Parade History

The roots of the West Orange Parade can be traced back over 60 years ago to two organizations that are still involved today. These Organizations are the Irish-American Society of the Oranges and the Frank O'Hara Association.

These organizations would march south along the west side of Main Street from Our Lady of Lourdes to the present site of the old A&P parking lot. Upon reaching there, they would board buses and proceed to the Newark Parade.

In 1974 a permit was obtained from the Police department to expand the Parade. In that year, the Parade, following its expanded route, proceeded to Township Hall. It should be noted that in that year the Parade occupied the full width of Main Street.

It was also during this time that the Parade was dedicated to Archbishop Thomas A. Boland, and that a reviewing stand was arranged at the West Orange Community house. The Parade sadly lost Archbishop Boland in March of 1979. The Archbishop's last public appearance was fittingly at the Parade he admired so much, just five days prior to his death.

In 1976 the Parade Committee was formed and officially incorporated in 1977. This initiative was led by the first PARADE CHAIRMAN Patrick J. Melvin. It was through Pat's vision that the modern Parade was born. Pat sadly passed in 1996 one day after his beloved Parade went up the street again; he remained an officer of the committee till the day of his passing. The formation of the Parade Committee expanded the financial as well as the physical base of the Parade. The first formalized West Orange Parade was held in the bicentennial year of 1976. The Parade has grown exponentially from its modest beginnings through the continued dedication of the committee. The Committee today is comprised of many children and grandchildren of that "beginning" generation. The Parade has now become the pre-eminent Parade in the state as few can match its unique combination of dignity, class and size. The Parade attracts thousands of marchers, including Irish-American groups in the area in addition to fraternal, community, and school groups. A very unique tradition of this Parade is the fact that all participants are encouraged to attend mass together as a prelude to the Parade.

The Parade Mass has become a beautiful part of the day as the marchers are led in by the Shillelagh Pipe Band. The mass gives the marchers pause to remember the unique intertwined nature faith plays in Irish culture and how St. Patrick brought us this spiritual gift. Due to its appeal, the location of the Parade Mass is rotated yearly, involving the Parishes of Our Lady of Lourdes, Our Lady of the Valley, Our Lady of the Lake, St. Joseph's, and Our Lady of the Lake, Verona.

The Parade's other tradition is its annual investiture ceremony. This event is the social highlight of the St. Patrick's day season. This is the official swearing in ceremony of the Parade's Grand Marshal and Deputy Grand Marshals. The piping in and announcing all the former parade honorees from previous years who continue to return to support the Parade highlights the event. The newest honorees are presented with their sashes that day and formerly introduced as part of the "Parade family."

The Parade continues to grow in size and respect as witnessed by larger turnouts of marchers, spectators, and the attendance of U.S. Senators, Governors, Congressman, and other elected officials. It has grown because of the family-atmosphere that has been provided and the family traditions it has fostered. New Jersey's "Family Parade" will continue to be successful because of the refined way in which it allows Irish-Americans to demonstrate their pride in their heritage and culture in a dignified forum.

The Committee has been an innovator in improving the Parade in so many ways. The advent of flags, banners, posters, websites, pins, corporate sponsorships, etc. have constantly evolved to the point where the Parade has a unique look and feel that may be imitated but cannot be duplicated. The Parade has taken pride in honoring men and women from all walks of life. The Irish have always been proud of being both Americans and of Irish ancestry. They have been among the most patriotic immigrants this country has ever witnessed, winning more Congressional Medals of Honor than any other ethnic group. Even George Washington recognized this fact by having a hand in the formation of the first parade in New York which is older than the country itself and is the biggest in the world today. The West Orange Parade has been a social innovator in having the first woman Grand Marshal and first woman Chairman of any parade in the state. The Parade Committee today continues to be progressive with a relatively young committee which features women in many of the leadership roles.

