Bless Our Fathers / Tony Rossi

Heavenly Father,
today we ask You to bless our earthly fathers for the many times they reflected the love, strength, generosity, wisdom and mercy that You exemplify in Your relationship with us, Your children.

We honor our fathers for putting our needs above their own convenience and comfort; for teaching us to show courage and determination in the face of adversity; for challenging us to move beyond self-limiting boundaries; for modeling the qualities that would turn us into responsible, principled, caring adults.

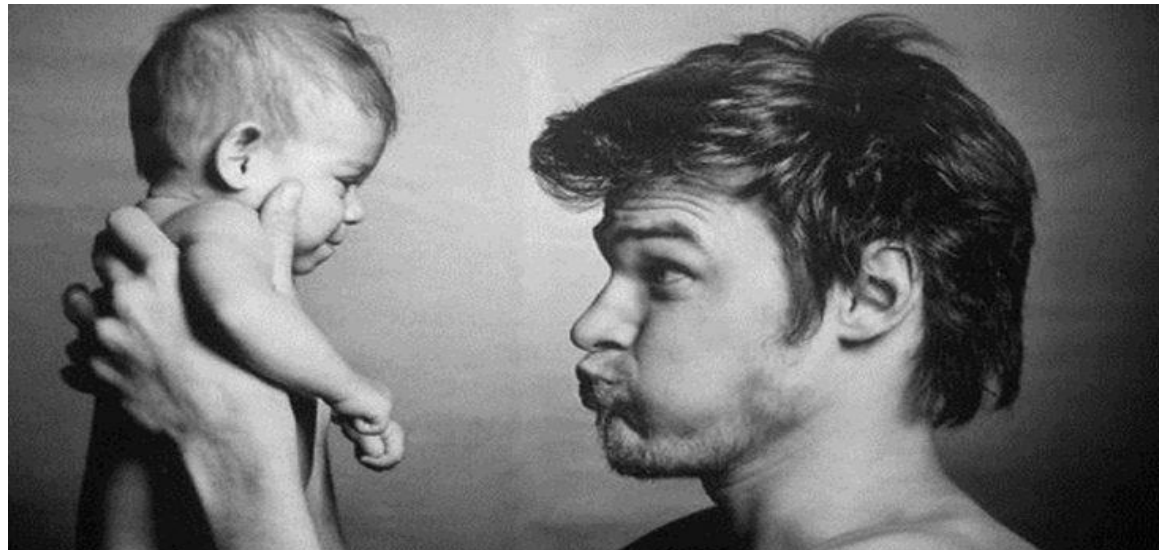

Not all our fathers lived up to these ideals. Give them the grace to acknowledge and learn from their mistakes. Give us the grace to extend to them the same forgiveness that you offer us all. Help us to resist the urge to stay stuck in past bitterness, instead, moving forward with humility and peace of heart.

We ask your blessing on those men who served as father figures in our lives when our biological fathers weren't able to do so. May the love and selflessness they showed us be returned to them in all their relationships, and help them to know that their influence has changed us for the better.

Give new and future fathers the guidance they need to raise happy and holy children, grounded in a love for God and other people - and remind these fathers that treating their wives with dignity, compassion and respect is one of the greatest gifts they can give their children.

We pray that our fathers who have passed into the next life have been welcomed into Your loving embrace, and that our family will one day be reunited in your heavenly kingdom.

In union with St. Joseph, whom you entrusted with Your Son, we ask Your generous blessings today and every day. AMEN

“Fear is only as deep as the mind allows.”
Japanese Proverb

“You can discover what your enemy fears most by observing the means he uses to frighten you.” Eric Hoffer

“If you are distressed by anything external, the pain is not due to the thing itself, but to your estimate of it; and this you have the power to revoke at any moment.”
Marcus Aurelius

Abraham Maslow is quoted as having said,
 “In any given moment, we have two options: to step forward into growth or to step back into safety.”
 Stepping back into safety can easily become a prison, while stepping into growth, becomes life unbridled.

