazine on its front cover promoted the "Death of God" theology movement, which argued that Christianity should dispense with belief in the divine in favor of a belief that God is a progressive force within history. Churches, they argued, should seek to secure a secular future defined by freedom and material prosperity, and forget about the cross and the resurrection. The "Death of God" theologians urged Christianity to will its own death in favor of a new utopian secular order. This is not only happening but being celebrated, as liberal elites praise dying churches who distribute their remaining property and finances to the secular social-justice movement"

Chalk's article goes on to map out the differences and similarities between conservative and liberal churches, concluding with a self-evident truth; what I know to be Marxianity has become a state religion...in violation of the establishment clause. The highly discordant churches are ill equipped to confront Marxianity when they cannot agree theologically let alone politically. God identified Athanasius as evil incarnate for good reason.

Athanasius not only created the Trinity to sever the Christian branch from Judaic tree with its Torah roots which resulted in the worship of Jesus as God in clear violation of the most important commandment, but worse yet introduced supercessionist theology i.e. the New Covenant superseded the "Old Testament". How wrong the theology was the subject of my five seconds in 70AD Jerusalem and the imminently prescient book titled Christian Anti-Semitism: A History of Hate by Professor William Nicholls who wrote of the paradox created.

"the very presence of the Jewish people in the world ... puts a great question against Christian belief in a new covenant made through Christ. The presence of this question, often buried deep in the Christian mind... caus[ing] profound and gnawing anxiety... hostility."

I came upon the quote in what may be the most important reading for Trinitarian churches to give context to the Convergence Matrix why of being wrong; Augustine and Luther: From Triumphalism to Murder written by David Turner and published June 2013 in the Jerusalem Post. The scriptural argument is provided in Pamphlet No.2 Mankind's Final Test of Reason; built around forged Judaic scripture to create a narrative.

Trinitarians who created a polytheistic divinity and a monotheistic Satan need not lament the loss of a theology neither Thomas Jefferson nor Sir Isaac Newton could accept; a theology that suited the early church but at the same time provided theological and historical context challenging the Gospel of John; revealing it to be a an anti-Semitic writing...that from the first words is incompatible with both prophesy and science.

Those words, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God" is taken to mean Jesus was there and integral to creation...which is incompatible with Yeshua the human being that Paul championed and breaks the critical line from David to his mother Mary. It is perplexing and counterintuitive for Trinitarians to think Jesus as God is necessary to validate his ministry and yet they would be half right and Jefferson half wrong; Yeshua was both human and divine.

Only humans can deny what they know to be fact to create a narrative i.e. God crafted DNA to join with that of Mary to birth "as a son" Yeshua according to prophesy...entangled in a way that allowed for the God's essence, knowledge and power to be conveyed to Yeshua in an earthly manner as he himself made clear many times.

In the 300 years between Yeshua's crucifixion in 26AD and Arian dispute which resulted in the First Council of Nicaea in 325AD, Christianity was considered a Jewish sect...and with certitude that which divides is no longer tenable; JudeoChristianity now has meaning far beyond a civil religion and ethic. JudeoChristians are Jews of the lesser House of Judah and prophesy of Zechariah 12:1-9 is quite clear as to the realization in the end of days.

"The prophecy of the word of the Lord concerning Israel: Says the Lord, Who stretches out the heavens and founds the earth and forms the spirit of man within him: Behold! I am making Jerusalem a cup of weakness for all the peoples around, and also on Judah, [that he] shall be in the siege against Jerusalem. And it shall come to pass on that day that I will make Jerusalem a stone of burden for all peoples; all who bear it shall be gashed, and all the nations of the earth shall gather about it....And the princes of Judah shall say to themselves, "The inhabitants of Jerusalem were my strength through the Lord of Hosts, their God." On that day I will make the princes of Judah as a fiery stove among wood, and as a brand of fire among sheaves. And they shall consume on the right and on the left all the nations round about, and Jerusalem shall still stay in its place in Jerusalem...And it shall come to pass on that day that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come upon Jerusalem."

Is there any doubt that with Marxianity weakening the churches and becoming more anti-Semitic every day the House of Judah is in siege against Israel? Is there any doubt all the nations of the earth have gathered about it? Is there any doubt the one common feature of three evils identified in the Convergence Matrix, Trinitarian theology, Islam and Marxism is supersessionism i.e. the moral law of Sinai is no longer relevant?

It goes to the only reference in Judaic scripture that refers to a "new covenant".

"Behold, days are coming, says the Lord, and I will form a covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah, a new covenant. Not like the covenant that I formed with their forefathers on the day I took them by the hand to take them out of the land of Egypt, that they broke My covenant, although I was a lord over them, says the Lord. For this is the covenant that I will form with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will place My law in their midst and I will inscribe it upon their hearts, and I will be their G<sup>d</sup> and they shall be My people."

Compare the Hebrew translation to those taken from the Christian NIV: "The days are coming," declares the LORD, "when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to lead them out of Egypt, because they broke my covenant, though I was a husband to them," declares the LORD."

Yeshua delivered an amended Sinai covenant to the Jews releasing them from the strict dietary, civil and temple laws to prepare them for the fall of the 2nd Temple and new covenant for gentiles...obvious had the early church not rewritten Jeremiah 31:30-32. The moral law of Sinai is still being enforced and as such the abomination that is the alphabet of sexual perversion and gender identity advocated by Marxianity violates the "Laws of Nature and of Nature's God". Every church and every individual advancing the abomination under the banner of forever unconditional forgiveness, diversity, inclusion and equity are tares facing certain judgment...and those churches displaying a rainbow flag should remember pride is a sin and the appropriated rainbow signifies God's promise.

