Construction, Renovation and Demolition (CRD) Wood Supply and Demand in Canada - Stakeholders

This diagram highlights key stakeholders and categories within Canada's salvaged wood supply and demand ecosystem. The examples provided are representative, not exhaustive.

Generation Collection Processing/Retail Buyers/End Uses Converting materials into new Gathering and sorting materials Activities generating unused or Individuals or entities purchasing for processing or disposal. waste materials recoverable for use. products and/or distributing them. and using the final products. New Construction Homeowner Regional Waste Recovery Centres (residential/commercial) D.I.Y. Projects (featuring separate areas for wood drop-offs) Individuals/Businesses Deconstruction Digital (or Physical) Material Exchange Platforms, Businesses (residential/commercial) Seeking Lumber Supply Demolition Furniture C&D Waste Recovery Centres (residential/commercial) (residential/commercial) Repurposing Facility/ Flooring Products Deconstruction and Salvaging Firms Organization, Retail (residential/commercial) Collection, Transport Reused Non-structural Lumber Interior Finishes Commercial Renovations and Source Separation Manufacturer/Retailer (residential/commercial) (e.g. entrepreneurs, ecocentres) Film Industry -Furniture Manufacturer Household Renovations Material Haulers Set Design Department Insurance Claim Intermediate Product Flooring Manufacturer Renovations (e.g. particleboards) Businesses Interior Finishing (e.g. manufacturing wood flooring, Agriculture/Farm Bedding Manufacturer furniture; handling pallets) Intermediate Landscaping Product Manufacturer (commercial) (e.g. particleboards) Agricultural Animal Wood Chips to Energy Bedding Manufacturer Energy Landfilling Incineration Recovery Landscaping Mulch Manufacturer

