MONTANA MULE DAYS

June 9, 10, 11, 2017

Whitehall Rodeo Grounds
Whitehall, MT

Montana Longears Association invites you to attend the 33rd Annual Montana Mule Days. Whitehall, Mt at the Whitehall Rodeo Grounds. Our show judge will be Ms. Angela Walsh from CO.

Admission will be $10.00 per person for a season pass, or $5.00 per day with youth 6 and under free. Dry camping is $10.00 per night.

Bring your own hay. Bring hoses for water. Please be sure to pick up all manure before you leave. Pens are available at no charge. No reservations. Once again, please clean up when you leave. Please do not move any of the panels that are put together to make the pens.

BE SURE TO READ ALL RULES CAREFULLY AS THERE HAVE BEEN SOME CHANGES

Gates to the Rodeo Grounds Thursday morning June 8, 2017. 8:00 am It is not recommended that you leave equipment at the Rodeo grounds as there is no security. You would be doing that at your own risk.

SAFETY CONCERN: NO ONE UNDER 18 YEARS OLD TO BE RIDING OR DRIVING JACKS OUTSIDE OF ARENA UNLESS ACCOMPANIED BY OWNER OF JACK.

As the show continues to grow changes must be made to try to accommodate everyone. The Show Committee has the best interests of the show in mind when making the decisions to change some classes, and rules. It is hoped that these changes will help make the show even better.

We hope you have a fun weekend and we look forward to seeing old friends and making new ones. We hope everyone has a great time and at the same time we can educate the public on what you can do with your mules and donkeys.

ALL CONTESTANTS, VENDORS AND SPECTATORS MUST PURCHASE ADMITTANCE.

Please be aware and considerate of others and make sure your dogs are under control and on a leash at all times.

Winner of the 2015 American Mule Trainer Challenge

TY Evans

Will be at Montana Mule Days giving demonstrations during the lunch breaks. He will also be holding a clinic on June 6th, 7th and 8th in Whitehall at the Rodeo grounds. If you are interested in signing up for a class please contact Ty Evans

MONTANA BRAND INSPECTION & HEALTH REQUIREMENTS

Brand Inspection is required:
1. Before removal from the county.
2. Before removal from the state
3. Before a change of ownership (selling 1 head or more)
4. Before horses are sold at a livestock auction
5. Before slaughter at a licensed establishment
A bill of sale is required to prove ownership. A bill of sale signed by the seller and adequately describing the livestock sold must be presented to the livestock inspector whenever the change of ownership inspection is made or whenever a buyer of livestock crosses a county line or state line.

Annual brand inspections are available that allow travel anywhere within the State for 1 year from the date of issuance. Cost $6.00.

Lifetime inspections are also available: They allow travel anywhere within the United States & Canada via a reciprocal agreement with the other states & provinces. The cost is $30. & is available through State Stock Inspectors.

ANIMAL HEALTH REQUIREMENTS

Montana Law requires that ALL livestock being brought into Montana be accompanied by a current Veterinary Health Inspection, an import permit number & current Coggins Test. Import permits are to be obtained by the Vet issuing the VHI within 10 days prior to entry into Montana by calling 406-444-2976. Canadian Imports must meet the requirements of the State of Montana. Failure to have the proper documents is a violation of Montana Law & can result in a citation & fine. Call 406-444-2045 or your local brand inspector.