An intellectualized secular humanist moral code has resulted in a growing hostility to traditional religious beliefs over the span of 150 years. It is false religion dominated by those who reject that which cannot be seen directly; the idea of a transcendent God and ascendance to a higher plane of existence. The Convergence Matrix poses an existential threat to Marxianity given the hand of God is self-evident in the history Marxians seek to destroy and said history evidences a clear path to ascendance.

Marxianity knows full well they have hit the wall of American JudeoChristianity both Marx and Gramsci knew would be the final obstacle and they are intent upon sealing their deal with Satan while they have control of the White House and Congress; Marxians are inverting reality...there is no recession, the border is closed, a man can claim to be a woman and it is so, a SCOTUS nominee cannot define what a woman is, black is white, up is down, right is wrong, truth is subjective...and the cardinal sin of pride is celebrated by old men parading nude in front of children and the likes of Christina Aguilera wearing green bejeweled penis/testicles strap on for LA Pride.

Far too many churches have rejected the sacred and embraced a human philosophy that rejects transcendence in favor of an entirely earthly worldview of social justice best advanced by political alliances. The failure of religious institutions to speak as one voice with a common foundation has resulted in the fragmentation of western societies and a degree on nihilism unseen in history; a spiritual void was created and all too often the dark hole was filled with monsters none recognized until after they had killed upwards of 200 million people.

The primary vehicle of the radical departure from societal morality came onto the scene with Herbert Marcuse and the most successful neo-Marxist national liberation movement in history; the sexual revolution. Since the 1960s divorce rates and single parent households skyrocketed and the patriarchal family came under assault. The damage is almost complete given the traditional American rugged individualism has been replaced by the licentious individualism of sexual identity. Rejection of past history and moral tradition is a recipe for revolution.

Totalitarianism begins in contempt for what you have. The second step is the notion: "Things must change—no matter how. Anything is better than what we have." Hannah Arendt

Since the French Revolution all of western civilization has endured an undercurrent of ideological revolution and the idea humans could create heaven on earth; a utopian dream that has empowered tyrannical revolutionaries such as the Bolsheviks, Fascists and Nazis led by monsters such as Hitler, Stalin and Mao. The various roads they took all led to graveyards and yet the dream lives on for those without a moral compass and rudder; a majority of young Americans have a favorable opinion of socialism.

Each of the monsters in their own turn adopted a scorched earth approach to traditions, history, values, ethics, social constructs and religion in a purely political version of Schumpeter's gale; the idea of creative destruction that originated with Karl Marx. A holy war is now engaged pitting Marxianity against those who adhere to the "Laws of Nature and of Nature's God" and true to historical form, when religious conflict best describes the conflict "iconoclasm" comes to the fore...and reveals those who thought the George Floyd riots noble and justified for the Marxians they are.

i-con-o-clasm/i'känə.klazəm/ noun

1. Attacking or assertively rejecting cherished beliefs and institutions or established values and practices.
2. Rejection or destruction of religious images as heretical; the doctrine of iconoclasts

Marxian true believers will not stop with the burning of cities and the destruction of monuments; Marxians have no use for tolerance, debate and eventual coexistence with the opposition. Future actions will range from petty pour épater la bourgeoisie attacks on sensibilities to the destruction the Smithsonian if they succeed in replacing the Constitution in that the goal is to erase all physical evidence of opposing viewpoints and realities. The false religion will use the black subculture and the lumpen proletariat, e.g. Antifa, as foot soldiers and cannon fodder in the inevitable violent revolution. Fools that hate so much they don't know or don't care they are being used.

"The ideal subject of totalitarian rule is not the convinced Nazi or the convinced Communist, but people for whom the distinction between fact and fiction (i.e., the reality of experience) and the distinction between true and false (i.e., the standards of thought) no longer exist."

Hannah Arendt

The United States is now ruled by those who literally hate the founding documents, ideals, Christian morality, traditions, guaranteed liberties and the race of the majority i.e. most public and private institutions, a growing number of corporations and an academy less interested in information than keeping the young in formation. They are either actively involved or supportive of a strategy designed to compound racial hatred, denigrate religion, indoctrinate the young and undermine the stone foundations hewn at Sinai. Progressives, nee liberals nee Democrats lead the effort while small 'r' republicans cower in fear of being labeled any number of useful and every changing "phobias"; unwilling to defend America's traditions. Planned Chaos from Pamphlet No.4:

At the most fundamental level one must come to accept Marxians have strategy that can be encapsulated into one of the favorite slogans of their lumpen proletariat; "become ungovernable". Americans need only recognize that neo-Marxists went on the offensive in the 1960's when the Civil Rights Movement was redefined as the seminal event in American history and the sexual revolution was initiated; a holy war declared by Marxianity.

Y'all not tired yet? Is far more than spray painted graffiti defacing the WWII Memorial; it is a strategy Ludwig von Mises deemed Planned Chaos... disrupt, disturb, dislocate, distract, destroy, disorder, dislodge, demean, displace, damage, devalue, diminish and degrade every aspect of the Judeo-Christian American culture while disparaging its history...discord until dissatisfied Americans come to believe the Constitution is dead and in need of replacement with a social justice blank check.