 OPENING OF CHURCHES ***

We have received directives from the Diocese, that we are able to gather again as a faith community within our churches. This began Monday June 15th, celebrating weekday Mass. It is important to remain Safe, and to be Thoughtful.

There will be continued physical distancing protocols in place and the wearing of face masks at all masses. We require your willingness to help us to help you and others, remain safe and well.

This weekend, June 20th/21st will be the first weekend we will gather. We have the Saturday 4pm Mass, Sunday 9am Masses in Huntsville, and the Sunday 11am in Baysville.

Since we will not be able to gather in the same numbers, (more or less, 60, we have added one mass on the weekend, Sunday 4pm in Huntsville.

You will be asked to sign up for the Mass you will be attending for the near future. As well, temporarily, the Wednesday Noon Mass will be considered your Sunday Obligation.

We have temporarily removed the votive candles by the statues. One large candle will be lit for your personal intentions.

We will continue to keep you informed through emails, phone calls and updates to our bulletin and website. Thank you for your continued patience and faithfulness.

Overcoming Daily Fear - Divine Mercy

“When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat, and they began to be afraid. But he said to them, “It is I. Do not be afraid.” John 6:19-20

This very familiar phrase was spoken once again: “Do not be afraid.”

The setting is significant. It is dark and the Apostles are out to sea. If you’ve ever been out in the middle of the sea when it’s dark out you’d know that this is a bit frightening. You cannot see the land and you feel as though you are surrounded by nothing. The Apostles would have been feeling a bit lost as if they were in the middle of nowhere. But, in the midst of this experience, Jesus came walking to them and told them, “It is I. Do not be afraid.” This would have been quite consoling to them.

We must see in this experience of the Apostles the daily experience so many have. Many can feel as if they are surrounded by nothing, alone and lost. Sure, this may not be an overwhelming feeling for some, but it is all too often an experience many do have to one degree or another. This Gospel passage reveals to us that Jesus comes to us no matter where we are or whatever the situation is that we find ourselves in. He does not wait for us to come and find Him, rather, He enters into our lives right where we are.

This experience of being at sea in the dark comes in many forms. Perhaps your life is filled with activity, but you still feel alone. Perhaps your life is one where you do not have many around and feel the constant experience of isolation. Or perhaps you put on a good face and present yourself as one who has it all together, but inside you are deeply struggling. Whatever the case may be, Jesus wants to come to you and to console you.

Reflect, today, upon these words of Jesus. Listen to Him say to you, “It is I.” As you hear Him say these words, turn to Him and acknowledge His presence. Let Him come into the dark sea that you may feel surrounds you. Hear Him say, “Do not be afraid.” There are so many experiences in life that we can fear. So many times that fear can take hold of us. If we but let ourselves focus in on Jesus, the fear of our daily surroundings disappears. We discover, deep within, that Jesus is right there and that all is well because He cares and is in control. Let Him into the boat of your heart and let Him take over. He is coming to you and is waiting for a response.

Lord, so often I fail to acknowledge Your divine presence in my life. So often I fail to see you coming to me. Help me to know that You are always there. Free me from the many fears of life, dear Lord, and give me courage to welcome You fully into my life. Jesus, I trust in You.

Parish Meetings and Gatherings

For the time being, such gatherings will be put on hold until further notice. As we are coming into the summer months, many of our committees will be taking a break until September. One hopes we will be able to gather then, perhaps with greater spaces between us, but still together. If you do deem it essential to meet, then I ask you follow the same protocols that we have put in place regarding our gathering for Mass. Thank you.

garding our gathering for Mass. Thank you.

A Huge Note of Thanks to our CWL - many of our women in this group have been busy making face masks, for months now. They have been providing such masks to our greater community which is a wonderful sign of their genuine love for neighbor. It has come as an out of pocket expense to them, so if you can donate to their cause, much appreciated.
