

Take a 360° walking tour of Parker House's October 2023 High Point Market Showroom!

Whether you weren't able to make it to High Point Market, or you're interested in taking another look at something that caught your eye in October, our 360° walking tour of the Parker House showroom is a great way to see what's new!

Navigate between floors, walk product by product, check out new product (denoted with a yellow bullseye!), and click and drag to change your vantage point!

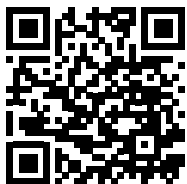

Start your tour by scanning one of the QRs, or by clicking on one of the links below.