"The organizer...must first rub raw the resentments of the people of the community; fan the latent hostilities of many of the people to the point of overt expression. He must search out controversy and issues; rather than avoid them...an organizer must stir up dissatisfaction and discontent; provide a channel into which people can angrily pour their frustrations...your function...agitate to the point of conflict" Saul Alinsky, Rules for Radicals

Marxianity, nee progressivism, is a religion; expanded upon in an article titled Rothbard vs. the Religion of Progressivism by Joseph T. Salerno for the Mises Institute June 8, 2022.

---The core belief of progressives is the myth that history is an inevitable progress toward an egalitarian socialist state. Unlike traditional Marxists, however, progressives believe that history unfolds not through class struggle and bloody revolution but through the relentless march of democracy. A further departure from orthodox Marxism, as Rothbard points out, is that modern progressives have come to "realize that it is far better for the socialist State to retain the capitalists and a truncated market economy, to be regulated, confined, controlled, and subject to the commands of the State." The progressive vision is "not 'class war' but a kind of 'class harmony,' in which the capitalists and market are forced to work and slave for the good of 'society' and of the parasitic State apparatus." (fascism)

Despite these superficial deviations, progressives are Marxist to the core because they fervently believe in the Enlightenment myth of inevitable progress toward an ideal society. Therefore, as Rothbard points out, progressivism is "'religion' in the deepest sense, held on faith: the view that the inevitable goal of history is a perfect world, an egalitarian socialist world, a Kingdom of God on Earth." And because progressivism is a religion, it will take what Rothbard calls a "religious war" to combat and defeat it once and for all. Not only must the war against progressivism be fought with a religious fervor, but it must also be, in Rothbard's words, "openly and gloriously reactionary." In other words, it must aim at taking back or recovering what has been stolen. The oppressed and exploited will not storm the barricades to take back "liberty" or the "free market" in the abstract, but they will fight to recover the visible, concrete fruits of liberty and a free economy. They want their schools, movies, workplaces, and urban downtowns back. The war of reaction must, therefore, involve a broad-based and unrelenting attack on all progressive doctrines, not only economic and political but also cultural, educational, religious, linguistic, therapeutic, biological, etc. All political and social norms and taboos inflicted on society by progressives must be ruthlessly exposed and ridiculed, and mercilessly crushed. The leftist long march through institutions must not only be turned back but turned into a full-on rout. The Great Reaction must completely displace the Great Reset and cast progressivism into the dustbin of history--- (end excerpt)

Massive retaliation is a far better description than The Great Reaction in that there is no room for negotiation with a focused and highly organized enemy... the false religion of human intellectual arrogance Marxianity. It can be said what is being witnessed by western civilization is the first top down Marxist revolution; carefully crafted by intellectual elites and set in motion over 100 years ago with the impetus provided by the first university professor to occupy the White House and finalized by the last, Obama, who weaponized the agencies of the federal government with the introduction of Critical Race Theory.

Those elites will have no choice but to sit back and watch as Marxian social constructs are torn to shreds by a now evidenced God of Abraham/Sinai, Yeshua and 1776 they have for years tried to put in a bottle as if He were a metaphysical genie. It begins with cutting up the race card after Marxians used it so often it has been declined by a God that does not recognize race per se but does emphasize greater and lesser peoples and cultures; the greater is to elevate, not rule over, the lesser with the 'prime directive' being never is the greater to be made less by contact with the lesser. The Sinai Torah was designed to create to most disciplined culture; Judaism.

"I will insist the Hebrews have [contributed] more to civilize men than any other nation. If I was an atheist and believed in blind eternal fate, I should still believe that fate had ordained the Jews to be the most essential instrument for civilizing the nations ... They are the most glorious nation that ever inhabited this Earth. The Romans and their empire were but a bubble in comparison to the Jews. They have given religion to three-quarters of the globe and have influenced the affairs of mankind more and more happily than any other nation, ancient or modern." John Adams, in a letter to F. A. Van der Kemp, 1808

One will have to set aside a human worldview gain the higher vantage where god exists to understand history in the last days in the context of a plan for human ascendance nearing its end; a plan being threatened by three distinct groups of people: 1) blacks in America who identify as black before American after failing to recognize a blessing with precedence in Judaic history, 2) illegal Hispanic migrants, and 3) Islamic migrants to Europe. None should be where they should not be in 2026 in that the fiction that is Marxian multiculturalism is actually the premise destroying the object writ large; cultures a thousand years in the making will be restored and only those who embrace a Constitution that created a nation of all nations will remain in America.

And then there is the alphabet of sexual preference/perversion that along with gender identity is in violation of the "Laws of Nature and of Nature's God"; destroying the fabric of JudeoChristian America...God's country. The moral law of Sinai is still in force and regardless of what anybody may say Leviticus 20:13 and Deuteronomy 22:5 apply.

"And a man who lies with a male as one would with a woman both of them have committed an abomination; they shall surely be put to death; their blood is upon themselves."

"A man's attire shall not be on a woman, nor may a man wear a woman's garment because whoever does these [things] is an abomination to the Lord, your God."

