

For More Information Contact:

Steven Davenport

davenportforjudge@gmail.com

Davenport Seeks Conway County Judges Office

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(CONWAY COUNTY, ARKANSAS) Steven Davenport of Cleveland, Arkansas, has officially announced his candidacy for Conway County Judge in the March 3, 2026, election.

A graduate of Wonderview High School, Davenport brings more than 25 years of experience in the construction and mechanical industries. He has owned and operated multiple businesses, successfully managing employees and overseeing projects from start to finish. Davenport currently serves as Justice of the Peace for District 3 and is entering his fourth year on the Conway County Quorum Court.

In addition to his public service, Davenport serves as secretary/treasurer of his church, reflecting his commitment to service, accountability, and responsible leadership.

“My main goal as County Judge is to improve our county road infrastructure,” Davenport said. “The people of Conway County deserve transparency and efficiency in how their tax dollars are spent. We deserve to see those dollars put to work through real, measurable improvements to our roads so our quality of life is never impacted by concerns over road maintenance or safety.”

Davenport also outlined his priorities for public safety and essential services.

“My second priority is to ensure that our 911 communications center is fully funded and operating efficiently and reliably,” he said. “I will also continue to support the outstanding work of our local fire departments, hospital, and county library boards. Please visit electdavenport.com to see my goals when elected judge.”

Steven and his wife, Felicia, are members of New Liberty Church of Christ and have one daughter.

###