SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT GLORIFYING GOD IN HIS MERCY

Although Advent is about meeting our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ in His glory, it is also about our preparedness and readiness in meeting with Christ.

Salvation is God's doing, and we cannot earn His blessings. We are saved by His grace. On the other hand, we must cooperate with God's grace because God can not force his bounty upon us without invalidating our free will. That is why John the Baptist in today's Gospel summons us to play our essential part by leading lives of repentance, conversion, and renewal, thus preparing the way for the Lord's second coming.

John the Baptist speaks of an 'axe' and a 'winnowing fork', rather than a sword, but the underlying message is the same: there will be a decision, we will be judged. The axe moreover speaks of punishment: 'Every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire' (Mt 3:10). The winnowing fork is more like the sword of decision and applies an objective standard (what has substance versus what is superfluous) to separate out the wheat from the chaff.

We must never forget that God's judgment is objective and perfectly fair. St Paul speaks of 'God's truthfulness' in Rom 15:8. This truthfulness of God gives us hope (Rom 15:4) and assures us that his offer of mercy is extended to everyone, including all the Gentiles (Rom 15:9). God himself is the standard of justice; his logos (word or reason) is the epitome of rational judgment. And the Logos became human in Christ (Jn 1:14).

In a traditional sculpture of Lady Justice, fairness is indicated by her being blindfolded. Perhaps this echoes what we just heard from the Prophet Isaiah, that the descendant of Jesse 'shall not judge by what his eyes see, or decide disputes by what his ears hear, but with righteousness he shall judge the poor, and decide with equity for the meek of the earth' (Is 11:3-4). In other words, the Messiah is not blinded by merely human appearances, but is enlightened by the Spirit of wisdom, understanding, counsel and knowledge. So we could say that God's justice is not blind, precisely because he sees with absolute clarity into the truth of our hearts. 'For the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God' (1 Cor 2:10).

This Advent, as we wake up again to the fact that we will be judged by God, we are emboldened by John the Baptist's preaching to face that winnowing fork – that sword of decision – and apply it already to ourselves. By God's Holy Spirit at work in us, we can 'prepare the way of the Lord' by starting that work of cutting out what is bad, to preserve and nurture what is good. Then we will be able, with St Paul, to 'glorify God for his mercy'.