America took a hard left turn with “gay” marriage” and then gender identity as a civil rights issue but now, with the existence of God no longer debatable, the line dividing is clear; “gender affirming” care that includes drugs and surgeries developed by human intellect and the teaching of sexuality and gender identity to those under age 13, the 7th grade, is an affront to a God that set age 13 as the age when a boy should “Strengthen yourself and become a man.” Common sense advises 13 is the age parents begin conversations about life choices.

The law cannot afford to be imprecise and as such the age of majority, when someone can sign a contract, is 18 and that is the age when an individual can risk permanent sexual dysfunction and infertility pursuing martyrdom to please Marxian ideology...not before. Unfortunately, after Obergefell v. Hodges as to “gay” marriage and the more recent Bostock v. Clayton County as to gender, federal coercion is Marxianity’s preferred means.

On June 15, 2022, Biden issued an executive order ostensibly to defend the alphabet of sexual perversion community including attacking conversion therapy which the order describes as “efforts to suppress or change an individual’s sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression” i.e. a “harmful” and “discredited practice that research indicates can cause significant harm, including higher suicide rates...”

In the April 7, 2022 White House briefing by Press Secretary Jen Psaki she warned legislators contemplating “...discriminatory bills have been put on notice by the Department of Justice and the Department of Health and Human Services that laws and policies preventing care that healthcare professionals recommend for transgender minors may violate the Constitution and federal law.”

“To be clear, every major medical association agrees that gender-affirming health care for transgender kids is a best practice and potentially life-saving”

That no doubt came as a surprise to the authors of Reconsidering Informed Consent for Trans-Identified Children, Adolescents, and Young Adults written by Stephen B. Levine, E. Abbruzzese and Julia W. Mason for the Journal of Sex & Marital Therapy which makes clear there is no scientific proof so called “gender-affirming health care” improves the mental health long-term let alone being “life-saving”. What it does prove is that the medical establishment has given over to agenda driven Lysenkoism:

Lysenkoism: In modern usage, the term Lysenkoism has become distinct from normal pseudoscience. Where pseudoscience pretends to be science, Lysenkoism aims at attacking the legitimacy of science itself, usually for political reasons. It is the rejection of the universality of scientific truth, and the deliberate defamation of the scientific method to the level of politics.

The authors conclude: “The evidence underlying the practice of pediatric gender transition is widely recognized to be of very low quality.” It is for that reason gender clinics in Sweden, Finland, France and most recently the United Kingdom have curtailed treatments in lieu of reevaluation.

The madness that surrounds whether black crime as a vocation, the alphabet of sexual perversion or gender can be traced back to "the road to hell is paved with good intentions"; the Civil Rights Act of 1964 which along with an every expanding definition of the 14th Amendment Equal Protection Clause has been used as a cudgel by the false religion of human intellectual arrogance Marxianity to achieve in court what they cannot democratically and legislatively e.g. Proposition 22 in 2000 and Proposition 8 in 2008 which California voters passed to ban same-sex marriage where overturned as unconstitutional.

Gender identity is a relatively new phenomenon and found its judicial impetus in Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 via the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC); a federal agency that was established to administer and enforce civil rights laws against workplace discrimination codified at 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-2(a)(1), which states that it is illegal to discriminate in hiring or employment practices based on an "individual's race, color, religion, sex, or national origin". The Obama EEOC filed its first test cases in federal court arguing that sexual orientation is protected by Title VII in 2016.

Gender identity as a protected class culminated with a landmark 2020 decision in Bostock v. Clayton County wherein Justices Roberts and Gorsuch joined the Marxian Justices in an all too familiar display of Thurgood Marshall's "Do what you think is right and let the law catch up" captured in the majority opinion written by Justice Gorsuch... "it is impossible to discriminate against a person for being homosexual or transgender without discriminating against that individual based on sex." It was a decision that made no distinction between biological sex and sexual preference and as such violated the "Laws of Nature and of Nature's God"; a failure which has resulted in trans women using girls bathrooms, impregnating female prison inmates and males competing against females in sports backed by the coercive power of the state.

Justice Alito wrote scathing dissent writing "Many will applaud today's decision because they agree on policy grounds with the Court's updating of Title VII. But the question in these cases is not whether discrimination because of sexual orientation or gender identity should be outlawed. The question is whether Congress did that in 1964. It indisputably did not...even if discrimination based on sexual orientation or gender identity could be squeezed into some arcane understanding of sex discrimination, the context in which Title VII was enacted would tell us that this is not what the statute's terms were understood to mean at that time.

"Shades of Dobbs was written into Justice Kavanaugh separate dissent which said the issue was one that should rightly be decided by legislators not the court which Alito directly addressed writing in his dissent "There is only one word for what the Court has done today: legislation. The document that the Court releases is in the form of a judicial opinion interpreting a statute, but that is deceptive ... A more brazen abuse of our authority to interpret statutes is hard to recall. The Court tries to convince readers that it is merely enforcing the terms of the statute, but that is preposterous" attacking the Marshall theory which would have the court 'update' old statutes so that they better reflect the current values of society."

Shades of Dobbs, Gorsuch addressed concerns the judgment might set a precedent that would force gender equality on traditional practices. "They say sex-segregated bathrooms, locker rooms, and dress codes will prove unsustainable after our decision today but none of these other laws are before us; we have not had the benefit of adversarial testing about the meaning of their terms, and we do not prejudge any such question today."

