In your own words, please describe this child, his or her personality and his or her likes and dislikes:

If the parents separated during the child's recollection, please describe any changes in the child's personality that occurred after the separation. If there was never a separation or the child was too young to remember it, just write N/A.

How does this child perform in school?

What is his or her favorite subject? Least favorite?

When was the last parent-teacher conference that you attended and what was discussed?

Does this child have a learning disability of any kind? If so, please describe.

Please provide your child's teacher's email. If your child has more than one teacher, please provide an email for the teacher who knows him or her the best (or your best guess as to who that would be). I routinely send a 20-item questionnaire to the teacher to get a picture of the child's in-class behavior and social functioning. If you are completing this form during the summer break and do not have access to the teachers' emails, just state that that is the case. Thank you.
