

Tied in Knots ?

At In Tension al Massage Therapy we are dedicated to listening to our clients and being intentional about our focus during the session. Too many times we hear about therapists going into autopilot, not attending to what the client requests. It is very important to us to make sure clients feel heard and seen, feeling better than when they walked in.