But of course, when you give Marxians an inch they will take a mile e.g. Lia Thomas...and most recently an 80 year old grandmother barred from of all places a YMCA community pool in Washington states for complaining a biological male who identified as a woman was walking around nude in front of adolescent girls and watching as they changed into and out of their swim suits.

Shades of Dobbs...one can only pray a case goes before the Supreme Court that will make clear the distinction between biological sex and sexual preference in a decision that overturns Obergefell v. Hodges and Bostock v. Clayton County while there is still time avoid God's wrath. Doing so will have foundation given the Convergence Matrix and the three measures; the measure of all things, the "Laws of Nature and of Nature's God" and Sir Henry Sumner Maine's status versus contract society. The measures lend to the importance of the history and traditions cited in Hobbs...buttressed by God evidenced and the resurgence of Scottish Common Sense.

The subject of common sense is critically important given Americans are being forced to Believing What No One Has Ever Believed Before...What abandoning common sense has done to America by the Claremont Institute's Robert Curry. The following is an excerpt from the must read article:

It is not the sort of thing we expect from a Harvard professor. That makes it all the more amazing. True, he was standing at the edge of a kind of precipice. America's long fall away from the way of thinking that had made America stretched out before him. In any event, he somehow managed to see far, far into America's future.

Over a century ago, a Harvard professor of philosophy coined the phrase that describes our time. In his book Present Philosophical Tendencies (1912), Professor Ralph Barton Perry foresaw a time when people would too easily believe "what no one has ever believed before."

Today, we are inundated with examples of people believing—or at least claiming to believe—what no one has ever believed before. There is the belief that a man who "identifies" as a woman must be allowed access to facilities which have always been reserved for women and girls. There is the belief that a man can have a "wife" who is a man. We are told we must stop designating a newborn as either male or female; a child must be allowed to discover which of the ever-increasing number of "genders" (67 when I last looked and surely more by now) it identifies with. The list of examples goes on and on.

Perry knew that American thinkers in his time were in the process of abandoning common sense. By pondering that fact, he came to understand what abandoning common sense was going to do to America

Every issues is best approached with simple common sense in the context of an extant God of Abraham/Sinai, Yeshua and 1776 with guidance from Thomas Jefferson; prophet of governance.

Scottish Common Sense and Certitude; Order from Planned Chaos

"Common sense [is] the foundation of all authorities, of the laws themselves, and of their construction."
Thomas Jefferson: Batture at New Orleans, 1812

Reasoned common sense inextricably bound to the "Laws of Nature and of Nature's God" in the context of an extant Creator was Jefferson's religion; Scottish Common Sense championed by the Reverend Thomas Reid (1710-1796) and perhaps Scotland's greatest gift to the founding of the United States was a philosophy that would distinguish American political philosophers from the secularism of Hume, Rousseau and Voltaire.

The Scottish Common Sense philosophy was virtually infused within the Judeo-Christian civil religion of the United States and endures despite secular intellectualism as exemplified by the issue of gender identity; common sense and fair play scream out biological males competing against females and using the same showers because they have an idea in their head they are females doesn't make sense...but intellectual elites hearkening to Hume distort the law of nature to force the unnatural upon Americans.

Reid, and Jefferson, held that individuals were bound to and guided by natural law while Hume et al held that knowledge of the external world was merely perceptions of the mind, hence choice of gender is all in the mind therefore one can ignore the genitals one is born with. The same mindset applies to homosexuality and when pressed to the logical extreme has drag queens reading books to children and sexually explicit books on the shelves of school and public libraries. One need only gain the political power to force the unreasonable deviation from natural law upon society by labeling it 'love' and common sense be damned...but the existence of the God of Sinai changes the equation; the moral law of Sinai as amended by Yeshua is nonnegotiable.

As amended is common sense; homosexuality is an abomination that has divided and disrupted society in equal measure to abortion...with the choice, their blood, a personal one between each individual and God. The same applies to gender identity for the same reason; the moral stability of cultures is of primary importance and an offense against a child, confusion, is an offense against God directly.

"Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. For truly, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not an iota, not a dot, will pass from the Law until all is accomplished." Matthew 5:17-18

The central tenets of Scottish Common Sense aligns with that of the emissary as it concerns sentience which holds that every individual is imbued by the Creator with a moral sense of right and wrong with guidance provided by a scale that weighs heavy on the mind...subject to reasoned calculation. As it concerns the areas of social interaction that define society led by morality, economics, law, governance and education there are common sense principles balanced on the scale of the conscious mind requiring calculation; the unrecognized but requisite facet of sentience.

Scottish Common Sense concedes no conflict between reason and revelation in that both originate with a Creator evidenced by reason alone and entirely subject to a calculation of probabilities mathematics. One aspect of Reid's Scottish Common Sense will ring true to average people who reject postmodernist intellectualism and the aggressive nature of the self-validating Marxian rank and file who claim an inordinate degree of perceived intellectual superiority; Reid and Jefferson both insisted commonly used language, that of the ploughman, could convey complex philosophical principles far better than intellectual tomes ergo common sense is better able to shape philosophy as opposed to philosophy shaping common sense.

Two expressions of Scottish Common Sense were critical to the founding and the westward expansion of the United States; the Black Robe Regiment and the Scots Irish themselves. The history of westward expansion by the Scots Irish is well documented and worth the time but there may be no better example of the fierce independence and resolve of the Scots Irish than the Battle of King's Mountain which forced Cornwallis to abandon the idea of controlling the hinterlands of the Appalachia; sending his army north to Yorktown.

