Today is Human Relations Day with Special Offering

We celebrate six special offerings through the year as a worldwide connection. Human Relations Day raises funds to support ministries that strengthen communities, especially those facing poverty, injustice, or lack of opportunity. Inspired by Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s vision of the "beloved community," Human Relations Day calls us to build relationship rooted in dignity, equity, and love.

Call to Worship

Leader: Beloved of God, if you are weary, come. If your compassion feels thin and your hope feels frayed, come.

People: We come, trusting the One who hears our cry and lifts us up.

Leader: The Holy One says, It is too small a thing to shrink our love and narrow our mercy.

People: We come to be enlarged by grace, made bold for justice, and steady in hope.

Leader: The psalmist testifies, God set my feet upon a rock and put a new song in my mouth.

People: We come to sing a new song of courage, joy, and healing for our neighbors.

Leader: Scripture assures us, you are not lacking in any spiritual gift.

People: We come as a gifted people, ready to serve, ready to learn, ready to be sent.

Leader: Jesus says, Come and see. Come and see where Love is already at work.

People: We come and we will see. We will follow, we will speak, we will act.

Leader: Let us worship the God who gathers us, heals us, and sends us.

People: With hearts open and voices strong, we worship and we go.
