FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AARP SERVICES INC. PROUDLY RECOGNIZES Jessica Wanek
FOR 50+ HOURS OF VOLUNTEER WORK
Community involvement is an important part of AARP's Mission

Plainfield, IL; (December 2017) — AARP Services Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of AARP that oversees providers and the products offered to its members, recognizes Jessica Wanek for 50+ volunteer hours through the ACES community service program.

Jessica Wanek volunteers as a Sunday School teacher with the Plainfield United Methodist Church. She also fosters animals for the Help Save Pets animal shelter.

"We believe in the power of one," says Lawrence Flanagan, president of AARP Services Inc. "One AARP encouraging members 'to serve, not to be served,' which was the motto of AARP's founder Dr. Ethel Percy Andrus', and now we applaud the power of one person in their community making a difference."

"I'm honored to be recognized by AARP Services Inc. for helping out in the community," said Jessica Wanek. "I look forward to continuing to be an ACES volunteer; it's such a rewarding experience!"

Part of AARP's social mission, the ACES program tracks the volunteer service hours of people who are authorized to offer AARP-branded products, and engage and serve the community. Those wishing to make a difference in their own neighborhood can go to CreateTheGood.org to find local volunteer opportunities.