American culture is still infused with Scottish Common Sense; lying dormant in the face of government coercion waiting for the appointed time which is now. The evidenced existence of God changes every equation and it can expected there will be millions seeking understanding, meaning and purpose but where do they go if not the churches? The difference between now and the revolutionary war period goes to the centrality of the church to far flung communities; the churches taught the people how to conduct themselves and the people were obliged to meet the standard. Furthermore, the churches were centers of learning and the topics for discussion ranged from faith to family to political issues...which gave rise to the Black Robe Regiment.

The Black Robe Regiment

It can be said the Black Robe Regiment of outspoken clergy can trace its roots to the teachings of John Knox and John Locke; clergy that successfully infused Protestant Christianity into the American Revolution by aggressively articulating from the pulpit the concepts of liberty, the vote and consensual self-government. There were some critical traditions that can be traced directly to Knox including the recognition of unalienable rights bequeathed by God to which all owe primary allegiance and the vote exercised by congregants to extend consent.

The Black Robe Regiment must rise again under the banner of One Faith-One Voice for very good reason:

"It is customary to blame secular science and anti-religious philosophy for the eclipse of religion in modern society. It would be more honest to blame religion for its own defeats. Religion declined not because it was refuted, but because it became irrelevant, dull, oppressive, insipid. When faith is completely replaced by creed, worship by discipline, love by habit; when the crisis of today is ignored because of the splendor of the past; when faith becomes an heirloom rather than a living fountain; when religion speaks only in the name of authority rather than with the voice of compassion--its message becomes meaningless."

Abraham Joshua Heschel, God in Search of Man: A Philosophy of Judaism

The compassion is not that which tolerates the alphabet of sexual perversion, transgenderism or the destruction of family and history that defines Marxianity, but rather a pedagogic compassion designed to teach the young that will fill the pews with common sense approaches to deal with the reality of evil incarnate and an extant God. The first compassion is unmoored from reason while the second must be designed to provide a worldview tightly bound to the reality of an extant God extending the Black Robe Regiment the authority, responsibility, to do so. One can extend compassion but only within the guardrails of certitude which demands righteousness; being right with God which includes conduct befitting of an individual who realizes God is always watching and will not tolerate compromise or association with that which He has deemed an abomination.

"I urge you, brothers and sisters, to keep an eye on those who cause dissensions and offenses, in opposition to the teaching that you have learned; avoid them" Romans 16:17

It is incomprehensible that churches would compromise with an ideology that openly seeks the destruction of traditional religion; Christianity in particular. Like average Americans the churches will have to decide between God and a regime making it quite clear the end game is in play; a two tier injustice system is persecuting the political opposition and prosecuting hundreds of people for trespass and parading in an "insurrection" that was not...while applauding those who did over $2B damage but faced few prosecutions.

The creation of the United States was a direct intervention to provide mankind instruction as to governance and the founding documents boast a foundation hewn from Sinai stone. And now the churches have certitude two steps above mere belief and one step above abiding faith; not a religion but rather a state of mind requiring the higher vantage where the world is viewed through the eyes of a God who has extended the opportunity for human beings to look behind His eyes to see what He is thinking.

He is thinking the churches set aside differences, reconstitute the Black Robe Regiment to confront Marxianity from the pulpit; speak as One Faith-One Voice...and become centers of learning for the young that will fill the pews. How do I know?

Embracing the Convergence Matrix as a message written across the tablet of time allows one to see what others cannot...I publically recognized the significance of the July 4th 2019 California earthquake sequence and then went on to accurately predict three earthquakes and the Canadian Omega dome.

I know that He Who Is will soon write very clear messages in the ink of natural phenomenon to make clear He is fully engaged and He will not spare churches refusing to read His messages. Scottish Common Sense screams out that what is being witnessed, the almost complete control of government and popular culture by Marxians, is as was foretold 2000 years past; evil has been given full reign before God crushes them to make a point.

"This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good; Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away. For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts. Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth."
2 Timothy 3: 1-7 KJV

Recently Great Britain announced that for the first time since records began in the 19th century more babies were born to single women than married. How difficult would it be to start the process of fusing the absolutes of an extant God with Scottish Common Sense by actually teaching JudeoChristian scriptures about marriage along with what Ron Haskins and Isabel Sawhill of the Brookings Institution termed the "success sequence"? Three simple rules that if followed only 2% would end up in poverty...young people should graduate with a high school degree, find steady work and marry before having children are 98% more likely to be financially secure thus avoiding poverty.

This from an article titled Quo Vadis, America? by Rod Dreher for the American Conservative July 4th 2022:

I talked about going to a conservative Evangelical college a few years back, and hearing from professors there that they feared most of their students would never be able to form stable families, because so many of them had never seen what that's like...

Eli Finkel, a psychologist and marriage scholar at Northwestern University, has argued that since the 1960s, the dominant family culture has been the "self-expressive marriage." "Americans," he has written, "now look to marriage increasingly for self-discovery, self-esteem and personal growth." Existential Marriage, according to the sociologists Kathryn Edin and Maria Kefalas, "is no longer primarily about childbearing and childrearing. Now marriage is primarily about adult fulfillment." Sex is also primarily about individual fulfillment — and maybe solely about individual fulfillment. Young people today see no connection between sex, family, and a greater purpose.

