1. Nature of operation and going concern

Kure Technologies, Inc. (the "Company" or "Kure") was incorporated June 1, 1998 under the Business Corporations Act of Ontario.

The Company currently has no business activity. The Company's shares are listed for trading on the NEX, a separate board of the TSX Venture Exchange, under the symbol "KUR.H". On January 6, 2023, trading of shares was halted and the Company is working with the Ontario Securities Commission to have trading reinstated. References to "Kure" and the "Company" include the legal entity Kure Technologies, Inc. and its wholly owned subsidiary, UBS Wireless Services Inc.

Going concern

These unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial statements were prepared on a going-concern basis of preparation, which assumes that the Company will continue operations for the foreseeable future and be able to realize the carrying value of its assets and discharge its liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business. To date, the Company has an accumulated deficit of $59,952 and a working capital deficiency of $1,299. The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on its ability to obtain additional financing and or achieve profitable operations in the future. These factors indicate the existence of a material uncertainty that may cast significant doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. These unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial statements do not reflect adjustments that would be necessary if the going concern assumption was not appropriate. These adjustments could be material.

The Company's financing efforts to date, are not sufficient in and of themselves to enable the Company to fund all aspects of its operations. Management will pursue funding initiatives if, as and when required to meet the Company's requirements on an ongoing basis. Nevertheless, there is no assurance that these initiatives will be successful or sufficient.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies

10. Management of capital

The Company's main objective when managing capital is to safeguard the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. As at February 28, 2023, the Company was not subject to any externally imposed capital requirements. The Company defines its capital as shareholders' equity plus short-term loans.

The Board of Directors does not establish quantitative return on capital criteria for management, but rather relies on the expertise of the Company's management to sustain future development of the business. There were no significant changes to the Company's approach to capital management during the periods ended February 28, 2023 and August 31, 2022.

11. Financial instruments and risk management

The Company's activities may expose it to a variety of financial risks: fair values, credit risk, liquidity risk and market risk (including interest rate and equity price risk).

Risk management is carried out by the Company's management team with guidance from the Audit Committee, under policies approved by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors also provides regular guidance for overall risk management.

Fair values

As at February 28, 2023, financial instruments consist of cash, accounts receivable and other receivables, accounts payable, accrued liabilities, and short-term loans. The fair values of these financial instruments approximate their carrying values due to the relatively short-term maturity of these instruments.

Fair value estimates are made at a specific point in time, based on relevant market information and information about financial instruments. These estimates are subject to and involve uncertainties and matters of significant judgment, and therefore cannot be determined with precision. Changes in assumptions could significantly affect the estimates.

The Company classifies its financial instruments carried at fair value according to a three-level hierarchy that reflects the significance of the inputs used in making the fair value measurements. The three levels of fair value hierarchy are as follows:

- Level 1 – Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2 - Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for assets and liabilities, either directly or indirectly;
- Level 3 – Inputs for assets or liabilities that are not based on observable market data.

11. Financial instruments and risk management (continued)

As at February 28, 2023 and August 31, 2022, cash is recorded at fair value under Level 1 within the fair value hierarchy.

The derivative liability as at August 31, 2022 (Note 6) was classified as Level 3 within the fair value hierarchy.

The following table shows the valuation techniques used in measuring Level 3 fair values for the derivative liability outstanding as at August 31, 2022, as well as the significant unobservable inputs used.

Type	Valuation technique	Key inputs	Inter-relationship between significant inputs and fair value measurement
Derivative liability	The fair value of derivative liability at initial recognition and at period-end has been calculated using a system of two-coupled Black Scholes Option pricing equations and partial differential equations that are solved simultaneously using finite-difference methods.	Key observable inputs <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Share price• Risk free interest rate• Dividend yield Key unobservable inputs <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Expected volatility• Discount for lack of marketability	The estimated fair value would increase (decrease) if: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The share price was higher (lower)• The risk-free interest rate was higher (lower)• The dividend yield was lower (higher)• The expected volatility was higher (lower)• The discount for lack of marketability was lower (higher)

The Company is exposed in varying degrees to a number of risks arising from financial instruments. Management's involvement in the operations allows for the identification of risks and variances from expectations. The Company does not participate in the use of financial instruments to mitigate these risks. The Board approves the risk management processes. The Board's main objectives for managing risks are to ensure liquidity, the fulfillment of obligations and limit exposure to credit and market risks.

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of financial loss to the Company if a customer or counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its obligations. The Company is exposed to credit risk through its cash balance which is held at Canadian financial institutions. The Company believes its exposure to credit risk is not significant.

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. Management believes the Company had no significant exposure to interest rate risk through its financial instruments as at February 28, 2023 and August 31, 2022.

The Company coordinates this planning and budgeting process with its financing activities through the capital management process described in note 10, in normal circumstances.
