Hello Beautiful Peaches!

I am humbled at how the market is responding to Sunny Bleau and the Moons! My third release, Denver, came out on June 4th, and it landed us on over 40 playlists including our first country playlists! My production team and I try to create music that a variety of listener will appreciate. I think Denver, King of Hearts and He's my Peach, while all Pop-Blues, have branched off just enough to grab the attention of Rock and Country listeners. While impossible to please everyone, it's nice to know that the art we are creating is reaching listeners across multiple genres. My Producer, Nicholas Cocco, and Assistant Producer, Alex Karasinski, and incredible bandmates are to thank for the sound that is Sunny Bleau and the Moons.

I am so excited to announce my 4th single, Winning, is available and has been picked up on over 1000 radio stations Nation wide. It is also available on all major music platforms. You can get it on your favorite platform or visit sunnybleau.com for the links. Winning is a punchy, powerful song about a woman whose had enough. You can also listen to Sunny Bleau and the Moons on Sirius XM! I also have my own channel on VEVO where you'll be able to watch all my music videos like King of Hearts and Denver (coming on Friday!).

This past weekend The Moons and I got in our tour bus and headed down to Wolfstock in Barbourville, KY. We spent time jamming with some amazing musicians and meeting lots of Michiganders. Who would have thought we'd have to go to KY to meet local musicians! Unfortunately, there were horrible lightening storms that cancelled the performances on Saturday. Everyone made it off the mountain safely and that's the most important thing. We hope to be back there next year to make up for the lost performance!

If you are following me on Social Media, you may know that We recently got a tour bus, and we need to give her a name. People have suggested "Moonbeam", "Ground Control", "Bleau Moon" and "Moonbeam". If you have a suggestion, let us know on FB. Also, if you use one of my songs in A TikTok video, I'll duet you if you tag me! Let's have some fun!

Rewind 94.3, Interviews Sunny

On June 25th Radio Host, Jill Elinore, of 94.3 Rewind out of Monroe, MI introduced radio listeners to Sunny Bleau. Sunny and her producer and guitarist for the Moons, Nicholas Cocco, sat down for an hour-long interview with Elinore, whose program gives new and unsigned artists a chance to discuss their music and have it played on the air.

Elenore played 4 of Sunny's songs, including a sneak pre-listen of her highly-anticipated 4th release, Winning, which came out July 2ndth. Sunny and Cocco played 2 additional songs acoustically on the air that will be on Sunny's 2021 album.

If you missed the airing of the interview, you will be able to find it at sunnybleau.com under the Media tab.