Of all of the institutions human beings have created, marriage is by far the most important as to insuring a robust society and by extension an enduring civilization into the future. For 350 years home and hearth were the most important features of American society; second only to the personal responsibility and obligation owed to God. Since the start of the sexual revolution and the attendant prioritization of personal sexual gratification western society and civilization has been in decline and now stands on the edge of a precipice given tolerance for homosexuality and the idea gender is fluid.

Before the sexual revolution society and cultural institutions were structured to support the family unit as were the laws. After the sexual revolution and the advent of Marxianity, popular culture and politics did little more than provide token support for families as the patriarchy was targeted for destruction as was God. Americans and western civilization rejected then forgot the transcendent nature of marriage and sex within marriage that bound families and society together. Within ten years no fault divorce and abortion removed the last barriers to a hedonistic lifestyle focused on self-gratification; license rather than liberty and America slips away.

The success sequence should be posted in every high school alongside the founding documents and the Ten Commandments now that the God of Abraham/Sinai, Yeshua and 1776 can be taught as history. Public schools stopped teaching civics in the 70s and because time is short it is up to churches to fill the gap in an alliance with the Heritage Foundation, Hillsdale College and the Claremont Institute. With the Convergence Matrix proving the United States and its founding documents bear the personal imprimatur of God the Johnson Amendment is a moot issue and dead for all intents and purposes; the pulpit will have no restraints as to subject matter.

According to the IRS churches, and other nonprofits, exempt from taxation "are absolutely prohibited from directly or indirectly participating in, or intervening in, any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for elective public office"; shepherds cannot endorse candidates, collect contributions for campaigns or make statements for or against candidates. However, shepherds are free to speak to specific political, social and cultural issues...including nonpartisan citizen education.

Marxianity conjured up the concept of intersectionality wherein different tribes are oppressed when any one is oppressed which assumes the United States is systemically racist, whites are the oppressors exerting white privilege whether they know it or not...and Constitution is irredeemably flawed. The matrices have a far more coherent intersectionality in that Marxism is specifically identified as evil incarnate ergo shepherds are not only free but obligated to preach against the false religion. The same applies to Shia Islam...on the far side of the Euphrates per Genesis 15:18. And finally, there is an arguably Marxist Pope who said "Who am I to judge?" as to homosexuality. The Black Robe Regiment need only consider the power of certitude applied to divisive issues.

Recall the executive order in re conversion therapy? This is an excerpt from an Epoch Times article titled Biden's LGBTQI+ Executive Order Seen by Some as an Attack on Civil Rights:

Brothers Road is a Virginia peer support fellowship made up primarily of men seeking to align their sexual thoughts, feelings, and behaviors with their personal values, beliefs, faith, commitments, and life goals.

Rick Wyler, the group's founder, told The Epoch Times, "Many of us have been harmed, sometimes deeply, by therapists who demand that we embrace a gay identity and engage in gay relationships as, supposedly, the only possible path to peace, even if doing so would mean leaving otherwise satisfying marriages or cutting ourselves off from faith communities, beliefs, and traditions that we greatly value"

With the existence of God and certain judgment in less than four years a matter of certitude those who violate the "Laws of Nature and of Nature's God" have some serious thinking to do about a vastly expanded definition of "conversion therapy". The article goes on:

Elizabeth Woning of California is a co-founder of the Changed Movement, an international network of people who no longer identify as LGBT.

Woning told The Epoch Times, "So-called 'conversion therapy' is a pejorative phrase that is being used to promote state-sanctioned viewpoint discrimination. LGBTQ-identifying people deserve the right to follow their conscience, even when it means receiving support to diminish unwanted sexual feelings.

"Such bans dramatically oversimplify the lived experience of anyone who identifies as LGBTQ. They offer only one route for people to follow, no matter their faith or conscience.

"And so, anyone who doesn't endorse Gay Pride for their own life is disallowed counseling that addresses trauma and emotional distress related to their sexual identity," she said.

"The ultimate goal of this movement is to prohibit change-exploring therapies and counsel, and to abolish the Judeo-Christian ethic regarding human sexuality, and even the very understanding of God"

The very understanding of God is now subject to reason rather than belief or faith alone; an understanding with definition as never before and measures to be used by the Black Robe Regiment when the pews fill with people seeking a shared understanding of basics like the bridge between Christianity and Judaism built by Paul...as exemplified by abortion.

Any abortion is an anathema to God but He is just; there are 60 million tiny souls God is showering with love. A pregnancy resulting from incest or rape represents burden that cannot and should not be borne by the victim ergo an abortion is reasonable and logical in the context of a God who will place the burden on the offender. As to saving a woman's life there can be no debate so long as the threat is physical rather than mental.

The states of Indiana passed an abortion ban that would serve very well as a template. Victims of rape or incest have ten weeks after conception. Endangerment of the mother's life and/or a fatal fetus diagnosis allows for an exception up to twenty weeks. Performance of abortions would be permitted in licensed hospitals or a satellite hospital facility only. A doctor who performs an illegal abortion or fails to file reports properly risks losing his or her medical license. Common sense would have the federal government providing subdermal birth control to women at no charge including those young women age 15 and older with parental consent.

