What to teach our young learners about the ocean?

There are so many things to learn about the ocean. Young children have so many questions about the ocean and it could lead to a very long unit study while you let their curiosity lead the way.

Even if they are not able to visit an ocean, they can enjoy imagining what it would be like and engaging in ocean inspired pretend play. Some will be thrilled to learn new facts about sea creatures and there are tons of opportunities for sensory exploration.

Lesson For The Week

This week's lesson is interesting and highly recommendable. We will be learning about the ocean. It will be another week of exploration, of interacting with different creatures under the ocean. I hope you enjoyed barbecue, fireworks and parties last week. This week we will see the beauty of the world and help protect all of them for the next generation.

Goals for this week:

1. Trace the upper and lower case letter A,
2. Recognize object names that begin with the letter A,
3. Match pictures and name words with initial "a",
4. Make sets of objects that is equal to 9,
5. Recognize brown objects around them and start naming them,
6. Trace, cut and make their own ovals,
7. Make logical connections while working with patterns,
8. Recognize rhymes using pictures while reading after the teacher,
9. Develop phonemic awareness through pictures.

Domains and skills developed:

1. Fine motor skills: Tracing, writing, drawing, cutting, and coloring
2. Social & emotional: Identifying, observing, and naming things that they see around them
3. Cognitive: Recognize numbers, letters, colors, and shapes
4. Language & communication: Talk about their favorite color and shape, developing simple answers to simple questions, naming the four kinds of weather
5. Physical: Action songs and reciting nursery rhymes
