Have you heard about the EMMCO West Critical Incident Stress Management Team?

Our regional CISM team was formed in 1988 and has helped hundreds of EMS agencies and EMS providers. The CISM team is comprised of peer and mental health representatives. Team members help EMS providers address their stress reactions due to a bad call or series of bad calls that have resulted in cumulative stress.

The CISM Team is available 24/7/365. Call 814-337-5380.

LEARN MORE

Here's what past participants have had to say about the EMMCO West Symposium

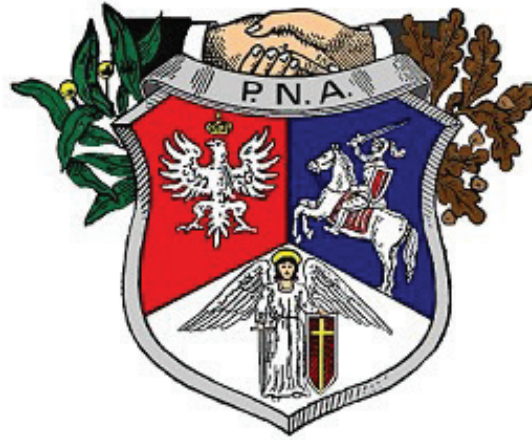

This training far surpassed any training or seminar I have attended. It was practical, engaging, and gave concrete things I could do to help my patients...

The hands—on labs were the best! The time we had to get specific questions answered was great. Nice to be able to really focus on what is needed to be done and be able to practice it.....

Great choice of mixing lecture and practical sessions.
Different new upcoming topics affecting EMS now, environmental, new equipment and response theories....
It's hard to pick one topic, as they were all good presentations. I enjoyed the entire day.

...All came into practice my first shift after the class...

GOALS & ETIQUETTE

GOALS:

- Offer a diversified educational experience, traditionally not available through local conference sponsors.
- Encourage EMS personnel to expand their knowledge of emergency medical care topics and issues.
- Create a forum for discussion and dialogue among EMS personnel, vendors, educators, medical professionals, guest speakers, and other personnel associated with EMS organizations.
- Offer an affordable educational conference that features renowned regional, state, national and international speakers.

ETIQUETTE:

- EMMCO West encourages all participants to enjoy themselves at the conference. Enjoy walking through the vendor areas and listening to our plethora of guest lecturers. A variety of activities are planned to allow you to relax with your EMS colleagues.
- As part of these activities, legal alcoholic beverages are often available. Anyone under the legal drinking age shall not be permitted to consume alcoholic beverages within any of the EMMCO West sponsored functions. The Ambassador Conference Center will enforce all applicable PA L.C.B. regulations, including photo ID verification.

The Ambassador does not permit outside alcoholic beverages to be brought into the Friday or Saturday night party.
