November 1: All Saints Sunday Sacrament of Holy Communion

November 1, All Saints Day, is a day of remembrance for all the "saints," a term used in the New Testament to refer to all Christian people of every time and place. We celebrate the communion of the saints as we remember the dead, both of the Church universal and of our local congregation.

During the Great Thanksgiving for Holy Communion this Sunday, the names of persons in our church who have died during the past year will be solemnly read: Ernest Corrao, Paul Hennessey, Betsy Love, Donald Murray.

Communion kits with a wafer and juice will be distributed to worshipers as they enter the sanctuary. Persons worshipping at home are invited to secure their own elements, have them consecrated, and partake at the same time as those in the sanctuary.

Pastor's Sermon:

What We Will Be Has Not Yet Been Revealed

Lectionary Readings: Revelation 7:9-17; Psalm 34:1-10, 22;
1 John 3:1-3; Matthew 5:1-12

Liturgist: Rynn Naylor Singer: Vinita Chapman

Four WUMC youth – Cody Cordova, Zachary Cordova, James Levario, and Matthew Shupenis – are about to begin their journey toward making professions of faith and becoming full members of the church. A Reminder about our Special COVID-19 Support Fund

The Church Council has created a support fund to assist persons who have been severely impacted by the economic shutdown related to the pandemic.

- If you need financial assistance, please contact Pastor John (845-707-5152). Requests and donations will be kept strictly confidential.
- If you would like to make a donation to the fund, you can mail a check to the church office (write "COVID-19 Support Fund" on the memo line); or you can donate online through the Breeze link on our church's website (write "COVID-19 Support Fund" in the message box). Thank you!

Another Opportunity to Provide Support

My name is Robert Jenusaitis and I am Joann King's brother. I will be moving to the Woodbury/Waterbury area in the next few months and I'm looking for a room/apartment in exchange for work. I'm presently working for AARP as an associate for Salvation Army. In the past, I have done caregiving for the elderly and for people with special needs. I have also been a public school teacher for 13 years from 1988-2001. I have also been studying and practicing various kinds of wellness modalities for 25 years. I'm more than able to do yard work and I'm very decent cook.

I consider myself to be conscientious and respectful and I will present references upon request. I thank you for taking time to consider my request. Please contact me via my cell phone or email-360-821-9149hopelovenow@yahoo.com

A Message from the Prayer Ministry Team

While driving the other day, I couldn't help but be awed by the beauty of the changing leaves in Autumn. I thought about the seasons of our life -- infancy, childhood, youth, young adult, middle age and old age. There are other seasons too, ones of great joy or expectation, ones of anxiety, illness, sadness and loss.

The Bible tells us that through all of these times, we should "Pray without ceasing."

WUMC has a very dedicated and active prayer ministry. We are praying for you, our members, for others we know and love as well as for people whose prayer requests have been shared with us, but whom we have never met. There are currently nine "prayer warriors" on our prayer team and as we receive prayer requests, we share them through emails and then we meet once a month in person to pray together and review all the prayer concerns we have received. The requests shared with us are CONFIDENTIAL and unless otherwise directed, are just kept among our group.

Christ instructs us to "bear one another's burdens," and I personally feel it is a blessing and a humble privilege to pray and to have this wonderful communication with our Lord!

I think that many of us have personally experienced the mystery and power and comfort of prayer and have felt a peace and support during difficult times.

There are prayer cards as you enter the church which can be placed in a special box there, or you can reach any one of us by email with a request. Pastor John, Rynn Naylor and I can also be reached by phone or text message. Our prayer team members are:

Pastor John – email at:	johnthomason1948@yahoo.com	phone:	845-707-5152
Carolyn Shay – email at:	1jerseygirl52@gmail.com	phone:	203-518-3177
Rynn Naylor – email at:	twerppiewicket@yahoo.com	phone:	860-417-9808

RaeAnn Hockenberry, Sherry Swanhall, Pat Kurtz, Martha Varnum, Diane Hibbard, and Mark Davis.

So, we welcome you to share your joys and concerns and to pray with us to our Lord and Savior, who hears all our prayers!

Carolyn Shay