Throughout the history of the Parade, there have been many who have contributed to its success and ensuring the continuation of a fine tradition in our community. While there are many who have gone before, the Parade Committee has chosen to remember certain individuals who have touched the hearts of many in a very special way. In 2016 we added the name Brendan P. Tevlin under the names of Archbishop Boland and Patrick J. Melvin. These exceptional gentlemen had a true dedication to the Spirit of St. Patrick and represented the qualities of faith and pride that are integral to the continued success of the Parade.

message From The Chairman

Dear Friends,

This year we celebrate the 69th Annual West Orange St. Patrick's Day Parade. I am truly honored and proud to serve as this year's Chairperson. It is with great pleasure that the Committee and I celebrate 5 deserving honorees: our Grand Marshal Mellen Dangler and our Deputy Grand Marshals Lt. John DeMars, the Hon. Patrick Giblin, Bobby Lamb, and Rob Swenson. Our honorees have dedicated their lives to charity, community, family, service, and representing the best aspects of being an Irish-American. May you each remember and cherish this celebration for the rest of your lives.

The Parade cannot happen each year without the help of our Committee. Every year, this group tirelessly and anonymously volunteers their precious time to put this beautiful Parade on the street. Thank you to Michael Cunningham, our Vice Chair, for all of your support through this year. A tremendous thank you to Jim McNany, Katie Bogart, Mary Cassels, Terry McHugh, Carol Corcoran, Sheila Parisi, Michael Tevlin, Jeff Bogart, Chris Wightman, Joseph Ryan, Hon. Joseph P. Brennan, Jr., Stephanie Gallo, Maureen O'Hara, Jere Cole, Bill Kehoe, Mark Bracci, Barbara Hughes, Marian Cardace, Gwen Glazier, the Hon. John McKeon, and Msgr. Michael Kelly.

It is with sincere gratitude that I acknowledge the contributions of Mayor Robert Parisi, the Town Council, the West Orange Police & Fire Departments, the Department of Public Works, West Orange High School TV 36, and Our Lady of the Valley Roman Catholic Church.

I would especially like to thank ALL of you who come from hundreds of miles away or from down the block to celebrate and support this Parade every year. You keep our Irish-American traditions alive.

Finally, I would like to thank my amazing wife Jennifer and my two children, Jack and Molly, for supporting me and having the patience to deal with all of the work that being the Chairperson entails. This Parade has been a part of my life since before I could walk. And nothing brings me more joy marching down Main Street than the happiness and laughter of the next generation of children partaking in this celebration and tradition.

Thank you and Happy St. Patrick's Day,

Kevin Brennan

Message From The Grand Marshal

Dear Friends and Family,

I would like to thank the Parade Committee for nominating me and selecting me as this year's Grand Marshal. It is truly an honor and I will cherish it for the rest of my life. Thank you Parade Chairman, Kevin Brannan, and the entire Parade Committee. Their guidance along this incredible journey has been a God send. My family and I have been huge supporters of the parade for many years, and to see it from the inside has given me a new respect for all the hard work and dedication that it takes to get to parade day. We have an awesome Parade Committee, I applaud you all!

Thank you to my family, my Chief of Staff - Darren, Special Aides to Mommy - Kristin, Breann, Morgan, & DJ, Special Aide - Katie McGrath, for all the love, support, and for always having my back.

Congratulation to my fellow honorees, Deputy Grand Marshals, John DeMars, Patrick Giblin, Bobby Lamb and Robert Swenson. I have enjoyed our last several months together and could not have shared this honor with a better group of deserving individuals.

Throughout the past few months, it has been great to see old friends and make new ones. I know that my parents are smiling down and will be up there bragging as they watch us all march proudly down Main Street in this year's 69th West Orange St. Patrick's Day Parade.

"May love and laughter light your days, and warm your heart and home.
May good and faithful friends be yours, wherever you may roam.
May peace and plenty bless your world with joy that long endures.
May all life's passing seasons bring the best to you and yours!"

Happy St. Patrick's Day!