There are solutions but they will require subduing or destroying the false religion Marxianity. I have spent years crafting solutions but I suffer no delusions; the solutions detailed in the Not Peace but the Sword trilogy and in part presented as pamphlets is just the beginning of the debates. At the same time, the churches should suffer no illusions as the scale of the challenges ahead...the Convergence Matrix is the most powerful weapon ever entrusted to those capable of rising above religion, gaining the higher vantage where God exists, to fill the pews in western civilization and preach the gospel to the entire world...and all the world will know Torah.

One Faith-One Voice to Create the JudeoChristianNation

Marxianity has chosen LGBT and gender as the hill they will die upon...and so too churches such as the not at all United Methodists who embrace abomination at the expense of both Christian and Judaic scripture.

"Or do you not know that wrongdoers will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: Neither the sexually immoral nor idolaters nor adulterers nor men who have sex with men nor thieves nor the greedy nor drunkards nor slanderers nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God." I Corinthians 6:9-10

Paul was for all intents and purposes describing far too many churches that have curated belief to conform to an utterly decadent culture created by Marxianity. Christians will have to come to realize the relationship intended by the God of Sinai and Yeshua; gentiles were adopted into the family born at Sinai...Yeshua's House of Judah and Jews of a lesser house. Family fighting for family is a powerful imperative and incentive to fight a war of mitzvot; מלחמת מצווה; a holy war sanctioned by HaShem...not because I say so, but because there is no other way to reasonably and objectively interpret the matrices.

Americans will rise as the JudeoChristianNation with a firm understanding of what "turning the other cheek" actually entails rather than what a church compromised by evil to create bleating sheep ready for the shear may say; one turns the cheek to a brother but a righteous individual does not take a blow meant to kill from an enemy of God without massive retaliation. The general prescription to love thy enemy does not translate to surrender...any more that the Constitution is a suicide note.

It is a Constitution that can now be proven empirically to bear the personal imprimatur of the God of Sinai as the third and last direct provision of instruction, Torah, after Sinai and Yeshua; governance for all mankind and all now know with certitude why the United States is exceptional.

The Constitution and the extraordinary group of men known collectively as the founders represent the apex of enlightened thinking; translating and incorporating the "Laws of Nature and of Nature's God" into governance intended for all mankind. The Constitution as a whole perfectly reflects the delicate balance of nature fully incorporating the "Laws of Nature and of Nature's God". The Constitution is far more than a mere echo of the Torah, but rather mirrors the law intended for all mankind at Sinai and amended by Yeshua; governance intended for the benefit of all mankind.

The words of Thomas Jefferson and John Adams have weight as never before and the idea Jefferson was a deist can be set aside once and for all; Jefferson was one half of the key and a prophet of governance and as such Jefferson Survives. Deeply consider the following words of Jefferson in the context of the impending confrontation and it should be apparent he was referring to this very moment in time in accord with his commission; the words are not merely prescient...the words are indeed prophetic:

"The people cannot be all, and always, well informed. The part which is wrong will be discontented in proportion to the importance of the facts they misconceive. If they remain quiet under such misconceptions it is a lethargy, the forerunner of death to the public liberty...what country can preserve its liberties if their rulers are not warned from time to time that their people preserve the spirit of resistance? Let them take arms. The remedy is to set them right as to facts, pardon and pacify them. What signify a few lives lost in a century or two? The tree of liberty must be refreshed from time to time with the blood of patriots and tyrants. It is its natural manure." Thomas Jefferson to William Smith, 1787

Jefferson placed great faith in a form of government wherein political power could peacefully transfer from one reasoned idea to another without bloodshed using the sword of the vote. On the other hand Yeshua warned the time would come when difficult choices would have to be made; purchase swords and make the difficult choices that would in the end divide friends, family, communities, towns, cities, counties, states and nations. All were warned there would come a day when choosing the God of Sinai would require taking up the sword and none should apologize for doing so.

This writing is a declaration of war in response to the holy war declared by the false religion Marxianity, and for the first time in history it can be said with confidence God is on the side of those who adhere to the "Laws of Nature and of Nature's God"; a war of mitzvot; מלחמת מצווה; a holy war sanctioned by HaShem just as He did with the first War of Independence. It is a necessary war to be fought against the shape shifting false religion Marxianity that begins by promising the heaven on earth every reasoned person knows never has and never will be delivered; a godless evil that has claimed the lives of 100 million in 100 years and will do so again if given the opportunity.

"Communism has never concealed the fact that it rejects all absolute concepts of morality. It scoffs at any consideration of "good" and "evil" as indisputable categories. Communism considers morality to be relative, to be a class matter. Depending upon circumstances and the political situation, any act, including murder, even the killing of thousands, could be good or could be bad."

Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn

Think...about the offer of peace with terms in the context of a Creator not wishing a single person to suffer needlessly; the argumentum a fortiori evidencing the existence of the God of Sinai presenting as pure reasoned intellect and power falls directly between religion and intellectual arrogance challenging both to reconsider what they know or thought they knew and find middle ground. It is imminently logical and reasonable a Creator willing to sacrifice the perfect human being Yeshua so as to create a true family of man would evidence His existence to a cynical world as such and then provide measures to facilitate the penultimate choice; reason rather than religious dogma or intellectualized rationalizations.

This may be your last opportunity to fulfill your commission...choose wisely.

"There is nothing that God has judged good for us that He has not given us the means to accomplish, both in the natural and moral world."

Edmund Burke
