When Baby Contestants arrive, you will check in at the Pageant Registration table. ONE parent/family member ONLY must accompany Baby contestant in dressing room and on stage. NO MORE THAN ONE PARENT /family member WITH BABY CONTESTANT. We will have separate dressing rooms for girls and boys.

When Contestants arrive, you will check in at the Pageant Registration table in lobby. Ages 3+ may have ONE parent/family member to assist in dressing room with changes. ONLY ONE parent/family member WILL BE ALLOWED IN. We will have separate dressing rooms for girls and boys.

Our pageant is a family event. When you arrive in the lobby will check-in at the pageant registration. We will have your application form on file, and we will assign a contestant number for you. You may sit in the audience with your family and friends until right before your age division is called. At that time please be back stage in line-up. Parents: Contestants will should be back stage for division line-up . BABY contestants will be escorted on stage by a family member of your choice. Babies cannot be unattended at any time. Contestants 3 & up will be able to walk the runway by themselves, unless they want someone to go with them. Contestants 3 & up are interviewed on stage. Young contestants are asked their name, age, and a very simple question like what they watch on TV? Older contestants will be asked more detailed questions, like what their hobbies, plans and future ambitions are. No contestant will ever be asked anything political or anything that will make them uncomfortable. Our pageant is designed to increase self-esteem, build self-confidence, to make sure you have a good time and a valuable experience. Each contestant leaves with something, and we want everyone to leave with a positive attitude. Our pageants are not open to the public. In order to purchase a ticket you must be a relative or friend of a contestant. We do this in order to create the safest and nicest environment for our contestants.

Remember we want this to be a fun experience for all. All outfits must be age appropriate. Our pageant system allows makeup but discourages excess use of makeup on children, We prefer a natural look. Contestants should always look age appropriate. No Artificial tanning on children. Have fun and be yourself!
