Autumn is the best time to charter!
Supply and Demand...

One of the most fundamental and key economic principals, can best be applied to the time in which you charter a boat,... In the Autumn season, when it's sweater weather, the palate for boating has somewhat lost it's luster to the 'masses'... Bring a blanket, and you'll discover little hot coco on the open water has the ideal juxtaposition for your Autumn recreation... Still not too cold to enjoy, this is an ideal time to charter,...

Prices can range from 20%-60% off high season summer rates since their slip fees don't change! That means a bigger boat, more time on the water, and more memories... Don't forget, the waterways will be less crowded too, a great opportunity to dolphin watch!

Grab your baguette and Go!
The florals this time of year, naturally rely on less sun to bloom, therefore florals tend to last longer in your indoor arrangements! Featuring warmer tones, your indoor florals will be a better deal to last longer this season and warm things up!

The Sun is still shining!
As the summer trends expire,... there are deals to be had! This includes great deals on sunglasses! These ManorandYacht gold ribboned sunglasses are a great example! 20% off at ManorAndYacht.com
