The grounds for the recall are as follows.

Tony Wu has caused significant financial damage to West Covina, resulting in a $4.1 million litigation settlement against the city, with more lawsuits pending. (Click here)

Wu is under criminal investigation by the L.A. County Sheriff for threatening and coercing city staff, displaying unethical conduct. (Click here)

Wu violates transparency by holding closed city council meetings, breaching the Brown Act, and attempting to censor free speech through changes to the municipal code. (Click here)

Wu's pursuit of a municipal Health Department poses a threat of bankruptcy to the city, while his interference in city matters disregards the established chain of command. (Click here)

Wu's advocacy for dangerous development at California's largest toxic hazardous waste landfill (BKK) raises serious concerns about public safety and health. (Click here)

During the COVID pandemic, Wu failed to authorize federal funds for local businesses, demonstrating a lack of support for the community. (Click here)

Wu voted against redeveloping portions of downtown to aid small businesses. This decision reveals a lack of support for the local economy and ignores the potential for revitalization. (Click here)

The recall action aims to address Wu's misdeeds, restore trust, and ensure West Covina and its residents are properly represented.
