GAUDATE SUNDAY

We are now very close to celebrating the Solemnity of the Lord's Nativity, Christmas Day, on December 25th. The Lord is very near and is coming quickly, as the Liturgy of the Church keeps reminding us. It is the recurring theme in the season of Advent.

The nearness of the Lord should be a comfort to all believers. The Redeemer of all people is coming, desiring that all of us partake of everlasting life. Christ our God came among us as a human being, toiling and suffering for us, sharing our existence to the full, showing us how to live and how to hand ourselves over in the service of God and neighbor.

The Lord calls us to give of ourselves, what Christ also called "losing oneself," in order to truly find oneself, whereby we attain complete fulfillment, realized in Christ who dwells in our hearts.

The Scripture readings assigned for the Third Sunday of Advent, when the vestment color changes, remind us of the Lord's nearness and how pleasant and rich the mystery of God's coming really is. The color assigned by the Church for today's liturgy is rose, recalling the fragrant offering we make to God and calling to mind what many consider to be the most fragrant of flowers, the rose.

Our Church in her liturgy wishes us to know that our God can be compared to the powerful beauty and fragrance of the rose. Of course, it is only a comparison, since our God transcends the beauty and goodness of all things.

However, it is such a great joy and privilege to be in this dynamic with our God. We ask with hope for the help of God, who has redeemed us in Jesus Christ. In serenity and patience, we are to hear God's voice calling out to us each day, to lose ourselves that we may be found doing God's work, that is, loving all and serving them without counting the cost. May the Eucharist, Holy Mass, where we commemorate the supreme sacrifice of God's love for us, in the suffering, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, help us know more profoundly God's great gifts and be more ready and willing to hand over our lives for love of God and others. We carry on in the season of Advent with gentle expectation of truly meeting the Lord who has loved us into being and who invites us to taste of immortality.

- Fr. Dominick

Parish Announcements

Restoration Appeal Building Update

Thank you to everyone who came to the Town Hall Meeting to hear first hand, the dilemma that we are facing with our moldy property! I understand that this was the largest crowd for a meeting in parish memory and it shows how much love and dedication everyone has for our parish. I can not thank you enough because I can not move forward without you.

The meeting was very long and concluded with a motion approved to renovate the existing rectory and not to purchase further property at this time. This week has been filled with conversations, meetings, emails and phone calls with parishioners full of gratitude for coordinating this huge unexpected project and wishing clarification on how they can help. This warms my heart so much! For now, my dear parishioners, I want to concentrate on the parish and the pastoral care of us all through the joy and peaceful season of Advent! I will coordinate with the Diocese to move this project forward and we pray everything will go as planned.

In the meantime we will raise the funds to do the work. And with this I trust you! I am inviting any parishioners with experience in fundraising to come forward to help us, by please contacting the office. Let us now focus now on celebrating the birth of Christ!
