

“Talented vocalists”
“Professional presentation”
“Great song selection”

These are a few of the comments from those who have heard the group.

Ginger Thompson and her bands have for many years been among the most popular dance and concert groups in the area. She has played dates from New York to Florida on a full-time basis and she has recorded in studios in the Raleigh area, as well as the famed Capricorn Studios in Macon, GA, and Chess Records in New York City. With a heart and soul of Motown / R&B, the band also plays a variety of music to fit their audience. Sometimes it's a little more country and beach; sometimes a little more rock and pop. Most recently the GTB trio performed an Aretha Franklin tribute with “The Embers” at the 2018 Carolina Beach Music Awards show at the Alabama Theater in Myrtle Beach, SC.

The Ginger Thompson Band sees itself as only half the music. The other half is the audience. This connection is what makes it all so much fun! Fast moving and up tempo, or soft and tender as the occasion requires, this group is certain to fill your entertainment needs.

Eddy Strickland: Keyboard

Eddy began playing piano in his early teenage years, learning much from his aunt and his sister. He joined his first band in the late 60's. The British Invasion, and especially The Beatles, were among his early influences. His journey through music has included a wide variety of genres. He has enjoyed playing Beach Music, Motown/Soul, Country, Rock & Jazz. He has also played in various church bands, gospel groups, and choirs. He is currently playing keyboards with The Ginger Thompson Band from Raleigh, NC. He also enjoys spending time with family and friends, hanging out at the beach, and the pool, listening to music.

James (Juke) Aldridge: Drummer & Vocals

Juke began his drumming career after watching Ringo Starr on The Ed Sullivan Show back in the sixties. After serving in the Army, he joined a band called "East Coast Run", a variety band that played everything from The Rolling Stones to The Temptations. They backed many groups of that era including The Showmen, and opened for Herman's Hermits. All of these and many more memories helped him develop his love for Soul and R&B music. Juke has played with Ginger's band over the years, and is a great asset to the band.

music; Southern Rock, Blues, Beach, & Soul. He loves riding his motorcycle, getting sundown at the beach, and spending time at home with his wife Heidi spoiling their grandchildren.

Ed Marconi: Guitar/Vocals

Ed was born in New York, but has called Raleigh home since 2007. He developed a love for Carolina Beach Music immediately after arriving in North Carolina. Playing guitar professionally for over 30 years and performing many shows, Ed had a knack for being an "on the spot" performer for local bands ranging from Idlewild South to Bull City Syndicate. This former "Yankee" always had a love for the South as well as it's

Eddie Blair: Saxophone/Vocals

A veteran performer since the 60s, Eddie's father, Dr. Sam Blair, gave him his first saxophone at age 11. In 1962 Eddie, his two brothers, and friend formed their first soul band known as The Counts, playing the hit songs of the era. Throughout high school and college, Eddie performed with many regional Rock, Motown, Beach, Soul, and R&B bands. His high school group, The Fabulous Flares won the 1966 NC Battle of the Bands competition, and went on to place 4th in the National Battle of the Bands in Boston. He is perhaps best known for his 50-year stint with Nantucket. They received a Lifetime Achievement Award by the Charlotte Music Award Association in 2008 and were inducted into the North Carolina Music Hall of Fame in 2012. He recorded six albums with the band on CBS/Epic and RCA Records. Nantucket toured with, and opened for AC/DC, Kiss, Journey, Bob Seger, Boston, The Doobie Brothers, Heart, Foreigner, Cheap Trick, REO Speedwagon, Eddie Money, Ted Nugent, Jefferson Starship, The Allman Brothers, Lynyrd Skynyrd, The Marshall Tucker Band, Average White Band, and many more. In 1985, Eddie launched a new career in commercial real estate, however, music remains his passion.
